John Holt Roland Meighan, 2014-10-23 John Holt the American educator was passionate about the need for alternatives to traditional institutional schooling seeing schools as often hindering children from learning rather than helping them he became an important proponent of homeschooling or unschooling was a pioneer in youth rights theory and had a profound influence on school reform in particular and educational philosophy in general Here Roland Meighan challenges the often held notion that Holt's work was romantic and impractical within the context of compulsory schooling He brings together the work and thinking of John Holt into applicable theory for education students enabling readers to appreciate the view that individuals outside the education system can influence and change what is happening within it traditional religious fundamentalist ideas and the twentieth century free market arguments of the Chicago school of economists to President Trump's administration and the influence of the Alt Right      Sanctuary School Chandler Patton Miranda, 2025-07-28 A compassionate examination of a topic of urgent concern in US education      Explorations in Classical Sociological Theory Kenneth Allan, 2010 Explorations in Classical Sociological Theory Seeing the Social World Second Edition is an undergraduate sociological theory textbook that introduces the student to the major classical theorists including Marx Spencer Durkheim Weber Simmel Mead Schutz Gilman and Du Bois The theorists were chosen for the diversity of their perspectives as well as their ability to introduce the student to contemporary theory Kenneth Allan uses a lively informative writing style to engage the students in the eras of social change that spawned the major sociological theories and then applies them to the current era which also is experiencing major social change Features and benefits The book includes a glossary of terms Each of the theorist's important concepts are highlighted in the text and clear definitions provided in the glossary This feature is particularly important because theory is made up of terms and concepts and without the use of a glossary it is very easy for the undergraduate theory student to lose track of the terms and meanings While the book is organized primarily around the individual theorist's perspective a categorical scheme is also provided so the student can roughly situate the theorists and decide for themselves some of sociology's big questions The scheme provided in the book is not the one usually used by textbooks The more commonly used scheme conflict functional interaction hides some really important questions that the student needs to consider for example is society an object or does it exist only through interpretations The book provides an appendix with complete definitions of most of sociology's major perspectives e.g critical theory including feminism race and queer theory postmodernism and so on exchange theory rational choice theory dramaturgy ethnomethodology structuration network theory ecological theory social phenomenology and so on The book introduces the power and poetry of theory by extensive use of original source material from the theorists' writings      On the Battlefield of Merit Daniel R. Congressional Record United States. Congress,1997

The Sociology of Terrorism Stephen Vertigans,2013-03

Drawing on a number of examples including religious nationalist and racist from territories across the world this book creates an innovative framework within which to allow a holistic account of terrorism to emerge It is the first textbook on the subject based on sociological research

Social Contexts of Radicalization and Violent Extremism in the MENA and Balkans Corinne Torrekens,Tasnim Chirchi,Lurdes Vidal Bertran,2025-04-29 This volume is a multilevel and multidisciplinary study of radicalization in the Balkans and MENA regions It takes a dynamic approach embracing the complexity of the social political and economic contexts under study Moving away from unidimensional and security centred research on the topic each chapter adopts a participatory and inclusive perspective engaging communities youth and women as significant stakeholders in building a better understanding of the dynamics of the radicalization of youth in these regions The multiple case studies presented here cover several macro drivers of radicalization to reveal the interactions and interrelations of individuals with meso institutions and backgrounds such as family neighbourhood school peer groups religious and ethnic communities political parties etc Consequently the volume addresses several gaps in the literature regarding radicalization and violent extremism it is based on firm empirical evidence it allows for comparisons between social contexts in one specific country and between countries sharing macro similarities but also differences it proposes a fruitful dialogue and collaborations between academics researchers and civil society experts and finally it offers decentralized perspectives on extremism in the West This volume is an important addition to a topic that is of interest to researchers across the social sciences and to think tanks and policy makers working on in these regions
