Reading Radio 4 Macdonald Daly, 2016-12-01 This book is a study of contemporary Radio 4 output covering the entire broadcast day Radio is largely neglected by media and cultural studies The small body of existing work on Radio 4 is predominantly historical focusing on institutional history or sociological focusing on contemporary BBC editorial and journalistic practices Reading Radio 4 by contrast analyses contemporary Radio 4 programmes entirely from the point of view of today's listener Individual chapters correspond to all existing Radio 4 timeslots in the entire broadcast day of 19 hours 40 minutes from 5 20am to 1 00am The study while academic in approach aims to promote an informed and critical appreciation of Radio 4 for all listeners as well as students of the media

The Remembered Land Jim Leary, 2015-10-22 How did small scale societies in the past experience and respond to sea level rise What happened when their dwellings hunting grounds and ancestral lands were lost under an advancing tide This book asks these questions in relation to the hunter gatherer inhabitants of a lost prehistoric land a land that became entirely inundated and now lies beneath the North Sea It seeks to understand how these people viewed and responded to their changing environment suggesting that people were not struggling against nature but simply getting on with life with all its trials and hardships satisfactions and pleasures and with a multitude of choices available At the same time this loss of land the loss of places and familiar locales where myths were created and identities formed would have profoundly affected people's sense of being This book moves beyond the static approach normally applied to environmental change in the past to capture its nuances Through this a richer and more complex story of past sea level rise develops a story that may just have resonance for us today
