Raincoast Chronicles 23 Peter A. Robson, 2015-04-25 When the first edition of Raincoast Chronicles was produced by a couple of novice publishers in the unlikely location of Pender Harbour in 1972 it boldly announced that it was going to put BC character on the record Printed in sepia ink and decorated with the rococo flourishes characteristic of that extravagant era the unclassifiable journal cum serial book about life on the BC coast struck a nerve and in time became something very close to what it set out to be a touchstone of British Columbia identity Soon the term Raincoast which had been coined by the editors was appearing on boats puppet theatres interior decorating firms and at least one other publishing enterprise Raincoast Chronicles also created another publishing enterprise Harbour Publishing Many of the stories that started out as articles in the Chronicles grew into books and so the White family was more or less forced to get into book publishing to deal with them That undertaking went on to publish some six hundred books and counting about every possible aspect of BC and in 2014 celebrated its fortieth anniversary in the biz To honour that occasion this special double issue of Raincoast Chronicles takes a tour down memory lane selecting a trove of the most outstanding stories in all those Harbour books and republishing them in one volume Here are some of Canada's most exciting and iconic writers Al Purdy Anne Cameron Edith Iglauer Patrick Lane and Grant Lawrence to start a long list Here also are stories of disasters at sea scarcely believable bush plane feats eerie events at coastal ghost towns and a First Nations elder who has seen so many sasquatches he finds them sort of boring Full of great drawings and photos this jumbo anniversary edition of Raincoast Chronicles is a feast of great Pacific Northwest storytelling America, History and Life ,2001 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide

Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2000 A Resonant Ecology Max Ritts, 2024-08-30 In A Resonant Ecology Max Ritts traces how sound's integration into the environmental politics of Canada's North Coast has paved the way for massive industrial expansion While conservationists hope that the dissemination of whale songs and other nature sounds will showcase the beauty of local wildlife for people around the world Ritts reveals how colonial capitalism can co-opt sonic efforts to protect the coast He demonstrates how digital technologies allow industry to sonically map new shipping lanes and facilitate new ways of experiencing sound premised not on listening but on sound's exploitable status as a data resource By outlining how sound can both perpetuate and refuse capitalist colonialism Ritts challenges the idea that the sonic realm is inherently liberatory and reveals sound to be a powerfully uncertain object Through a situated geographical approach he makes the case that only a decolonial and multigenerational environmental politics can counter the false promise of sustainable marine development held up by industry and the state Quill & Quire, 2004 Raincoast Chronicles, Fourth Five Howard White, 2005 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 The Concise Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature William Toye, 2001 The concise version of the critically acclaimed second edition of The Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature offers all the authority of the original in a smaller more affordable format Entries have been updated and over sixty new entries have been added making it an indispensable resource Ocean of Destiny Arthur Lower, 2011-11-01 The modern history of the North Pacific began five hundred years ago when Europeans sailed into the ocean for the first time This discovery shaped the destinies of seven countries that now rim its Asiatic and North American shores Russia China Japan North Korea South Korea the United States and Canada Their history is an exciting epic of discovery the great expeditions of Marco Polo Drake and Magellan the quest for the spices of Cathay the early days of the fur trade the gold rush and the long treks westward across North America to first establish Canadian and American possessions on the Pacific shore Rivalry and confrontation were part of this epic From the sixteenth to the nineteenth century European powers contested for the riches of the East and the West the wealth of the ocean and territory to satiate colonial ambitions Since that time full blooded conflicts developed between Asian states and between Asia and the Western powers As a major trading power in the Pacific with no tradition of territorial expansion and as a respected peacekeeper Canada is in a unique position to view the history of the Pacific impartially This survey is doubly valuable not only as the first history of the North Pacific dealing with the concurrent events in the East and West but also as a history reflecting Canada's international outlook Raincoast Chronicles Fourth Five Howard White, 2012-02 By far the largest of the Raincoast Chronicles collections at 420 pages Fourth Five is living proof that some things just keep getting better Containing thirty two inimitable stories poems and articles the volume expounds on such diverse matters as supernatural deer the cannery village of Ceepeecee fishing fleet superstitions and the coveted recipe for donkey boiler coffee Writers include coast favourites Howard White Doreen Armitage Tom Henry Dick Hammond Vickie Jensen and Bus Griffiths As a bonus this collection includes two longer features one on the history of Telegraph Cove BC by Pat Wastell Norris and one on the frontier women of BC by Stephen Hume The book is illustrated in characteristically extravagant fashion with drawings and archival photos BC Studies, 1996
