Coast, 1976 The Promise of Paradise Andrew Scott, 2017-03-25 The West has long attracted visionaries and schemers from around the world And no other region in North America can outstrip British Columbia for the number of utopian or intentional settlement attempts in the past 150 years Andrew Scott delves into the dramatic stories of these fascinating but often doomed communities From Doukhobor farmers to Finnish coal miners Quakers and hippies many groups have struggled to build idealistic colonies in BC's inspiring landscape While most discovered hardship disillusionment and failure new groups sprang up and continue to spring up to take their place Meet the quick tempered slave driving Madame Zee partner of the infamous Brother XII who reportedly beat followers with a riding crop Hear from Richard The Troll Schaller who founded the Legal Front Commune General Store and Funny Food Farm on the Sunshine Coast setting off a storm of hostility from locals Congregate with Jerry LeBourdais and fellow members of the Ochiltree Organic Commune who rebelled from hippie communes by embracing meat eating and coffee drinking With careful research and engaging first person accounts Scott sifts through the wreckage of the utopia seekers dreams and delves into the practices and philosophies of contemporary intentional communities This book is a compendium of astounding misadventures as well as an intriguing analysis of what moves people to search for paradise Ocean of Destiny Arthur Lower, 2011-11-01 The modern history of the North Pacific began five hundred years ago when Europeans sailed into the ocean for the first time This discovery shaped the destinies of seven countries that now rim its Asiatic and North American shores Russia China Japan North Korea South

Korea the United States and Canada Their history is an exciting epic of discovery the great expeditions of Marco Polo Drake and Magellan the quest for the spices of Cathay the early days of the fur trade the gold rush and the long treks westward across North America to first establish Canadian and American possessions on the Pacific shore Rivalry and confrontation were part of this epic From the sixteenth to the nineteenth century European powers contested for the riches of the East and the West the wealth of the ocean and territory to sate colonial ambitions Since that time full blooded conflicts developed between Asian states and between Asia and the Western powers As a major trading power in the Pacific with no tradition of territorial expansion and as a respected peacekeeper Canada is in a unique position to view the history of the Pacific impartially This survey is doubly valuable not only as the first history of the North Pacific dealing with the concurrent events in the East and West but also as a history reflecting Canada s international outlook Upcoast Summers Beth Hill, Francis Barrow, 1985 Francis and Amy Barrow spent the summers between 1933 and 1941 exploring the west coast in their little boat searching for and recording First Nations rock art and yarning with the homesteaders in remote bays and inlets The Sunshine Coast Rosella M. whale hunts their relatives the Nuuchah-nulth Nation of British Columbia shortly followed suit. Neither tribe had exercised their right to whale in the case of the Makah a right affirmed in their 1855 treaty with the federal government since the gray whale had been hunted nearly to extinction by commercial whalers in the 1920s. The Makah whale hunt of 1999 was an event of international significance connected to the worldwide struggle for aboriginal sovereignty and to the broader discourses of environmental sustainability, treaty rights, human rights and animal rights. It was met with enthusiastic support and vehement opposition. As a member of the Nuuchah-nulth Nation, Charlotte Cote offers a valuable perspective on the issues surrounding indigenous whaling past and present. Whaling served important social, economic and ritual functions that have been at the core of Makah and Nuuchah-nulth societies throughout their histories. Even as Native societies faced disease epidemics and federal policies that undermined their cultures, they remained connected to their traditions. The revival of whaling has implications for the physical, mental and spiritual health of these Native communities today. Cote asserts, 'Whaling she says defines who we are as a people.' Her analysis includes major Native studies and contemporary Native rights issues and addresses environmentalism, animal rights activism, anti-treaty conservatism and the public's expectations about what it means to be Indian. These thoughtful critiques are intertwined with the author's personal reflections, family stories and information from indigenous anthropological and historical sources to provide a bridge between cultures. A Capell Family Book Following the Curve of Time Cathy Converse, 2011-02-01 Cathy Converse has given us a welcome commentary on Capi Blanchet and her world, one that enriches our understanding of both. The Tyee A paperback edition of the BC Book Award nominated biography of Capi Blanchet, the author of the BC coastal classic The Curve of Time. After her husband died in 1926 from a suspected drowning, Capi Blanchet spent every summer cruising BC's west coast with her five children and their dog in the family's 25 foot boat. The Curve of Time is the book Capi wrote chronicling these adventures and it remains a bestseller and a classic in the annals of nautical literature. But little is known about the rest of her life. Cathy Converse found herself asking, 'who was this skipper, this mother, this writer?' In this biography, Converse offers insiders' recollections of this enigmatic woman along with family photos and updated information about the villages, inlets and islands described in The Curve of Time. Following the Curve of Time is essential reading for anyone who has ever been captivated by the book, the West Coast or Capi herself. International Books in Print, 1991 Indian Fishing Hilary Stewart, 2008-09-01 The Northwest Coast people devised ingenious ways of catching the different species of fish, creating a technology vastly different from that of today's industrial world. With attention to clarity and detail, Hilary Stewart illustrates their hooks, lines, sinkers, lures, floats, clubs, spears, harpoons, nets, traps, rakes and gaffs, showing how these were made and used in over 450 drawings and 75 photographs. One section demonstrates how the catch was butchered, cooked, rendered and preserved. The spiritual aspects of fishing are described as well, prayers and ceremonies in gratitude and honour to the fish, customs and taboos indicating the people's respect for this life-giving resource. The fish designs on household and ceremonial objects are depicted images that tell of fishing's importance to the whole culture Bootleggers and Borders Stephen T. Moore, 2014-11-01 Between 1920 and 1933 the issue of prohibition proved to be the greatest challenge to Canada U S relations When the United States adopted national prohibition in 1920 ironically just as Canada was abandoning its own national and provincial experiments with prohibition U S tourists and dollars promptly headed north and Canadian liquor went south Despite repeated efforts Americans were unable to secure Canadian assistance in enforcing American prohibition laws until 1930 Bootleggers and Borders explores the important but surprisingly overlooked Canada U S relationship in the Pacific Northwest during Prohibition Stephen T Moore maintains that the reason Prohibition created such an intractable problem lies not with the relationship between Ottawa and Washington DC but with everyday operations experienced at the border level where foreign relations are conducted according to different methods and rules and are informed by different assumptions identities and cultural values Through an exploration of border relations in the Pacific Northwest Bootleggers and Borders offers insight into not only the Canada U S relationship but also the subtle but important differences in the tactics Canadians and Americans employed when confronted with similar problems Ultimately British Columbia's method of addressing temperance provided the United States with a model that would become central to its abandonment and replacement of Prohibition Canadian Books in Print ,2001 The League of Canadian Poets League of Canadian Poets, 1980 Pender Harbour Cowboy Betty Keller, 2000 Cowboy logger fisherman writer social activist and grand adventurer Sinclair's fascinating life is set against the changing ranching logging fishing and mining industries that he wrote about and the publishing industry for which he wrote His story takes the reader from the old west of Montana life in California on to Vancouver and the logging community of Harrison until his final move to the B C Sunshine Coast It is here he buys his beloved 37 foot Hoo Hoo and begins his 60 year love affair with Pender Harbour Although he was christened William Brown Sinclair the literary world knew him as Bertrand Sinclair a writer with 15 novels dozens of novelettes and hundreds of short stories to his credit Four of his adventure romance novels have been made into movies But in the communities around Pender Harbour he was just called Bill
