Refugee Resettlement in the Heartland of America Robert Funseth, 1986 U.S. Refugee Resettlement Assistance Andorra Bruno, 2011

In recent years the United States has admitted an increasingly diverse group of refugees and other humanitarian cases with a diverse set of needs There seems to be broad consensus that the U S refugee resettlement assistance system is not adequately meeting the needs of these new arrivals and is ripe for reform The National Security Council is leading an interagency review of refugee resettlement the forthcoming results of which may further energize reform efforts To help inform possible future efforts to reform the refugee resettlement assistance system this report discusses existing resettlement assistance programs key challenges and issues in providing effective assistance and policy options to reform the current system Refugee Resettlement in a Multi-Ethnic Society Part 1 by Felipe Cofreros Ph.D. Felipe Cofreros Ph.D., 2019-08-23 The focus of this descriptive analysis is on the organizational framework of the largest Cultural Orientation CO project in the world implemented by the International Catholic Migration Commission ICMC which was contracted by the United States Department of State Bureau for Refugee Programs to conduct refugee resettlement education in Bata an the Republic of the Philippines for Indo Chinese refugees bound for resettlement in the United States of America From 1980 to 1990 ICMC Philippines provided Cultural Orientation to a quarter of a million Indo Chinese refugees This inquiry establishes and clarifies what were some of the assumptions which contributed to the conceptualization of CO program instruction for adult Southeast Asian refugees intended to help the refugee achieve positive adjustment to life in the United States of America The salient questions addressed in this research are 1 What is overseas refugee education 2 How is it constructed and conceptualized 3 How is it practiced and implemented and 4 Can the Philippines Refugee Processing Center serve as a model for preparing refugees to live in a Western multi ethnic society Postulated in the analysis are the strengths and weaknesses of the following elements staff training and development educational theory and refugee resettlement Hypothesis testing of selected program elements and replication design of the locus of the program leading to conceptualization of refugee education include selected cases studies surveys statistical and quantitative policy review and analysis personal interviews and legal opinions The findings of the field based research support the original hypothesis that certain operational concepts of American Cultural Orientation CO were dysfunctional and incompatible with the goals of preparing Southeast Asian refugees for successful adjustment to living in the United States of America Moreover the findings will be useful to U S Government officials educators researchers and refugee resettlement professionals who will consider the value of this study from the perspective of naturalized American citizen whose country of origin is the Republic of the Philippines Felipe Cofreros Ph D

Welcome to the Occupied States of America Peter Cawdron, 2016-04-29 Ashley Kelly is your typical American teenager or she would be if it weren't for the cluster bomb that crippled her Seven years after the invasion over a hundred million Americans have been displaced by the war with millions more dead Ash has spent seven years learning to walk again and she'll be damned if she's going to lie down for anyone human or otherwise FIRST CONTACT is similar to BLACK MIRROR or THE TWILIGHT ZONE in that the series is based on a common theme rather than common characters This allows these books to be read in any order Technically they're all first as they all deal with how we might initially respond to contact with aliens exploring the social political religious and scientific aspects of First Contact

Black Resettlement and the American Civil War Sebastian N. Page, 2021-01-28 Based on sweeping research in six languages Black Resettlement and the American Civil War offers the first comprehensive comparative account of nineteenth century America's greatest road not taken the mass resettlement of African Americans outside the United States Building on resurgent scholarly interest in the so-called colonization movement the book goes beyond tired debates about colonization's place in the contest over slavery and beyond the familiar black destinations of Liberia Canada and Haiti Striding effortlessly from Pittsburgh to Panama Toronto to Trinidad and Lagos to Louisiana it synthesizes a wealth of individual state level and national considerations to reorient the field and set a new standard for Atlantic history Along the way it shows that what haunted politicians from Thomas Jefferson to Abraham Lincoln was not whether it was right to abolish slavery but whether it was safe to do so unless the races were separated

Refugee Admissions and Resettlement Program--fiscal Year 1981 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary, 1981 Redesigning The American Dream Revised And Updated Dolores Hayden, 2002-09-03 In a provocative critique of American housing patterns that perpetuate Victorian stereotypes of the home as woman's place and the city as man's world urban historian and architect Dolores Hayden tallies

the personal and social costs that an architecture of gender creates for the two earner family the single parent family and single people She traces three models of home in historical perspective to document innovative alternatives for reconstructing neighborhoods

White Trash Nancy Isenberg, 2016 In White Trash Nancy Isenberg upends assumptions about America's supposedly class free society and shows how poor whites have been deeply ingrained in the country's history for the past 400 years They were central to the both the Civil War itself and the rise of the Republican Party and still today feature in reality TV as entertainment White trash have always been an integral part of the American identity and here their history in both culture and politics is explored in depth A fascinating work that's timely to today's public debate about rich and poor

Architectural Regionalism Vincent B. Canizaro, 2012-03-20 In this rapidly globalizing world any investigation of architecture inevitably leads to considerations of regionalism But despite its omnipresence in contemporary practice and theory architectural regionalism remains a fluid concept its historical development and current influence largely undocumented This comprehensive reader brings together over 40 key essays illustrating the full range of ideas embodied by the term Authored by important critics historians and architects such as Kenneth Frampton Lewis Mumford Sigfried Giedion and Alan Colquhoun Architectural Regionalism represents the history of regionalist thinking in architecture from the early twentieth century to today

Red Pedagogy Sandy Grande, 2015-09-28 This ground breaking text explores the intersection between dominant modes of critical educational theory and the socio political landscape of American Indian education Grande asserts that with few exceptions the matters of Indigenous people and Indian education have been either largely ignored or indiscriminately absorbed within critical theories of education Furthermore American Indian scholars and educators have largely resisted engagement with critical educational theory tending to concentrate instead on the production of historical monographs ethnographic studies tribally centered curricula and site based research Such a focus stems from the fact that most American Indian scholars feel compelled to address the socio economic urgencies of their own communities against which engagement in abstract theory appears to be a luxury of the academic elite While the author acknowledges the dire need for practical community based research she maintains that the global encroachment on Indigenous lands resources cultures and communities points to the equally urgent need to develop transcendent theories of decolonization and to build broad based coalitions
