Resi Hat Heimweh:

Heimweh Simon Bunke, 2009 Zwischen dem späten 17. und frühen 20. Jahrhundert galt das Heimweh nicht als ein vages allgemeinemenschliches Gefühl sondern als eine tödliche Krankheit an der vor allem Schweizer und Soldaten litten und die in zahlreichen medizinischen Abhandlungen intensiv diskutiert wurde Vorliegende Studie rekonstruiert erstmals auf breiter Materialbasis die Medizin Kultur und Literaturgeschichte dieser Krankheit Heimweh Dabei kommt nicht nur ihre Medizingeschichte von Johannes Hofer 1688 bis hin zu Karl Jaspers 1909 und darüber hinaus in den Blick sondern auch die Auswirkungen des Diskurses auf weite Bereiche der Kultur etwa auf das Militär die Justiz die Musik sthetik philhelvetische Konstrukte der Schweiz Codierungen transzendenter Sehnsucht künstlerische Bildprogramme oder Festpraktiken Vor allem aber werden in ausführlichen Analysen literarischer Texte von Haller Matthiesson Schiller Coleridge Tieck Arnim Brentano Chamisso Jean Paul Heine Herwegh Keller Spyri und vielen anderen die vielfältigen literarischen Imaginationen der Krankheit Heimweh aufgezeigt

Learning How to Feel Ute Frevert, Pascal Eitler, Stephanie Olsen, Uffa Jensen, Margrit Pernau, Daniel Brückenhaus, Magdalena Beljan, Benno Gammerl, Anja Laukötter, Bettina Hitzer, Jan Plamper, Juliane Brauer, Joachim C. Häberlen, 2014-07-24 Learning How to Feel explores the ways in which children and adolescents learn not just how to express emotions that are thought to be pre-existing but actually how to feel The volume assumes that the embryonic ability to feel unfolds through a complex dialogue with the social and cultural environment and specifically through reading material The fundamental formation takes place in childhood and youth A multi-authored historical monograph Learning How to Feel uses children's literature and advice manuals to access the training practices and learning processes for a wide range of emotions in the modern age circa 1870-1970 The study takes an international approach covering a broad array of social cultural and political milieus in Britain Germany India Russia France Canada and the United States Learning How to Feel places multidirectional learning processes at the centre of the discussion through the concept of practical knowledge The book innovatively draws a framework for broad historical change during the course of the period Emotional interaction between adult and child gave way to a focus on emotional interactions among children while gender categories became less distinct Children were increasingly taught to take responsibility for their own emotional development to find authenticity for themselves In the context of changing social political cultural and gender agendas the building of nations subjects and citizens and the forging of moral and religious values Learning How to Feel demonstrates how children were provided with emotional learning tools through their reading matter to navigate their emotional lives
