Resistance Flight Creation Feminist Enactments Of French Philosophy:

Resistance, Flight, Creation Dorothea Olkowski, 2000 Thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary French philosophy In so doing they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory These writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as Simone de Beauvoir Luce Irigaray and Sarah Kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative They also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Maurice Merleau Ponty and Jean Paul Sartre The essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in Beauvoir's work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic The modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction post structuralism and newly resurgent phenomenology This volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting French philosophy in English German and French

Simone de Beauvoir's Philosophy of Age Silvia Stoller, 2014-04-01 Age and aging are pressing social political issues Yet philosophers still have not paid sufficient attention to one of the major explorations of this topic Simone de Beauvoir's seminal work The Coming of Age 1970 For much too long it has been overshadowed by her other groundbreaking work The Second Sex 1949 Now for the first time this volume focuses on Beauvoir's essay on old age and critically explores its significance from a phenomenological and feminist perspective International Beauvoir scholars and renowned feminist phenomenologists from Europe and North America offer a unique look at one of the 20th century's most outstanding existential philosophical studies on age and aging Thematically the articles and short comments collected in this volume cover three main issues which are crucial with respect to an investigation of Beauvoir's study on age gender ethics and time The volume essentially contributes to Beauvoir studies aging studies cultural and gender studies feminist theory phenomenology and existential philosophy

Deleuze and Ethics Nathan Jun, 2011-05-09 Concepts such as ethics values and normativity play a crucial if subtle and easily overlooked role in Deleuze's overall philosophical project The essays in this collection uncover and explore the ethical dimension of Deleuzian philosophy along diverse trajectories and in so doing endeavour to reclaim that philosophy as moral philosophy

Fielding, Dorothea E. Olkowski, 2017-06-16 Distinguished feminist philosophers consider the future of their field and chart its political and ethical course in this forward looking volume Engaging with themes such as the historical trajectory of feminist phenomenology ways of perceiving and making sense of the contemporary world and the feminist body in health and ethics these essays affirm the base of the discipline as well as open new theoretical spaces for work that bridges bioethics social identity physical ability and the very nature and boundaries of the female body Entanglements with thinkers such as Heidegger Merleau Ponty Beauvoir and Arendt are evident and reveal new directions for productive philosophical work Grounded in the richness of the feminist philosophical tradition this work represents a significant opening to the possible futures of feminist phenomenological research Time in Feminist Phenomenology Christina Schües, Dorothea E. Olkowski, Helen Fielding, 2011-06-03 The contributors to this international volume take up questions about a phenomenology of time that begins with and attunes to gender issues Themes such as feminist conceptions of time change and becoming the body and identity memory and modes of experience and the relevance of time as a moral and political question shape Time in Feminist Phenomenology and allow readers to explore connections between feminist philosophy phenomenology and time With its insistence on the importance of gender experience to the experience of time this volume is a welcome opening to new and critical thinking about being knowledge aesthetics and ethics Postmodern Philosophy and the Scientific Turn Dorothea E. Olkowski, 2012-04-23 A groundbreaking interdisciplinary approach to the study of consciousness Beautifully written engaging throughout and captivating Claire Colebrook The Pennsylvania State University What can come of a scientific engagement with postmodern philosophy Some scientists have claimed that the social sciences and humanities have nothing to contribute except perhaps peripherally to their research Dorothea E Olkowski shows that mathematics itself the historic link between science and philosophy plays a fundamental role in the development of the worldviews that drive both fields Focusing on language its usage and expression of worldview she develops a phenomenological account of human thought and action to explicate the role of philosophy in the sciences Olkowski proposes a model of phenomenology both scientific and philosophical that helps make sense of reality and composes an ethics for dealing with unpredictability in our world Afterimages of Gilles Deleuze's Film Philosophy David Norman Rodowick, 2010 The French philosopher Gilles Deleuze was one of the most innovative and revolutionary thinkers of the twentieth century Author of more than twenty books on literature music and the visual arts Deleuze published the first volume of his two volume study of film Cinema 1 The Movement Image in 1983 and the second volume Cinema 2 The Time Image in 1985 Since their publication these books have had a profound impact on the study of film and philosophy Film media and cultural studies scholars still grapple today with how they can most productively incorporate Deleuze s thought The first new collection of critical studies on Deleuze s cinema writings in nearly a decade Afterimages of Gilles Deleuze's Film Philosophy provides original essays that evaluate the continuing significance of Deleuze's film theories accounting systematically for the ways in which they have influenced the investigation of contemporary visual culture and offering new directions for research Contributors Raymond Bellour Centre Nationale de Recherches Scientifiques Ronald Bogue U of Georgia Giuliana Bruno Harvard U Ian Buchanan Cardiff U James K Chandler U of Chicago Tom Conley Harvard U Amy Herzog CUNY András B. The History of Continental Philosophy Alan D. Schrift, 2013-04-12 From Kant to Kierkegaard from Hegel to Heidegger continental philosophers have indelibly shaped the trajectory of Western thought since the eighteenth century Although much has been written about these monumental thinkers students and scholars lack a definitive guide to the entire scope of the continental tradition The most comprehensive reference work to date this eight volume History of Continental Philosophy will both encapsulate the subject and reorient our understanding of it Beginning with an overview of Kant's philosophy and its initial reception the History traces the evolution of continental philosophy through major figures as well as movements such as existentialism phenomenology hermeneutics and poststructuralism The final volume outlines the current state of the field bringing the work of both historical and modern thinkers to bear on such contemporary topics as feminism globalization and the environment Throughout the volumes examine important philosophical figures and developments in their historical political and cultural contexts The first reference of its kind A History of Continental Philosophy has been written and edited by internationally recognized experts with a commitment to explaining complex thinkers texts and movements in rigorous yet jargon free essays suitable for both undergraduates and seasoned specialists These volumes also elucidate ongoing debates about the nature of continental and analytic philosophy surveying the distinctive sometimes overlapping characteristics and approaches of each tradition Featuring helpful overviews of major topics and plotting road maps to their underlying contexts A History of Continental Philosophy is destined to be the resource of first and last resort for students and scholars alike

The Other Helen Fielding, Gabrielle Hiltmann, Dorothea Olkowski, Anne Reichold, 2007-04-25 The western philosophical tradition has only recently explored alterity in particular the alterity of woman as the other of man This volume reflects on the ethical implications of this and on the need for a rethinking of the implicit structures of Western philosophy which exclude women as subjects who conceptualize the world and society Feminist Interpretations of Maurice Merleau-Ponty

Dorothea Olkowski, Gail Weiss, 2010-11-01 Dead Letters to Nietzsche, or the Necromantic Art of Reading

Philosophy Joanne Faulkner, 2010-04-28 Dead Letters to Nietzsche examines how writing shapes subjectivity through the example of Nietzsche's reception by his readers including Stanley Rosen David Farrell Krell Georges Bataille Laurence Lampert Pierre Klossowski and Sarah Kofman More precisely Joanne Faulkner finds that the personal identification that these readers form with Nietzsche's texts is an enactment of the kind of identity formation described in Lacanian and Kleinian psychoanalysis This investment of their subjectivity guides their understanding of Nietzsche's project the revaluation of values Not only does this work make a provocative contribution to Nietzsche scholarship but it also opens in an original way broader philosophical questions about how readers come to be invested in a philosophical project and how such investment alters their subjectivity Luce Irigaray: Key Writings

Exploring Data Production in Motion Teija Rantala, 2019-11-14 Exploring Data Production in Motion facilitates the use of feminist critical qualitative methodologies With open ended methods and poststructuralist theory and analysis this book will offer tools to approach and to examine challenging and controversial topics ethically This book will argue that to examine data of individual experience and aspirations requires examining the process of the data production in which these were produced Therefore this book will form an understanding of a data production as a process which in its fluidity enables us also to form an understanding of difference and change as inevitable parts of social processes Movement expresses here the dynamic forces in the data production including its analysis which produce the life to the lines of the data It welcomes change and uncertainty by allowing the data production processes its intensities and fluctuations to take the lead in the inquiry This compels the methods to adjust to the requirements of the data production processes The book demonstrates the use of feminist methodology and illuminates how the feminist critical inquiry is essential in examining issues of minority and difference In this the focus is in the differences As a feminist inquiry this book contributes to recognizing differences within while examining minority worldviews and perceiving difference as essential force in striving for sustainable ethics in the times of political polarization Perfect for Higher Education courses such as Qualitative Research Methodology Qualitative Research Methods and Analysis Feminist Poststructuralist Methodologies and Qualitative Research Qualitative Methods in Critical Social Research Experimental Methodologies in Qualitative Research
