Mathematics Instruction in Dual Language Classrooms Marco A. Bravo, Kip Téllez, 2024-07-01 Language and culture play a critical role in the teaching of mathematics and this role intensifies when considering the teaching of mathematics in dual language classrooms This book unpacks lessons learned from socio cultural theory being applied to research of the teaching of mathematics to Emergent Bilinguals with the end of informing practice Utilizing a socio cultural lens authors present the possibilities and limits of the teaching of mathematics in dual language programs 90 10 50 50 models Themes of translanguaging disciplinary literacy instruction and culturally responsive instruction are leveraged to test the potential of these constructs to assist Spanish English Emergent Bilinguals access rigorous mathematics content Authors also present limits to these models as often they can overshadow the mathematics learning We embrace a stance where language and literacy are seen as tools for content area learning and not as ends unto themselves Literacy Development with English Learners Lori Helman, 2012-03-12 An indispensable course text and practitioner resource this teacher friendly book puts the needs of English language learners ELLs front and center Leading authorities connect current research to effective instructional practices for elementary students with varying degrees of English proficiency Key components of literacy instruction are addressed including phonemic awareness phonics fluency vocabulary and comprehension Chapters also explore how linguistic sociocultural psychological and educational factors shape ELL literacy development highlighting practical implications for the classroom Reflection questions and a wealth of illustrative examples enhance the utility of this engaging tightly edited work Bowker's Complete Video Directory 2001 ,2001 Multicultural/multilingual Resources ,1982 Easy English Grammar-TM Dr Shalini Verma, English Grammar book Co-constructing Intercultural Space Ulrike Schröder, 2024-12-30 Current debates on intercultural communication often align with critical approaches However in the fields of cultural linguistics and intercultural pragmatics significant strides have been made towards a dynamic and sociocognitive framework for understanding intercultural Drawing from these concepts this book proposes a fine grained analysis to elucidate the active co construction of intercultural space in situ encompassing verbal corporal gestural and prosodic dimensions This empirical contribution fills a notable gap in the burgeoning interface between cognition interaction and embodiment shedding light on a critical intercultural facet that has hitherto remained underexplored Youth, Young People and Sport From the 19th Century to Modern Day Patrick Clastres, François Vallotton, Thomas David, 2022-05-09 Didactic Audiovisual Translation and Foreign Language Education Noa Talaván, Jennifer Lertola, Alberto Fernández-Costales, 2023-12-22 This book offers an updated and comprehensive view of the possibilities of didactic audiovisual translation didactic AVT or DAT in language education by presenting the methodological bases that support its pedagogical use at all levels of linguistic proficiency as well as in different educational stages and contexts The volume defines the main didactic AVT modes accompanied by general recommendations specific guidelines complete sample lesson plans and sequences and models for assessment Didactic AVT is described in this book as an effective pedagogical resource that can improve students language competence and trigger core factors in education such as learners motivation and engagement in language classes their cognitive processes their creativity and the active use of ICTs in the classroom From the perspective of educators DAT provides a pool of multipurpose resources that may help them to enrich their classes from a pedagogical linguistic and intercultural standpoint This book will be a valuable resource for graduate students scholars and practitioners in translation studies particularly those interested in audiovisual translation and foreign language learning Audiovisual Translation in Applied Linguistics Laura Incalcaterra McLoughlin, Jennifer Lertola, Noa Talaván, 2020-11-15 In recent years interest in the application of audiovisual translation AVT techniques in language teaching has grown beyond unconnected case studies to create a lively network of methodological intertextuality cross references reviews and continuation of previous trials ultimately defining a recognisable and scalable trend Whilst the use of AVT as a support in language teaching is not new this volume looks at a different application of AVT with learners involved in the audiovisual translation process itself performing tasks such as subtitling dubbing or audio describing It therefore presents a sample of the current research in this field with particular reference to case studies that either have a large scale or international dimension or can be scaled and replicated in various contexts It is our hope that these contributions will arouse the interest of publishers of language learning material and other stakeholders and ultimately lead to the mainstreaming of AVT in language education Originally published as special issue of Translation and Translanguaging in Multilingual Contexts 4 1 2018 Learning and Using Conversational Humor in a Second Language During Study Abroad Rachel Shively, 2018-06-11 This book examines the use of conversational humor in a second language in the context of study abroad Using a longitudinal design naturalistic interactions and a language socialization framework the study investigates the ways in which study abroad students develop in their production of humor in second language Spanish and discusses how those developments are the result of language learning processes grounded in social interaction

Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandenbussche, 2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts, 1996
