New Formalisms and Literary Theory V. Theile, L. Tredennick, 2013-04-11 Bringing together scholars who have critically followed New Formalism's journey through time space and learning environment this collection of essays both solidifies and consolidates New Formalism as a burgeoning field of literary criticism and explicates its potential as a varied but viable methodology of contemporary critical theory

Does the Writing Workshop Still Work? Dianne Donnelly, 2010 This book explores the effectiveness of the writing workshop in the Creative Writing classroom searching beyond the question of whether or not the workshop works to consider alternative pedagogical models The needs of a growing and diverse student population are central to the contributors' consideration of non-normative pedagogies This book is a must read for all teachers of Creative Writing

Teaching Literary Theory Using Film Adaptations Kathleen L. Brown, 2009-03-12 This volume introduces ways to use film to ease the difficulty of introducing complex literary theories to students By coupling works of literature with attendant films and with critical essays the author provides instructors with accessible avenues for encouraging classroom discussion Literary theories covered in depth are psychoanalytic criticism The Awakening and film adaptations The End of August and Grand Isle cultural criticism A Streetcar Named Desire and its 1951 film version and thematic criticism Ode to Intimations of Immortality from Recollections of Early Childhood and the film adaptation Splendor in the Grass Other theories are used to clarify and support those referred to above The work then includes a survey of the image patterns into which film adaptation theories can be grouped and how these theories relate to traditional literary theory

Teaching Cultural Dexterity in Creative Writing Micah McCrary, 2023-04-20 Aimed toward graduate student instructors and other creative writing educators Teaching Cultural Dexterity in Creative Writing offers a formula for important changes in creative writing instruction especially in literary creative nonfiction probing how instruction might become more inclusive and accessible for minoritized marginalized student authors The book chapters use antiracist trauma informed and anticolonial frameworks toward exploring the 21st century professional theoretical and institutional concerns surrounding creative writing practices in North American higher education As a result the book explores ways creative writing pedagogies and theories might be adapted for racially and linguistically marginalized by English student authors who often inhabit minoritized positions within North American colleges and universities Applying as a frame the notion of cultural dexterity as it is taught to medical professionals to allow them to engage effectively with patients from all backgrounds ethnics groups and with all sensitivities Teaching Cultural Dexterity in Creative Writing examines why and how creative writing instruction needs to be urgently renegotiated In this essential text for all creative writing instructors McCray provides all the tools necessary to take positive action with discussions of potential readings writing prompts and sample course materials Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty-First Century Alexandria Peary, Tom C Hunley, 2015-06-25

The creative writing workshop beloved by some dreaded by others and ubiquitous in writing programs across the nation For decades the workshop has been entrenched as the primary pedagogy of creative writing While the field of creative writing studies has sometimes myopically focused on this single method the related discipline of composition studies has made use of numerous pedagogical models In Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty First Century editors Alexandria Peary and Tom C Hunley gather experts from both creative writing and composition studies to offer innovative alternatives to the traditional creative writing workshop Drawing primarily from the field of composition studies a discipline rich with a wide range of established pedagogies the contributors in this volume build on previous models to present fresh and inventive methods for the teaching of creative writing Each chapter offers both a theoretical and a historical background for its respective pedagogical ideas as well as practical applications for use in the classroom This myriad of methods can be used either as a supplement to the customary workshop model or as stand alone roadmaps to engage and reinvigorate the creative process for both students and teachers alike A fresh and inspiring collection of teaching methods Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty First Century combines both conventional and cutting edge techniques to expand the pedagogical possibilities in creative writing studies Negotiating the Personal in Creative Writing Carl Vandermeulen, 2011 Using the author's own experiences in addition to a survey of 150 creative writing teachers this book critiques the creative writing workshop and suggests a possible replacement that unsilences the writer and recognises the complexities of the student teacher relationship by focussing on dialogue rather than criticism Pluriversal Literacies Romeo Garcia, Ellen Cushman, Damián Baca, 2024-01-02 Decolonial projects can end up reinforcing dominant modes of thinking by shoehorning understandings of Indigenous and non Western traditions within Eurocentric frameworks The pluralization of literacies and the creation of so called alternative rhetorics accepts that there is a totalizing reality of rhetoric and literacy This volume seeks to decenter these theories and to engage Indigenous contexts on their own terms starting with the very tools of representation Language itself can disrupt normative structures and create pluriversal possibilities The volume editors and contributors argue for epistemic change at the level of the language and media that people use to represent meaning The range of topics covered includes American Indian and Indigenous representations literacies and rhetorics critical revisionist historiography and comparative rhetorics delinking colonial literacies of cartographic power and modernity northern and southern hemispheric relations and theorizations of from oceanic border spaces Calling Cards Jacqueline Jones

Royster, Ann Marie Mann Simpkins, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2006 Nancy Dasher Award for Best Book on Professional and Pedagogical Issues

In recent decades the concepts of race gender and culture have come to function as calling cards the terms by which we announce ourselves as professionals and negotiate acceptance and or rejection in the academic marketplace In this volume contributors from composition literature rhetoric literacy and cultural studies share their experiences and insights as researchers scholars and teachers who centralize these concepts in their work Reflecting deliberately on their own research and classroom practices the contributors share theoretical frameworks processes and methodologies consider the quality of the knowledge and the understanding that their theoretical approaches generate and address various challenges related to what it actually means to perform this type of work both professionally and personally especially in light of the ways in which we are all raced gendered and acculturated We Need to Talk Michael

Theune, Bob Broad, 2017-10-24 We evaluate poems constantly as workshop leaders competition judges and journal editors But how do we judge the success of verse in these contexts The authors propose an innovative method by which anyone involved in the assessment of poetry can be more transparent about how they value verse This book foregrounds the ethical and professional obligations of poets teachers and critics to conduct axiological inquiry so they can discover and publish what they value We Need to Talk suggests why and how people who care about poetry should communally explore and document their shared and conflicting values This is the first book to provide the background and theory as well as a practical working model for the communal empirical evaluation of creative writing Theories and Strategies for Teaching Creative

Writing Online Tamara Girardi, Abigail G. Scheg, 2021-04-27 As the online world of creative writing teaching learning and collaborating grows in popularity and necessity this book explores the challenges and unique benefits of teaching creative writing online This collection highlights expert voices who have taught creative writing effectively in the online environment to broaden the conversation regarding online education in the discipline and to provide clarity for English and writing departments interested in expanding their offerings to include online creative writing courses but doing so in a way that serves students and the discipline appropriately Interesting as it is useful Theories and Strategies for Teaching Creative Writing Online offers a contribution to creative writing scholarship and begins a vibrant discussion specifically regarding effectiveness of online education in the discipline Teaching Creative Writing Heather Beck, 2012-10-21 Teaching
