

MISSIO INTER GENTES: A PASTORAL RESPONSE FOR THE CICM RELIGIOUS MISSIONARIES IN DOING MISSION IN TODAY'S PLURALISTIC WORLD

In a world where rivalry, jealousy, hatred, and competition among religions are taking root in the heart of our society, the Church needs to look for a new trajectory to bring together the people of God. Therefore, The suggestion of the new paradigm inter gentes, defined as mission among the nations, would contribute to a peaceful interreligious dialogue. This paradigm involves understanding and respect, building bridges between different faiths, and fostering a warm and inclusive atmosphere among religions. This article presents missio inter gentes as a CICM's pastoral response to doing mission in today's pluralistic world. The CICM (Congregatio Immaculati Cordis Mariae) is an international religious missionary dedicated to the Incarnate Word under the name and patronage of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It is a missionary Congregation founded to participate in the mission Jesus entrusted to the Church. As the world evolves, the Church also evolves and, therefore, seeks new ways to relate with others. CICM missionaries play a vital role as agents of reconciliation for interreligious dialogue as the Church faces pluralism of religions. They facilitate dialogue among the leaders of other religious denominations by promoting respect and harmony for peaceful coexistence.

Response The Church In Mission To A World In Crisis:

Response James A. Cogswell, 1971-07-01 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973 Teacher's Book: Response: the Church in Mission to a World in Crisis Sue Nichols, James A. Cogswell, 1971 The Third Force in Missions Paul Anthony Pomerville, 2022-05-03 The Third Force in Missions challenges readers to recognize the indispensable role of the Holy Spirit as power for mission. It confronts the Western mentality that ignores the miraculous in its missions strategy and the global Pentecostal movement. Paul Pomerville suggests that such activity prompted and controlled by the Spirit is key to fruitful biblical missions. When The Third Force in Missions was first published in 1985, Paul Pomerville sought to draw attention to the Pentecostal contribution to missions. At that time, he argued there was an information gap regarding the size of this movement in spite of two waves of worldwide Pentecostal renewal. He argued that this gap existed because of evangelical bias against Pentecostalism, bias against charismatics in mainline churches, ethnocentrism toward Pentecostals in the developing world, and faulty reporting. Thirty years later, Pomerville once again argues the importance of the global Pentecostal movement seeking to correct the ongoing tunnel vision of world missions programs which, since the Protestant Reformation, have tended to ignore the Holy Spirit's work in today's missions. In this book, Pomerville exposes the serious methodological and theological flaws of such a one-sided position. Church and Mission in the Context of War Eraston Kambale Kighoma, 2021-06-16 The church in the Democratic Republic of Congo is no stranger to conflict, yet little research has been done on the impact of war in shaping the local church's understanding of itself and its mission. In this in-depth study, Dr. Eraston Kambale Kighoma traces the survival and theological development of the Baptist Church in Central Africa over a twenty-year period of conflict. Utilizing a combination of descriptive, contextual, and integrative approaches, he examines the effect of war on the church's theology in action, especially its understanding and practice of mission. This study sheds new light on existing theories of missions while offering specific insight into the church's missionary task in contexts of conflict. It offers an excellent addition to missiological studies for scholars and practitioners alike. The Church in Response to Human Need Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 2003-02-04 An important contribution to the ongoing discussion of the church's relationship to social development, this book contains the revised conference proceedings from the consultation The Church in Response to Human Need held in Wheaton, Illinois, in June of 1983. In the papers collected here, writers from five continents consider whether the Bible indicates any method for ministry among the poor, the place of the poor in God's plan, God's purpose and the movement of human history, the nature of the gospel of the kingdom, and the interrelation of the gospel and human culture. In addition to the individual papers, the book includes the statement of transformation which was produced by the consultation as a whole. A Missiology of the Road J. Kevin Livingston, 2014-09-25 David Bosch (1929-1992) was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century, a prolific scholar, committed church leader, and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements.

His distinctive role in the South African church's struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch's background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch's legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God's kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God's alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community It is also God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission A Missiology of the Road shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church

Preaching in Today's World James C. Barry, 1984 Responding to The Uninvited Visitor Opoku Onyinah, Alfred Koduah, 2024-09-23 Written by an array of seasoned Christian leaders theologians and academics this book captures the various aspects of the COVID 19 pandemic with the view of drawing lessons for the future It examines the pandemic from historical biblical theological medical psychological socio cultural political economic educational as well as mission and evangelistic perspectives It also discusses the impact of the pandemic on Africans in the diaspora family life church administration and the youth The book makes several recommendations on how the church must reposition itself in the post COVID 19 era to enable it to maintain and expand its missional activities without compromising the core values of the Christian faith Today's All-Star Missions Churches Tom Telford, Lois Shaw, 2001-10 A helpful collection of studies on churches with strong and innovative missions programs Majority World Perspectives on Christian Mission Nico A. Botha, Eugene Baron, 2022-05-12 It affords us real pleasure to present this editorial on behalf of the Majority World Christian Leaders Conversation MWCLC The MWCLC started slowly but surely since 2016 following a groundbreaking conversation among eleven mission practitioners from the Majority World who met in the United Kingdom somewhere between London and Oxford At the meeting several themes emerged under the banner of missionary questions and impulses of the Majority World from the perspective of the reign of God These themes and more find reflection in the book However before proceeding to the content of the anthology a note on the concept Majority World seems necessary The time where terms like Third World gained strong currency is long since gone The term Majority World is a new kid on the block and requires some clarification The use of the term is a strategy of avoiding concepts like Developing or Third World or even Global South which are pejorative in a real sense To speak of the Majority World is geographically accurate in that Africa Asia and Latin America are included Transcending Mission Michael W. Stroope, 2017-02-28 Is the language of mission clearly evident across the broad reaches of time Or has the modern missionary enterprise distorted our view of the past Michael Stroope investigates how the modern church has come to understand speak of and engage in the global expansion of Christianity offering a hopeful way forward in this pressing conversation Gospel, Culture, and Transformation Chris

Sugden,2011-05-13 Gospel Culture and Transformation explores the practice of mission especially in relation to transforming cultures and communities Mission as Transformation has become a mainstream definition of mission in orthodox Christian circles especially in the Two Thirds World and among those involved in ministry with the poor Vinay Samuel has played a leading role in developing this understanding of mission which he defines as follows Transformation is to enable God's vision of society to be actualized in all relationships social economic and spiritual so that God's will may be reflected in human society and his love be experienced by all communities especially the poor Christian faith is faith in the incarnation of God in a particular place in history so all theology should have to do with the particular This work studies mission in the work of the leading Indian Mission Theologian Canon Dr Vinay Samuel between 1984 1996 It is taken from the author's larger work Seeking the Asian Face of Jesus Wipf and Stock 2011 Lamin Sanneh D Willis Professor of Mission and World Christianity Yale University wrote of that book Dr Sugden brings a sharp theological focus to bear on issues of context identity and cultural particularity The literature on contextual theology and situational ethics now has a standard to rise to A companion volume Mission as Transformation is edited by Viney Samuel and Chris Sugden Wipf and Stock 2009 The Living Church ,1964

Chitando,Lovemore Togarasei,Loreen Maseno,2024-11-05 Although African scholars have made a significant contribution to the study of African Pentecostalism very few studies have reflected on their output Most of the contemporary publications on the widespread phenomenon of African Pentecostalism create the impression that only scholars from the Global North have contributed to the field This volume addresses the lacuna in the available scholarship by undertaking detailed analyses of how African scholars from diverse academic disciplines and African Diasporan context have helped to shape the field The included chapters provide fresh data on new themes and perspectives in the field How the World's Religions are Responding to Climate Change Robin Globus Veldman,Andrew Szasz,Randolph Haluza-DeLay,2013-09-11 A growing chorus of voices has suggested that the world's religions may become critical actors as the climate crisis unfolds particularly in light of international paralysis on the issue In recent years many faiths have begun to address climate change and its consequences for human societies especially the world's poor This is the first volume to use social science to examine how religions are helping to address one of the most significant and far reaching challenges of our time While there is a growing literature in theology and ethics about climate change and religion little research has been previously published about the ways in which religious institutions groups and individuals are responding to the problem of climate change Seventeen research driven chapters are written by sociologists anthropologists geographers and other social scientists This book explores what effects religions are having what barriers they are running into or creating and what this means for the global struggle to address climate change An Emerging Dictionary for the Gospel and Culture Leonard E.

Encyclopedia of the Developing World Thomas M. Leonard, 2013-10-18 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title The Encyclopedia of the Developing World is a comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries Containing more than 750 entries the Encyclopedia encompasses primarily the years since 1945 and defines development broadly addressing not only economics but also civil society and social progress Entries cover the most important theories and measurements of development relate historical events movements and concepts to development both internationally and regionally where applicable examine the contributions of the most important persons and organizations and detail the progress made within geographic regions and by individual countries The Distinctive Identity of the Church Jeppe Bach Nikolajsen, 2015-03-20 An increasing number of theologians believe that the Western world has moved from an era of Christendom to an era of post Christendom This book goes to the heart of the debate related to this shift asking How are we to understand the distinctive identity of the church with special reference to its role in a post Christendom society It then presents an analysis of the work of the English Reformed theologian Lesslie Newbigin and the American Mennonite theologian John Howard Yoder both of whom reflect on how we should understand this important question At the end of The Distinctive Identity of the Church the charge of sectarianism is discussed It is argued that a missionary God sends the church to the world and consequently this sending should fundamentally determine its existence in the world The book argues that the task that lies before the church in the Western world is not to bypass its distinctiveness with accusations of sectarianism but to recapitulate an understanding of its own distinctiveness that should be seen as a precondition for its engagement in society Such an ecclesiological position holds important potential for an understanding of the role of the church in pluralistic Western cultures
