Loofa Love

Showers are both a place and an activity. They are where people wake themselves up to begin the day anew or where they wash the sweat and grime of a rough day off their bodies. Showers are an essential part of basic health and hygiene. With that comes a countless array of tools for proper cleanliness, but none come quite as close as the loofa to pure perfection. Based on cleaning ability, personal comfort, and usability, the loofa is the most effective and efficient body cleaning implement in any shower caddy.

Personal comfort is an admittedly subjective quality for anyone. However, the audience has a general understanding of a comfort range. Where scrubby cloths are harsh and even painful to more sensitive skin, other washing implements feel as though they are only pushing grime around the epidermis. The loofa succeeds in its ability to create a rich lather for a smooth, satisfying feeling while still maintaining an effective cleaning ability, ensuring that a bather feels good both during and after usage.

While humble in its roots, the loofa is an ideal cleaning tool that epitomizes cleaning ability, comfort, and ease of use into one amazing package. As bathing has only grown in importance in relation to hygiene and health, technology has maintained steady in the tools involved with the process. While the loofa may see some evolution in form at some point in the future, the tool's current iteration suggests a superior form that requires no true improvement.

Embattled Shadows Oeter Morris, 1992-08-06 Other Canadian film producers concentrated their efforts on short productions mostly in government or commercial companies such as Associated Screen News of Montreal The works of Gordon Spalding Bill Oliver and Albert Tessier are discussed in this context Morris concludes with the founding of the National Film Board which under the dynamic guidance of John Grierson was to breathe new life into a moribund industry In a postscript Morris explores some of the reasons for the unique development of Canadian film making particularly its use of natural settings and documentary when virtually the rest of the world's industry was following the Hollywood pattern of studio location and fictional plots and examines the relationship of the early industry to later developments in Canadian film making At a time when Canada's cultural industries are struggling to survive in the wake of the Free Trade Agreement with the United States and under the threat of Free Trade with Mexico Embattled Shadows makes essential reading Marxism and 20th-Century English-Canadian Novels John Z. Ming Chen, Yuhua Ji, 2015-06-09 This monograph is the first academic work to apply a neo Marxist approach to 20th century Canadian social realist novels pursuing a refreshingly neo Marxist approach to such issues as Bakhtinian notions of the novelistic form and dialogism as applied to Canadian socio political novels influenced by various socialisms socialist feminist concerns economic and sexual politics and the genre of social realism In so doing it demonstrates that Marxist socialism is as relevant today as it was in the 1930s just as social realist novels continue to thrive as a critique of capitalism Readers will find valuable insights into the social significance formal innovations moral sensitivity aesthetic enrichment and ideological complexity of Canadian social realist novels

Cross-Cultural Reckonings Blanche H. Gelfant, 1995-01-27 Blanche H Gelfant's book Cross Cultural Reckonings both demonstrates and questions the applicability of postmodern cultural and literary theories to realistic texts to fiction and autobiographies valued for their truth Drawing together an unusual combination of Russian American and Canadian writers the various essays of this book provide new and original perspectives upon the puzzling issues of national identity of historical change and continuity of gender and the integrity of literary genres the boundaries between text and context and the underlying if overlooked conflicts between the postmodern critic's skepticism and a writer's belief in the transcendence of art and truth To avoid the contingencies inherent in binary comparisons the essays in this book seek a triadic form analogous to the triptych or polyptych of the visual arts Multi faceted non linear and open ended such a form might allow the academic essay to recover a waywardness that traces back to Montaigne cited in prefatory notes and to the etymological meaning of the essay as an exagium or weighing as an act of reckoning A study at once elegant erudite and personal Cross Cultural Reckonings reckons with writers of different backgrounds and reputation in whom Gelfant discovers surprising affinities among them the Russian writers Lydia Chukovskaya Natalya Baranskaya and Alexander Solzhenitsyn Ethel Wilson a highly reputed Canadian writer the famous cross cultural figure Emma Goldman and established as well as new or rediscovered American writers such as Willa Cather Saul Bellow Arlene Heyman and Meridel Le Sueur These writers are discussed singly and in comparative essays each of which is discrete and self contained while all interconnect and reflect upon each other as exemplary demonstrations of cross cultural literary criticism and the deferred final judgment that results from a weighing and reweighing of books

Margaret Atwood and the Female Bildungsroman Ellen McWilliams, 2017-03-02

Examining Margaret Atwood's work in the context of the complex history of the Bildungsroman Ellen McWilliams explores how the genre has been appropriated by women writers in the second half of the twentieth century She demonstrates that Atwood's early work her own coming of age fiction including unpublished works as well as The Edible Woman Surfacing and Lady Oracle both engages with and works against the paradigms of identity which are traditionally associated with the genre Making extensive use of unpublished manuscripts in the Atwood Collection at the University of Toronto McWilliams uncovers influences that shaped Atwood's fashioning of identity in her early novels paying particular attention to Atwood's preoccupation with survival as a key symbol of Canadian literature culture and identity She also considers the genre's afterlife on display in Cat's Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace The Blind Assassin and Moral Disorder in which the formulations of selfhood and identity in Atwood's early fiction are revisited and developed Atwood emerges as a writer who self consciously invokes and then undercuts the traditions of the Bildungsroman a turn that may be read as a means of at once interrogating and perpetuating the form McWilliams's book furthers our understanding of subjectivity in Atwood's fiction and contributes to ongoing conversations about the role gender and cultural contexts play in reframing generic boundaries

Silenced Sextet Carrie MacMillan, Lorraine McMullen, 1993-05-17 Carrie MacMillan Lorraine McMullen and Elizabeth Waterston have uncovered information about the lives and works of six such writers Rosanna Leprohon May Agnes Fleming Margaret Murray Robertson Susan Frances Harrison Margaret Marshall Saunders and Joanna E Wood were once popular novelists who are now for the most part ignored with virtually all of their works out of print MacMillan McMullen and Waterston show that these six writers deserve modern recognition not only for their literary accomplishments but also for what they reveal through their work and their lives about the condition of the woman writer in nineteenth century Canada. The writings of these six women from varied backgrounds reflect their different experiences of life in the late nineteenth century. In this study a biographical profile of each author set in the contemporary social context is provided as well as an analysis of career development emphasising publishing history and critical response. As each case history unfolds the broader picture emerges of an era when many ideas of personal and public life were changing.

A Sense of Place Christian Riegel, 1998-03 A re evaluation of regionalism in Canadian and American writing A Sense of Place provides a comparative approach to the issue within a continental framework. The contributors to this collection including Frank Davey Marjorie Pryse and Jonathan Hart look at a broad range of writers. They explore regionalism on both sides of the border in light of the central political cultural literary and theoretical debates of our times.

Comrades and Critics Candida Rifkind, 2009-01-01 Comrades and Critics is the first full length study of Canada's 1930s literary left.

Royally Wronged Constance Backhouse, Cynthia E. Milton, Margaret Kovach, Adele Perry, 2021-10-27 The Royal Society of Canada's mandate is to elect to its membership leading scholars in the arts humanities social sciences and sciences lending its seal of excellence to those who advance artistic and intellectual knowledge in Canada. Duncan Campbell Scott one of the architects of the Indian residential school system in Canada served as the society's president and dominated its activities many other members historically overwhelmingly white men helped shape knowledge systems rooted in colonialism that have proven catastrophic for Indigenous communities. Written primarily by current Royal Society of Canada members these essays explore the historical contribution of the RSC and of Canadian scholars to the production of ideas and policies that shored up white settler privilege underpinning the disastrous interaction between Indigenous peoples and white settlers. Historical essays focus on the period from the RSC's founding in 1882 to the mid twentieth century later chapters bring the discussion to the present documenting the first steps taken to change damaging patterns and challenging the society and Canadian scholars to make substantial strides toward a better future. The highly educated in Canadian society were not just bystanders they deployed their knowledge and skills to abet colonialism. This volume dives deep into the RSC's history to learn why academia has more often been an aid to colonialism than a force against it. Royally Wronged poses difficult questions about what is required for individual academics fields of study and the RSC to move meaningfully toward reconciliation.

The Imaginary Indian Daniel Francis, 2012-04-17 First published in 1992 The Imaginary Indian is a revealing history of the Indian image mythologized by popular Canadian culture since 1850 propagating stereotypes that exist to this day. Images of First Nations people have always been fundamental to Canadian culture.
