Krasner, 2016-09-27 The Harlem Renaissance was an unprecedented period of vitality in the American Arts Defined as the years between 1910 and 1927 it was the time when Harlem came alive with theater drama sports dance and politics Looking at events as diverse as the prizefight between Jack Johnson and Jim White Hope Jeffries the choreography of Aida Walker and Ethel Waters the writing of Zora Neale Hurston and the musicals of the period Krasner paints a vibrant portrait of those years This was the time when the residents of northern Manhattan were leading their downtown counterparts at the vanguard of artistic ferment while at the same time playing a pivotal role in the evolution of Black nationalism This is a thrilling piece of work by an author who has been working towards this major opus for years now It will become a classic that will stay on the American history and theater shelves for years to come Writings on American History, 1962-73, 1985 This book provides a comprehensive listing of the book length works published from 1962 to 1973 that are relevant to the study of American history and is organized into a subject classification system This bibliography gives access to over 50 000 works on the history the geography and the political social and economic aspects of the United States its people its government and its institutions The entries cover the entire area now within the United States or under its jurisdiction ranging from prehistoric times to 1973 Introd Annual Report of the American Historical Association American Historical Association, Mexicanos Manuel G.
