Theory of Administrative Contract Shi Jianhui (石建辉), 2024-08-24. Contract is not only a spirit and a concept but also a system and a method. As a spirit and a concept, it is very inclusive; as a system and a method, it is very practical. Contract is a theory with a long history and fruitful practice. The reform of administrative law starts with the contract. The author is honored to be one of the first scholars in mainland China to introduce the concept and basic system of civil contracts into administrative law. Although mainland China has not yet established the legality of administrative contracts through the legislative method of administrative procedure law, the research and promotion of a group of scholars in mainland China, including the author, revised the Administrative Litigation Law at the 11th meeting of the Standing Committee of the 12th National People's Congress in 2014 and for the first time included administrative agreement disputes in the scope of administrative litigation. The Supreme People's Court Trial Committee also passed the judicial interpretation of the Provisions of the Supreme People's Court on Several Issues Concerning the Trial of Administrative Agreement Cases at the 1781st meeting on November 12, 2019, which came into effect on January 1, 2020. The great progress of administrative contracts in administrative justice is inseparable from the efforts of the first batch of administrative contract pioneers in mainland China, including the author. It is also a great affirmation and praise for which the author is deeply gratified. The Collected Works of Henrik Ibsen: Rosmersholm; The lady from the sea Henrik Ibsen, 1907 The Call to Personhood Alistair I. McFadyen, 1990-10-26. This book is an attempt to answer the question: What is a person? Although the answer is given in largely theoretical terms, the author is concerned primarily with practice: what does it mean to live as a human person in community with others? What personal, social, and political practices are required by personal being? The central insight that human identity is most productively understood in communicational terms leads to an account of personhood which is both compassionate and which at the same time keeps sight of the particularity of each individual.

The Pragmatics of Requests and Apologies Elizabeth Flores Salgado, 2011 The purpose of this research is to analyse the pragmatic development of language groups at different proficiency levels and to investigate the relationship between interlanguage pragmatics and grammatical competence For this study 36 native Spanish speaking EFL learners at different proficiency levels were asked to respond in English to 24 different situations that called for the speech acts of request and apology Results showed three important aspects The first finding suggested that basic adult learners possess a pragmatic knowledge in their L1 that allows them to focus on the intended meaning and in most cases to assemble an utterance that conveys a pragmatic intention and satisfies the communicative demands of a social situation The second finding revealed that there are two essential conditions to communicate a linguistic action the knowledge of the relevant linguistic rules and the knowledge of how to use them appropriately and effectively in a specific context The findings further suggested that advanced learners possess the grammatical knowledge to produce an illocutionary act but they need to learn the specific L2 pragmatic conventions that enable them to know when to use these grammatical forms and under which circumstances
