Responsible Self An Essay In Christian M:

The Responsible Self Helmut Richard Niebuhr, 1999-01-01 The Responsible Self was H Richard Niebuhr's most important work in Christian ethics. In it, he probes the most fundamental character of the moral life and it stands today as a landmark contribution to the field. The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically. It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form. Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors through reflection on classic works in the field.

The Responsible Self H. Richard Niebuhr, 1978 The Responsible Self. An Essay in Christian Moral Philosophy. With an Introduction by James M. Gustafson Helmut Richard NIEBUHR, 1963 Social Ethics in the Making Gary Dorrien, 2011-04-06 In the early 1880s, proponents of what came to be called the social gospel founded what is now known as social ethics. This ambitious and magisterial book describes the tradition of social ethics, one that began with the distinctly modern idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform the structures of society in the direction of social justice. Charts the story of social ethics, the idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform society from its roots in the nineteenth century through to the present day. Discusses and analyzes how different traditions of social ethics evolved in the realms of the academy, church, and general public. Looks at the wide variety of individuals who have been prominent exponents of social ethics from academics and self-styled public intellectuals through to pastors and activists. Set to become the definitive reference guide to the history and development of social ethics. Recipient of a CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 award.

Ecotheology and Nonhuman Ethics in Society Melissa Broton, 2016-11-30 This book promotes Christian ecology and animal ethics from the perspectives of the Bible, science, and the Judeo-Christian tradition. In an age of climate change, how do we protect species and individual animals? Does it matter how we treat bugs? How does understanding the Trinity and Christ's self-emptying nature help us to be more responsible earth caretakers? What do Christian ethics have to do with hunting? How do the Foxfire books of Southern Appalachia help us to love a place? Does ecology need a place at the pulpit and in hymns? How do Catholic approaches past and present help us appreciate and respond to the created world? Finally, how does Jesus respond to humans, nonhumans, and environmental concerns in the Gospel of Mark?

African American Theological Ethics Peter J. Paris, Julius Crump, 2015-12-18 This volume in the Library of Theological Ethics series draws on writings from the early nineteenth through the late twentieth centuries to explore the intersection of black experience and Christian faith throughout the history of the United States. The first sections follow the many dimensions of the African American struggle with racism in this country: struggles against theories of white supremacy, against chattel slavery, and against racial segregation and discrimination. The latter sections turn to the black Christian vision of human flourishing, drawing on perspectives from the arts, religion, philosophy, ethics, and theology. It introduces students to major voices from African American Christianity, including Frederick Douglass, Richard Allen, W. E. B. DuBois, Marcus Garvey, Martin Luther King Jr.

Bayard Rustin Barbara Jordan James H Cone and Jacqueline Grant This is the essential resource for anyone who wishes to understand the role that Christian faith has played in the African American struggle for a more just society

Sharp, 2015-08-24 Just as it is impossible to understand the American religious landscape without some familiarity with evangelicalism one cannot grasp the shape of contemporary Christian ethics without knowing the contributions of evangelical Protestants This newest addition to the Library of Theological Ethics series begins by examining the core dynamic with which all evangelical ethics grapples belief in an authoritative inspired and unchanging biblical text on the one hand and engagement with a rapidly evolving and increasingly post Christian culture on the other It explores the different roles that scholars and popular figures have played in forming evangelicals understandings of Christian ethics And it draws together the contributions of both senior and emerging figures in painting a portrait of this diverse vibrant and challenging theological and ethical tradition This book represents the breadth of evangelical ethical voices demonstrating that evangelical ethics involves nuance and theological insight that far transcend any political agenda Contributors include David P Gushee Carl F H Henry Jennifer McBride Stephen Charles Mott William E Pannell John Perkins Soong Chan Rah Gabriel Salguero Francis Schaeffer Ron Sider Helene Slessarev Jamir Glen H Stassen Eldin Villafa e Allen Verhey Jim Wallis Nicholas Wolterstorff and John Howard Yoder The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts English language texts and translations that have fallen out of print new translations and collections of significant statements about problems and themes of special importance in an easily accessible form This series enables sustained dialogue on new and classic works in the field Fundamental Ethics Patricia McAuliffe, 1993 In this stimulating rethinking of the basic foundations of ethics Patricia McAuliffe derives a fundamental ethic from liberation theology She asserts that the experience of resisting suffering especially oppressive social suffering must be brought from the fringe to the very center of ethics Arguing for the conceptual priority of ethics over religion McAuliffe defines an innovative ethic based on experience and practice Ethics precedes religion and theology because experience and practice precede theory and interpretation which are the human activities of religion and theology knowledge is based on experience She proposes that ethics can be independent of religion but that while her liberationist ethic can be either Christian or universal finally the poor and oppressed are the paradigm source of the disclosure of God and of final salvation In rethinking the basic foundations of ethics she compares a liberationist ethic including Latin American and women s liberation theology with various classical ethics and examines and critiques the works of Edward Schillebeeckx Juan Luis Segundo Dorothee Soelle James Gustafson and George Lindbeck McAuliffe offers a flexible ethic that balances the absolute and the relative the particular and the universal personal and social creativity and conditioning practice and theory and the ethical and religious Combining superior scholarship with an original and creative approach to ethics this book is likely to create debate in the fields of fundamental ethics theology and philosophy Encyclopedia of Business and Professional Ethics Deborah C Poff, Alex C. Society's Choices

Institute of Medicine, Committee on the Social and Ethical Impacts of Developments in Biomedicine, 1995-03-27

Breakthroughs in biomedicine often lead to new life-giving treatments but may also raise troubling even life and death quandaries. Society's Choices discusses ways for people to handle today's bioethics issues in the context of America's unique history and culture and from the perspectives of various interest groups. The book explores how Americans have grappled with specific aspects of bioethics through commission deliberations, programs by organizations, and other mechanisms and identifies criteria for evaluating the outcomes of these efforts. The committee offers recommendations on the role of government and professional societies, the function of commissions and institutional review boards, and bioethics in health professional education and research. The volume includes a series of 12 superb background papers on public moral discourse, mechanisms for handling social and ethical dilemmas, and other specific areas of controversy by well-known experts: Ronald Bayer, Martin Benjamin, Dan W. Brock, Baruch A. Brody, H. Alta Charo, Lawrence Gostin, Bradford H. Gray, Kathi E. Hanna, Elizabeth Heitman, Thomas Nagel, Steven Shapin, and Charles M. Swezey.

Moral Man and Immoral Society Reinhold

Niebuhr, 2013-01-01. Arguably his most famous book, Moral Man and Immoral Society is Reinhold Niebuhr's important early study, 1932, in ethics and politics. Widely read and continually relevant, this book marked Niebuhr's decisive break from progressive religion and politics toward a more deeply tragic view of human nature and history. Forthright and realistic, Moral Man and Immoral Society argues that individual morality is intrinsically incompatible with collective life, thus making social and political conflict inevitable. Niebuhr further discusses our inability to imagine the realities of collective power, the brutal behavior of human collectives of every sort, and ultimately how individual morality can mitigate the persistence of social immorality. This new edition includes a foreword by Cornel West that explores the continued interest in Niebuhr's thought and its contemporary relevance.
