Restitution: Past, Present and Future William Cornish, Richard C Nolan, Janet O'Sullivan, G J Virgo, 1998-07-01 The essays in this volume are dedicated to Gareth Jones the retiring Downing Professor of English Law at the University of Cambridge His contribution to legal scholarship has been immense particularly in the fields of legal history the law of trusts charities law and most famously the law of restitution The publication of the first edition of the Law of Restitution which he co authored with Lord Goff stimulated a renaissance in the study of a subject which had previously lain dormant The effect of its publication on English legal scholarship has been profound and enduring In these essays written by a group of the world s leading restitution scholars the opportunity is taken to conduct a fresh appraisal of the development of the subject to look in other words at the past present and future of the law of restitution Contributors John Baker Peter Birks Justice Finn Roy Goode Ewan McKendrick Justice McLachlin Sir Peter Millett Lord Nicholls of Birkenhead Richard Nolan Janet O Sullivan Graham Virgo as well as shorter contributions from invited commentators Restitution University of Cambridge. Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge. Board of Continuing Education, 1998 Unjust Enrichment James Edelman, Elise Bant, 2016-08-25 Unjust enrichment is one of the least understood of the major branches of private law This book builds on the 2006 work by the same authors which examined the developing law of unjust enrichment in Australia The refinement of the authors thinking responding to novel issues and circumstances that have arisen in the maturing case law has required many chapters of the book to be completely rewritten The scope of the book is also much broader It concerns the principles of the law of unjust enrichment in Australia New Zealand England and Canada Major decisions of the highest courts of these jurisdictions in the last decade provide a fertile basis for examining the underlying principles and foundations of this subject The book uses the leading cases particularly in England and Australia to distil and explain the fundamental principles of this branch of private law The cases discussed are current as of 1 May 2016 although the most recent could only be included in footnotes The German Law of Contract Basil S Markesinis, Hannes Unberath, Angus C Johnston, 2006-02-27 Recently the contract section of the German Civil Code was amended after one hundred years of un altered existence The German Law of Contract radically recast enlarged and re written since its first edition now details and explains for the first time these changes for the benefit of Anglophone lawyers One hundred and twenty translated contract decisions also make this work a unique source book for students academics and practitioners Along with its companion volume The German Law of Torts the two volumes provide one of the fullest accounts of the German Law of Obligations available in the English language Through its method of presentation of German law the book represents an original contribution to the art of comparison An additional feature of the Contract volume is the way in which it reveals the growing impact which European Directives are having upon the traditional liberal contract model thereby bringing German and English law closer to each other especially in the area of consumer protection Understanding Unjust Enrichment Jason W Neyers, Mitchell McInnes, Stephen G.A.

Pitel, 2004-04-20 This book is a collection of articles based on Understanding Unjust Enrichment a symposium held at the University of Western Ontario in January 2003 The articles written from the perspective of English Australian Canadian German and Jewish law deal with numerous theoretical and practical issues that surround restitution and unjust enrichment The articles outline recent developments across the Commonwealth explain the unjust enrichment principle and its component parts and address discrete issues such as tracing choice of law disgorgement damages for breach of contract and the use of unjust enrichment in the cohabitation context The contributors are Kit Barker Peter Benson Jeffrey Berryman Michael Bryan Andrew Burrows Robert Chambers Gerald Fridman Peter Jaffey Dennis Klimchuk Thomas Krebs John McCamus Mitchell McInnes Stephen Pitel Stephen Waddams and Ernest Weinrib The Structure of Property Law Ben McFarlane, 2008-07-09 Shortlisted for the Peter Birks Prize for Outstanding Legal Scholarship 2009 In its essence property law has to provide answers to two very difficult questions who is entitled to use property and how are they entitled to use it Property law is therefore inherently difficult but not impossibly so It consists of an ordered and logical system which aims to take the sting out of fierce disputes This book provides a new perspective on property law By setting out an underlying structure it allows the reader to understand the fundamental principles of this difficult subject By providing detailed coverage of individual topics it shows how those principles apply in practice and provides a comprehensive resource for anyone studying teaching researching or practising in property law The book is written in an accessible style with frequent summaries and in both its pages and companion web site it makes use of helpful visual aids It is ideal reading for law students seeking a rock solid understanding of how property law and land law work and contains sufficient detail for use as a course book in Property Law Land Law Personal Property Law The book also provides detailed analysis of core topics in Equity Trusts Commercial Law Unjust Enrichment Restitution See the companion website for this book www.hartpub.co.uk/companion/propertylaw.html

Measuring Damages in the Law of Obligations Sirko Harder, 2010-07-12 This book challenges certain differences between contract tort and equity in relation to the measure in a broad sense of damages Damages are defined as the monetary award made by a court in consequence of a breach of contract a tort or an equitable wrong In all these causes of action damages usually aim to put the claimant into the position the claimant would be in without the wrong Even though the main objective of damages is thus the same for each cause of action their measure is not While some aspects of the measure of damages are more or less harmonised between contract tort and equity e.g causation in fact and mitigation significant differences exist in relation to 1 remoteness of damage which is the question of whether when and to which degree damage needs to be foreseeable to be recoverable 2 the compensability of non pecuniary loss such as pain and suffering distress and loss of reputation 3 the effect of contributory negligence which is the victim's contribution to the occurrence of the wrong or the ensuing loss through unreasonable conduct prior to the wrong 4 the circumstances under which victims of wrongs can claim the gain the wrongdoer has made from the wrong and 5 the availability and scope of exemplary or punitive damages For each of the five topics this book examines the present position in contract tort and equity and establishes the differences between the three areas It goes on to scrutinise the arguments in defence of existing differences The conclusion on each topic is that the present differences between contract tort and equity cannot be justified on merits and should be removed through a harmonisation of the relevant principles Unjust Enrichment in South African Law Helen Scott, 2013-07-10 Conventional thinking teaches that the absence of liability in particular contractual invalidity is itself the reason for the restitution of transfers in the South African law of unjustified enrichment However this book argues that while the absence of a relationship of indebtedness is a necessary condition for restitution in such cases it is not a sufficient condition The book takes as its focus those instances in which the invalidity thesis is strongest namely those traditionally classified as instances of the condictio indebiti the claim to recover undue transfers It seeks to demonstrate that in all such instances it is necessary for the plaintiff to show not only the absence of his liability to transfer but also a specific reason for restitution such as mistake compulsion or incapacity Furthermore this book explores the reasons for the rise of unjust factors in South African law attributing this development in part to the influence of the Roman Dutch restitutio in integrum an extraordinary equitable remedy that has historically operated independently of the established enrichment remedies of the civilian tradition and which even now remains imperfectly integrated into the substantive law of enrichment Finally the book seeks to defend in principled terms the mixed approach to enrichment by transfer an approach based both on unjust factors and on the absence of a legal ground which appears to characterise modern South African law It advocates the rationalisation of the causes of action comprised within the condictio indebiti many of which are subject to additional historically determined requirements in light of this mixed analysis Structure and Justification in Private Law C.E.F.

Rickett, Ross Grantham, 2008-02-27 Peter Birks's tragically early death and his immense influence around the world led immediately to the call for a volume of essays in his honour by scholars who had known him as a colleague teacher and friend One such volume published in 2006 contained essays largely from scholars working in England Mapping the Law Essays in Memory of Peter Birks edited by Andrew Burrows and Lord Rodger This volume contains the essays of those outside England who chose to honour Peter and appears later than the English volume reflecting the far flung habitations of its authors The essays contained in this volume are focussed around the law of unjust enrichment but are not narrowly preoccupied instead they move freely from unjust enrichment to some of the most profound questions in private law concerning taxonomy the relationship between contract property and unjust enrichment and the place of remedies within private law This volume featuring the work of some of the world's great private lawyers provides a fitting tribute to a great scholar and a series of thought provoking essays inspired by his example Contributors Kit Barker Michael Bryan Peter Butler Hanoch Dagan Simone Degeling Daniel Friedmann Mark Gergen Ross Grantham Steve Hedley John McCamus Mitchell McInnes Eoin O'Dell Charles Rickett Struan Scott Emily Sherwin Stephen Smith Richard Sutton Michael Tilbury Stephen Waddams Peter Watts Ernest

The Scope and Structure of Unjust Enrichment Duncan Sheehan,2024-02-22 This ambitious book grapples with the complex debates ongoing on the structure of unjust enrichment proving to be a major contribution to the field Responding to the subject s critics it presents a clearly articulated structure for this branch of private law arguing that while unjust enrichment has the function of reversing defective enrichments whether by performance or in another way there is scope for normative pluralism in how the law achieves this Drawing heavily on comparative material from Germany Scotland and South Africa the book then argues for a legal framework which combines elements of the absence of basis and unjust factors approaches It assesses how that structure can be mapped against the causes of action that make up unjust enrichment arguing that some are performance claims reversing a deliberate intentional performance and some are non performance claims Other claims often included in books on unjust enrichment such as necessity should be excluded from the subject area The book concludes with a treatment of defences

James Lee, 2011-01-06 2009 saw the centenary of the Society of Legal Scholars and the transition from the House of Lords to the new Supreme Court The papers presented in this volume arise from a seminar organised jointly by the Society of Legal Scholars and the University of Birmingham to celebrate and consider these historic events The papers examine judicial reasoning and the interaction between judges academics and the professions in their shared task of interpretative development of the law The volume gathers leading authorities on the House of Lords in its judicial capacity together with academics whose specialisms lie in particular fields of law including tort human rights restitution European law and private international law The relationship between judge and jurist is therefore investigated from a variety of perspectives and with reference to different jurisdictions The aim of the volume is to reflect upon the jurisprudence of the House of Lords and to consider the prospects for judging in the new Supreme Court Restitutionary Rights to Share in Damages Simone

Degeling, 2003-06-12 Rights and obligations can arise amongst other things in tort or in unjust enrichment Simone Degeling deals with the phenomenon whereby a stranger to litigation is entitled to participate in the fruits of that litigation Two prominent examples of this phenomenon are the carer entitled to share in the fund of damages recovered by a victim of tort and the indemnity insurer entitled to participate in the fruits of the insured's claim against the wrongdoer Degeling demonstrates that both are rights raised to reverse unjust enrichment Careful examination of these two categories reveals the existence of a novel policy motivated unjust factor called the policy against accumulation Degeling argues that this is an unjust factor of broad application applying to configurations other than that of the carer and the indemnity insurer This will interest restitution and tort lawyers both academic and practitioner as well as academic institutions and court libraries
