find texture in our experiences Each trial each joy each heartache and each hope leaves an explosion of color and sweeping brushstrokes that shape us When we allow God to take over as the Master artist we will find that He carefully adds dimension and highlights to create a beautiful masterpiece in us Often though it s hard to find the beauty when we are wading through mess In this beautiful memoir Anne shares personal stories about why her faith is so important to her and resonates in all her work In The Brushstrokes of Life you will learn how to Open your hands to God s possibilities Connect your trials from today into hope for tomorrow Trust God s role in your story Including a photo insert with several angel paintings never before seen in a book Anne s stories will be a beautiful reminder that God is both our Creator and the fulfiller theology has long regarded Being as a category pre eminently applicable to God the supreme Being who is also the source of all existence This idea was challenged in the later philosophy of Martin Heidegger and identified with the position he called ontotheology Heidegger s critique was repeated and radicalized in so called postmodern thought to the point that many theologians and philosophers of religion now want to talk instead of God as beyond Being or without Being Against this background God and Being attempts to look again at why the ideas of God and Being got associated in the first place and to investigate whether the critique of ontotheology really does require us to abandon this link After exploring how this apparently abstract idea has informed Christian views of salvation and of the relationship between God and world George Pattison examines how such categories as time space language human relationships and embodiment affect our understanding of God and Being Pattison concludes that whilst Heidegger's critique has considerable force it remains legitimate to speak of God as Being under certain restricted conditions The most important of these is that God is better conceived in terms of purely possible Being rather than as in classic Christian theology actual Being This leaves open possibilities of dialogue with e.g. non-theistic religious traditions and with science that are foreclosed by traditional conceptions Ultimately however all basic religious ideas must issue from and be seen to serve the requirements of embodied love
