

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a vast, flat, arid landscape, likely a desert or steppe. The ground is dry and brownish-yellow with sparse, low-lying vegetation. In the distance, there are faint, low hills or mountains. The sky is filled with soft, grey clouds, creating a hazy atmosphere. The overall tone is somber and expansive.

Shaukat Ali, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam

Central Asia Tom Everett-Heath, 2003-12-08 The five central Asian States of Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan stand at the crossroads of world civilization Influenced by South Asia Iran China and Russia this region which has recently burst onto the world stage once again guards a distinct identity This collection by established experts on the area covers the dramatic Soviet interventions of the early twentieth century and details the role of ethnicity and the contribution made by Islamic impulses in the process of building the modern nation states

The Caspian Region, Volume 1 Moshe Gammer, 2004-06-25 Following the dissolution of the Soviet Union in the 1990s new states most of them muslim emerged in central Asia and the Caucasus These new states proved to be both oil rich and central in the strip of conflict and instability that stretches from central Europe to the Far East This volume draws attention to previously neglected issues which could result in conflict the water problem and negotiation in central Asia the issues of Southern Azerbaijan Ajaria and Javakheti the many problems of multi ethnic Daghestan two attempts at unity in the Northern Caucasus The book also re-examines some of the established truths regarding the states around the Caspian Sea and re-evaluates the validity of the term Caspian region and the question of who should be included in this new region the general belief that the Caspian region will be a geopolitical centre of the 21st century the axiom that the dissolution of the USSR has reopened the Great Game Moreover The Caspian Region thoughtfully re examines the questions of democracy of fundamentalist Islam and of the complex ambivalent relationship between Islam and nationalism in the region     New States, New Politics Ian Bremmer, Ray Taras, 1996-12-28 Since its publication in 1993 Nations and Politics in the Soviet Successor States edited by Ian Bremmer and Ray Taras has established itself internationally as the genuinely comprehensive systematic and rigorous analysis of the nation and state building processes of the fifteen states that grew out of the 1991 collapse of the Soviet Union New States New Politics Building the Post Soviet Nations was first published in 1997 and succeeds and replaces the editors earlier book with a fresh collection of specially commissioned studies from the world s foremost specialists Far from eradicating tensions among the former Soviet peoples the disintegration of empire saw national minorities rediscovering long suppressed identities The contributors to New States New Politics bring together historical and ethnic backgrounds with penetrating political analysis to offer an intriguing record of the different roads to self assertion and independence being pursued by these young nations     Historical Dictionary of Tajikistan Kamoludin Abdullaev, 2018-08-10 Tajikistan is the poorest and only Persian speaking country among the post Soviet independent states Historically the Tajiks of Central Asia and Afghanistan along with the Persians of modern Iran came from a related ethnic group When the Tajik Autonomous Soviet Socialist Republic was established in late 1924 it became the first modern Tajik state that remained one of the 15 union republics of the Soviet Union until 1991 Almost immediately after the collapse of the USSR Tajikistan became a scene of brutal civil war taking place in one of the global hubs of religiously motivated political struggle militancy mass cross border refugee flows insurgency and drug trafficking During the first decade of the 21st century the country was making modest progress toward stability However the heavy burden of socio economic problems in addition to continuing conflict in the neighboring Afghanistan Pakistan presented even bigger challenges for Tajikistan In addition Western economic sanctions against Russia in 2014 coinciding with continuing lower oil prices have negatively affected one million of Tajik labor migrants in Russia Yet Tajikistan has become neither weaker nor less important as a player in world politics This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Tajikistan contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 800 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Tajikistan     The Faceless Terrorist Sophie Roche, 2019-05-31 How could a person portrayed as a terrorist by the Tajik state also be seen as a mujahid fighter in Islam and be a cousin all at the same time Is this just a matter of perspective and conceptualization To believe in the protection of concepts to safeguard groups and individuals from the uncertain character of the world is to deny the existence of chance and the contradictions in life This book uses approaches from existential anthropology to enquire into the question of how concepts and experiences relate The focus is on the way the notions jihad mujahid and terrorism were used during a military intervention in Tajikistan in 2010 The book includes long term ethnographic material popular pamphlets on Islam and an internet analysis of the conflict offering new insights into how concepts and experiences relate Since the end of the Soviet Union the people from the republic Tajikistan have struggled to find a place in the larger Muslim world a painful process unfolding in relation to global events discourses and politics The primary readership for the book will come from academia and policy makers The book presents novel material on a fascinating and highly important topic the nature of ostensibly Islamist political violence against the state in Tajikistan John Heathershaw

Turkey's Relations with the West and the Turkic Republics Idris Bal, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 An analysis of the relations between Turkey the West and the newly independent Turkic Republics in the context of the Turkish Model proposed and supported by the West as a possible model for development in the Turkic Republics It summarizes the Turkish Model of development as applied in Turkey including its shortcomings and discusses the role of Turkey in the area after the collapse of the Soviet Union from the point of view of both the West and Turkey itself It also analyzes the possible reasons why the Turkish Model was proposed and how the Turkic Republics received it and why it declined from favour in a short period of time

Why Do Uzbeks Have to be Muslims? Irene Hilgers, 2009 In this work the late Irene Hilgers analyses the revival of Islam in the public sphere in postsocialist Uzbekistan with particular reference to its role in the construction of a new national identity Data collected during fieldwork in 2003 2004 are contextualized with reference to the history of the Kokand Khanate and the suppression of religion during the Soviet era Hilgers analyses current state ideology and the official structures for controlling religion but also the continued significance of popular religion as expressed at shrines and in healing rituals and the tensions associated with Wahabi currents The tight association between Uzbek identity and Islam is also illustrated through the problems encountered by converts to Christianity Throughout the work Hilgers deploys her rich ethnographic materials to shed fresh light on major debates concerning secularization and the nature of Soviet and post Soviet modernity
