Coming Home to Germany? David Rock,Stefan Wolff,2002 The end of World War II led to one of the most significant forced population transfers in history the expulsion of over 12 million ethnic Germans from Central and Eastern Europe between 1945 and 1950 and the subsequent emigration of another four million in the second half of the twentieth century Although unprecedented in its magnitude conventional wisdom has it that the integration of refugees expellees and Aussiedler was a largely successful process in postwar Germany While the achievements of the integration process are acknowledged the volume also examines the difficulties encountered by ethnic Germans in the Federal Republic and analyses the shortcomings of dealing with this particular phenomenon of mass migration and its consequences Warrior dreams

The Indo-Europeans Jean-Paul Demoule,2023 The existence of an Indo European linguistic family allowing for the fact that several languages widely dispersed across Eurasia share numerous traits has been demonstrated for several centuries now But the underlying factors for this shared heritage have been fiercely debated by linguists historians archaeologists and anthropologists The leading theory of which countless variations exist argues that this similarity is best explained by the existence at one given point in time and space of a common language and corresponding population This ancient prehistoric population would then have diffused across Eurasia eventually leading to the variation observed in historical and modern times The Indo Europeans Archaeology Language Race and the Search for the Origins of the West argues that despite its acceptance and use by most researchers from different disciplines such a model is inherently flawed This book describes how beginning in the late eighteenth century Europeans began a quest for a supposed original homeland from which a small conquering people would one day spread out bringing their language to Europe and parts of Asia India Iran Afghanistan This quest was often closely tied to ideological preoccupations and it was in its name that the Nazi leadership claiming for the Germans the status of the purest Indo Europeans or Aryans waged genocide The last part of the book summarizes the current state of knowledge and current hypotheses in the fields of linguistics archaeology comparative mythology and genetics The culmination of three decades of research this book offers a sweeping survey of the historiography of the Indo European debate and poses a devastating challenge to the Indo European origin story at its roots The Han Agnieszka Joniak-Luthi,2015-06-24 This ethnography explores contemporary narratives of Han ness revealing the nuances of what Han identity means today in relation to that of the fifty five officially recognized minority ethnic groups in China as well as in relation to home place identities and the country s national identity Based on research she conducted among native and migrant Han in Shanghai and Beijing Aqsu in Xinjiang and the Sichuan Yunnan border area Agnieszka Joniak Luthi uncovers and discusses these identity topographies Bringing into focus the Han majority which has long acted as an unexamined backdrop to ethnic minorities Joniak Luthi contributes to the emerging field of critical Han studies as she considers how the Han describe themselves particularly what unites and divides them as well as the functions of Han identity and the processes through which it is maintained and reproduced The Han will appeal to scholars and students of contemporary China anthropology and ethnic and cultural studies Debating Diversity Jan Blommaert,Jef Verschueren,2002-03-11 Immigration racism and nationalism have become hotly debated issues in the Western world This highly original and controversial work focuses on the language used by the vast majority who regard themselves as being open to a multi cultural society Using Belgium as a case study and drawing parallels with the UK US Europe and the former Yugoslavia the authors analyse this language and reveal a remarkable consistency between these liberal voices such as in news reporting and the language used by radical racist and nationalist groups International Security Studies Volume 4Number 1Summer 2018 TAO Jian,2018-11-01 Atheist Secularism and its Discontents T. Ngo,J. Quijada,2015-07-14 Atheist Secularism and Its Discontents takes a comparative approach to understanding religion under communism arguing that communism was integral to the global experience of secularism Bringing together leading researchers whose work spans the Eurasian continent it shows that appropriating religion was central to Communist political practices Living Politics in South Africa's Urban Shacklands Kerry Ryan Chance,2018-06-05 While much has been written on post apartheid social movements in South Africa most discussion centers on ideal forms of movements disregarding the reality and agency of the activists themselves In Living Politics Kerry Ryan Chance radically flips the conversation by focusing on the actual language and humanity of post apartheid activists rather than the external idealistic commentary of old Tracking everyday practices and interactions between poor residents and state agents in South Africa s shack settlements Chance investigates the rise of nationwide protests since the late 1990s Based on ethnography in Durban Cape Town and Johannesburg the book analyzes the criminalization of popular forms of politics that were foundational to South Africa s celebrated democratic transition

Chance argues that we can best grasp the increasingly murky line between the criminal and the political with a politics of living that casts slum and state in opposition to one another Living Politics shows us how legitimate domains of politics are redefined how state sovereignty is forcibly enacted and how the production of new citizen identities crystallize at the intersections of race gender and class

Russian Identities Nicholas V. Riasanovsky, 2005-09-29 Investigates the question of Russian identity spanning a territory centuries and a variety of political social and economic structures This book places emphases on the struggle against the steppe peoples Orthodox Christianity autocratic monarchy and Westernization
