Rethinking The World:

Rethinking the World Jeffrey W. Legro, 2005 Stunning shifts in the worldviews of states mark the modern history of international affairs how do societies think about and rethink international order and security Japan's opening German conquest American internationalism Maoist independence and Gorbachev's new thinking molded international conflict and cooperation in their eras How do we explain such momentous changes in foreign policy and in other cases their equally surprising absence The nature of strategic ideas Jeffrey W Legro argues played a critical and overlooked role in these transformations Big changes in foreign policies are rare because it is difficult for individuals to overcome the inertia of entrenched national mentalities Doing so depends on a particular nexus of policy expectations national experience and ready replacement ideas In a sweeping comparative history Legro explores the sources of strategy in the United States and Germany before and after the world wars in Tokugawa Japan and in the Soviet Union He charts the likely future of American primacy and a rising China in the coming century Rethinking the World tells us when and why we can expect changes in the way states think about the world why some ideas win out over others and why some leaders succeed while others fail in redirecting grand strategy

How to Queer the World Bo Ruberg, 2025-04-22 What video games teach us about building a better world What does it mean to build a world Worldbuilding is traditionally understood as an expression of storytelling across media forms Yet as video games show us worldbuilding does not necessarily need to center narrative elements Instead new worlds can allow us to reimagine existing structures conventions and constants Doing so gives us the tools to queer the world around us How to Queer the World argues that video games provide us with keen insight into worldbuilding With these insights come a new understanding of the ever elusive ideals of queer worldmaking Video games challenge us to address how worlds are built through underlying systems rather than surface level representation They also offer opportunities to envision alternate and queer ways of living loving desiring and being Each of the chapters in this book presents a close reading of a video game that illustrates one way of building worlds and encoding them with meaning focusing on elements of digital media often overlooked as technical rather than cultural From the design of game mechanics and user interfaces to the use of graphics software and physics simulations Bo Ruberg argues that these aspects of video games represent a critical toolkit for seeing the work of worldbuilding differently in video games and beyond Simultaneously each of these video games models an approach to what Ruberg terms queer worldbuilding Queer worldbuilding radically remakes the world by destabilizing the fundamental logics of our own universe who we are what we can do how our bodies move and how we exist within time and space

Teaching the Silk Road Jacqueline M. Moore,Rebecca Woodward Wendelken,2012-02-01 The romance of the journey along the Silk Road with its exotic locales and luxury goods still excites the popular imagination The trade route between China and Central Asia that flourished from about 200 BCE to the 1500s the Silk Road can provide great insight for contemporary higher education curricula Indeed with people plants animals ideas and beliefs traversing it the Silk Road is now considered both a metaphor of globalization and an early example of it Teaching the Silk Road highlights the reasons to incorporate this material into courses and shares resources to facilitate that process It is intended for those who are not Silk Road or Asian specialists but who wish to embrace a global history and civilizations perspective in teaching as opposed to the more traditional world history view that shows impacts of other societies on Europe The work explores both classroom and experiential learning and is intentionally interdisciplinary Each essay focuses on pedagogical strategies or themes that teachers can use to bring the Silk Road into the classroom

Planetary Modernisms Susan Stanford Friedman,2015-08-18

Drawing on a vast archive of world history anthropology geography cultural theory postcolonial studies gender studies literature and art Susan Stanford Friedman recasts modernity as a networked circulating and recurrent phenomenon producing multiple aesthetic innovations across millennia Considering cosmopolitan as well as nomadic and oceanic worlds she radically revises the scope of modernist critique and opens the practice to more integrated study Friedman moves from large scale instances of pre 1500 modernities such as Tang Dynasty China and the Mongol Empire to small scale instances of modernisms including the poetry of Du Fu and Kabir and Abbasid ceramic art She maps the interconnected modernisms of the long twentieth century pairing Joseph Conrad with Tayeb Salih E M Forster with Arundhati Roy Virginia Woolf with the Tagores and Aim C saire with Theresa Hak Kyung Cha She reads postcolonial works from Sudan and India and engages with the idea of N gritude Rejecting the modernist concepts of marginality othering and major minor Friedman instead favors rupture mobility speed networks and divergence elevating the agencies and creative capacities of all cultures not only in the past and present but also in the century to come

The Early Muslim Tradition of Dream Interpretation John C. Lamoreaux, 2002-05-02 Explores dream interpretation among the early Muslims who saw dreams as a type of prophecy

Oral Literary Worlds Sara Marzagora, Francesca Orsini, 2025-01-31 The discipline of world literature has traditionally focused on written literatures particularly the novel with little emphasis placed on the unwritten verbal arts despite the significance of oral literary expressions around the world in the past as in the present This volume redresses this gap by putting the discipline of world literature into dialogue with scholarship on orature and folklore It asks what does world literature look like if we start from orature from oral texts and utterances and from the performances and audiences that support it Featuring contributions from an international array of scholars Oral Literary Worlds explores oral traditions from three multilingual regions the Maghreb East Africa and South Asia Essays discuss a variety of vernacular genres from Swahili tumbuizo to Na o folk songs shedding light on less studied forms of vernacular oral production Collectively the contributions critique the characterisation of oral traditions as static and pre modern and underscore the contemporary relevance of orature to cultural and political discourse Oral Literary Worlds offers a timely and accessible perspective on world literature through the lens of orature moving away from traditional hierarchies and dichotomies that have characterised previous scholarship It aims to open up new ways of thinking through local and transnational textual circulation literary power dynamics the interaction between textuality and audiences and aesthetic philosophies This volume will be an invaluable resource for scholars of world literature folklore and performance studies and will further interest teachers and students of popular culture literature of dissent and music

From Postmodernism to Postsecularism Eric Walberg, 2013-07-31 Eric Walberg s new book From Postmodernism to Postsecularism Re emerging Islamic Civilization provides an overview of imperialism and colonialism in the Muslim world It elaborates on the third of the Great Games addressed in his earlier work Postmodern Imperialism which traced the movement of history from the colonialism of the British and other empires through the neocolonialism of the US empire to the current Great Game marked by the revival of Islam Walberg reviews the Islamic reform traditions from the 19th century on deriving from Al Afghani Qutb incorporating the Islamic critique of the West as well as the Sunni Shia mainstream Sufi Salafi divisions Then he addresses the twentieth century experience of Islamic states Saudi Arabia Pakistan Afghanistan Iran as well as the current dynamics of the Muslim world Saudi Iran Qatar Turkey and now Egypt Tunisia Libya Key actors and milestones in the struggle to free the Muslim world from the imperial yoke are discussed While the Christian Judaic surrender to capitalism led to Marxist secularism and the communist utopia Walberg views the Islamic project as containing an alternative socio economic orientation This prevented the rise of capitalism imperialism in lands populated by Muslims making them the losers in the technology race of the 19th 20th centuries but the repository of a corrected vision of the rich lost values of the earlier monotheistic traditions Here modernity and postmodernism are critiqued from both left and right and Islam is discussed as both an alternative worldview and world order However the contradictions of the Arab Spring may be resolved as the West continues its decline Walberg projects how the understandings entrenched in Islamic civilization point toward a new old civilizational alternative one not derivative from the West but indigenous to the developing world still under its heel

Islam in Malaysia Khairudin Aljunied, 2019-08-30 This book surveys the growth and development of Islam in Malaysia from the eleventh to the twenty first century investigating how Islam has shaped the social lives languages cultures and politics of both Muslims and non Muslims in one of the most populous Muslim regions in the world Khairudin Aljunied shows how Muslims in Malaysia built upon the legacy of their pre Islamic past while benefiting from Islamic ideas values and networks to found flourishing states and societies that have played an influential role in a globalizing world He examines the movement of ideas peoples goods technologies arts and cultures across into and out of Malaysia over the centuries Interactions between Muslims and the local Malay population began as early as the eighth century sustained by trade and the agency of Sufi as well as Arab Indian Persian and Chinese scholars and missionaries Aljunied looks at how Malay states and societies survived under colonial regimes that heightened racial and religious divisions and how Muslims responded through violence as well as reformist movements Although there have been tensions and skirmishes between Muslims and non Muslims in Malaysia they have learned in the main to co exist harmoniously creating a society comprising of a variety of distinct populations This is the first book to provide a seamless account of the millennium old venture of Islam in Malaysia

Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism Keru Cai, 2025-04-28 Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism shows that early twentieth century Chinese writers drew upon Russian texts about the socially downtrodden to describe poverty in a bid to enrich Chinese culture by creating a syncretic new realism Modern Chinese realist writers turned to the topic of material poverty peasants suffering from famine exploited urban laborers homeless orphans to convey their sense of textual poverty and national backwardness The combination of a radically new subject matter and experimentation with diverse literary resources indigenous and foreign generated major innovations in narrative technique Depicting poverty allowed writers to revolutionize the nascent forms of modern Chinese narrative innovating strategies of representing the nation the social other time and space while problematizing their deployment of squalor for aesthetic purposes This book examines why Russian literature itself long preoccupied with a problem of belatedness vis vis Western Europe occupied a privileged place for Chinese intellectuals of this era Comparing Chinese fiction about poverty to Russian intertexts by Gogol Andreiev Chekhov Turgenyev and others the book shows how Chinese writers drew and innovated upon themes such as madness or human animality and formal elements such as metonymy Keru Cai's multi scalar approach emphasizing close textual analysis situates modern Chinese realism in the trans Eurasian axis of world literature
