Air Force Chaplains: The service of chaplains to Army air units United States. Air Force. Office of the Chief of Chaplains, Daniel B. Jorgensen, 1961 Air Force Chaplains United States. Air Force. Office of the Chief of Chaplains, Daniel B. Jorgensen, 1961

Missing Believed Killed Stuart Hadaway, 2008-09-22 During the early years of WW2 it soon became apparent that the system for tracing the remains of R A F aircrew deemed Missing Believed Killed was totally inadequate The Missing Research Section M R S of the Air Ministry was set up in 1941 to deal with this problem It collected and collated intelligence reports from a wide variety of official unofficial and covert sources in an attempt to establish the fate of missing aircrew using forensic or semi forensic work to identify personal effects passed on through clandestine channels or bodies washed up on Britains shores In 1944 the M R S a small team of fourteen men was sent to France to seek the missing men on the ground With 42 000 men missing the amount they achieve was limited although a lot of useful work was carried out through contacts in the French Resistance The book explains why men volunteered for the job and why they worked for so long at such a gruesome task Facing difficulties in terrain and climate from the Arctic Circle to the jungles of Burma and Germany and not knowing if the local people would be friendly or hostile The book also explains how to trace R A F members through both personnel and operational records where these records are kept and how to access them

Unearthing Churchill's Secret Army Martin Mace, 2012-12-19 The Special Operations Executive was one of the most secretive organizations of the Second World War its activities cloaked in mystery and intrigue The fate therefore of many of its agents was not revealed to the general public other than the bare details carved with pride upon the headstones and memorials of those courageous individuals Then in 2003 the first batch of SOE personal files was released by the National Archive Over the course of the following years more and more files were made available Now at last it is possible to tell the stories of all those agents that died in action These are stories of bravery and betrayal incompetence and misfortune of brutal torture and ultimately death Some died when their parachutes failed to open others swallowed their cyanide capsules rather than fall into the hands of the Gestapo many died in combat with the enemy most though were executed by hanging by shooting and even by lethal injection The bodies of many of the lost agents were never found destroyed in the crematoria of such places as Buckenwald Mauthausen and Natzweiler others were buried where they fell All of them should be remembered as having undertaken missions behind enemy lines in the knowledge that they might never return

Missing in Action John D. Harvie, 1995-07-31 Shot down by Germans over occupied France Harvie was the only member of his Bomber Command crew to survive the crash After hiding for several days at a French farmhouse he started back to England with the help of the French Resistance but was betrayed to the Gestapo by a traitor He spent a month in solitary confinement in Paris and then was transported by boxcar to Buchenwald He describes the appalling conditions the indignities and the extreme hardship he and his fellow prisoners endured there Later he was transferred to Stalag Luft III POW camp where with food from the Red

Cross and the comradeship of fellow prisoners his body and spirit were restored As the Russian army advanced into Germany Harvie and the other POWs undertook the long march from eastern Germany to a camp near Bremen and then to L beck near the Danish border where he remained until the Allied forces broke through and he was liberated by the British army Both painful and uplifting Missing in Action is an invaluable record of the unforgettable horrors and heroes of World War II
