Missing Fred Astaire:

Missing Fred Astaire Peter Scott Lawrence, 1993 Stories of lost innocence peopled with old movie stars old loves and imaginary childhood friends

The Age of Missing Information Bill McKibben, 2014-09-03 Highly personal and original McKibben goes beyond Marshall McLuhan's theory that the medium is the message The New York Times Imagine watching an entire day's worth of television on every single channel Acclaimed environmental writer and culture critic Bill McKibben subjected himself to this sensory overload in an experiment to verify whether we are truly better informed than previous generations Bombarded with newscasts and fluff pieces game shows and talk shows ads and infomercials televangelist pleas and Brady Bunch episodes McKibben processed twenty four hours of programming on all ninety three Fairfax Virginia cable stations Then as a counterpoint he spent a day atop a quiet and remote mountain in the Adirondacks exploring the unmediated man and making small yet vital discoveries about himself and the world around him As relevant now as it was when originally written in 1992 and with new material from the author on the impact of the Internet age this witty and astute book is certain to change the way you look at television and perceive media as a whole By turns humorous wise and troubling a penetrating critique of technological society Cleveland Plain Dealer Masterful a unique bizarre portrait of our life and times Los Angeles Times Do yourself a favor Put down the remote and pick up this book Houston Chronicle

Missing Reels Farran Smith Nehme, 2014-11-12 New York in the late 1980s Ceinwen Reilly has just moved from Yazoo City Mississippi and she's never going back minimum wage job vintage store salesgirl and shabby apartment Avenue C walkup be damned Who cares about earthly matters when Ceinwen can spend her days and her nights at fading movie houses and most of the time that's left trying to look like Jean Harlow One day Ceinwen discovers that her downstairs neighbor may have just possibly starred in a forgotten silent film that hasn't been seen for ages So naturally it's time for a quest She will track down the film she will impress her neighbor and she will become a part of movie history the archivist as in nue As she embarks on her grand mission Ceinwen meets a somewhat bumbling very charming 100% English math professor named Matthew who is as rational as she is dreamy Together they will or will not discover the missing reels will or will not fall in love and will or will not encounter the obsessives that make up the New York silent film nut underworld A novel as winning and energetic as the grand Hollywood films that inspired it Missing Reels is an irresistible alchemical mix of Nora Ephron and David Nicholls that will charm and delight

A Thousand Cuts Dennis Bartok, Jeff Joseph, 2016-08-25 A Thousand Cuts is a candid exploration of one of America's strangest and most quickly vanishing subcultures It is about the death of physical film in the digital era and about a paranoid secretive eccentric and sometimes obsessive group of film mad collectors who made movies and their projection a private religion in the time before DVDs and Blu rays The book includes the stories of film historian critic Leonard Maltin TCM host Robert Osborne discussing Rock Hudson's secret 1970s film vault RoboCop producer Jon Davison dropping acid and screening King Kong with Jefferson Airplane at the Fillmore East and Academy Award winning film historian Kevin Brownlow recounting his decades long quest to restore the 1927 Napoleon Other lesser known but equally fascinating subjects include one legged former Broadway dancer Tony Turano who lives in a Norma Desmond like world of decaying movie memories and notorious film pirate Al Beardsley one of the men responsible for putting O J Simpson behind bars Authors Dennis Bartok and Jeff Joseph examine one of the least known episodes in modern legal history the FBI s and Justice Department s campaign to harass intimidate and arrest film dealers and collectors in the early 1970s Many of those persecuted were gay men Victims included Planet of the Apes star Roddy McDowall who was arrested in 1974 for film collecting and forced to name names of fellow collectors including Rock Hudson and Mel Torm A Thousand Cuts explores the obsessions of the colorful individuals who created their own screening rooms spent vast sums negotiated underground networks and even risked legal jeopardy to pursue their passion for real physical film

She s Gone collects the true stories of five different women living in different decades who all have one thing in common one moment they were busy living their lives and the next moment they were gone From the 1910 disappearance of New York heiress Dorothy Arnold to the 1977 vanishing of teenager Simone Ridinger author Brunelle details both famous and lesser known cases that remain unsolved Board a luxury liner with Agnes Tufverson as she embarks on a European honeymoon before her mysterious 1933 disappearance over the Atlantic follow Jean Spangler to a famous 1940s Hollywood nightclub as she arrives for a clandestine meeting in a private booth Due to a strong belief that good girls didn t disappear when authorities and family members were presented with missing women in the twentieth century it was often assumed that they had simply ran away Most investigations were funded by family members and when women were found to be the victims of violent crime they were faulted for placing themselves in dangerous situations On the rare occasions when authorities investigated cases they relied on interviews and cash trails in combination with rudimentary forensics such as blood typing and fingerprinting to find missing persons For those reasons many of the real stories from this time period have yet to be told Featuring never before seen letters and documents personal interviews and genealogical research alongside captivating storytelling Brunelle delves deep into the lives of those who disappeared and the circumstances surrounding their disappearances

The Shocking Miss Pilgrim Frederica Sagor Maas, 1999-06-10 A memoir of the rise and fall of one female screenwriter's career during the Golden Age of Hollywood Freddie Maas's revealing memoir offers a unique perspective on the film industry and Hollywood culture in their early days and illuminates the plight of Hollywood writers working within the studio system An ambitious twenty three year old Maas moved to Hollywood and launched her own writing career by drafting a screenplay of the bestselling novel The Plastic Age for It girl Clara Bow With that script she landed a staff position at powerhouse MGM studios In the years to come she worked with and befriended numerous actors and directors including Norma Shearer Joan Crawford and Eric von Stroheim as well as such writers and producers as Thomas Mann and Louis B Mayer As a professional screenwriter Frederica quickly learned that scripts and story ideas were frequently rewritten and that screen credit was regularly given to the wrong person Studio executives wanted well worn plots but it was the writer's job to develop the innovative situations and scintillating dialogue that would bring to picture to life For over twenty years Freddie and her friends struggled to survive in this incredibly competitive environment Through it all Freddie remained a passionate outspoken woman in an industry run by powerful men and her provocative nonconformist ways brought her success failure wisdom and a wealth of stories opinions and insight into a fascinating period in screen history Praise for The Shocking Miss Pilgrim In this memorable tell all rise and fall memoir Maas brings the gimlet hindsight of Julia Phillips's You'll Never Eat Lunch in This Town Again to early Hollywood and the results are thoroughly captivating Publishers Weekly A bittersweet extraordinarily detailed recollection of Maas's 30 year career in the motion picture industry Chockablock with anecdotes and a blinding amount of star wattage to boot Salon.com
