Mission Agogo:

Medicine, Faith and Politics in Agogo Pascal Schmid, 2018 Medicine Faith and Politics in Agogo examines the development of health care delivery at a former mission hospital in Ghana. It reveals the configurations of interests, values and ideologies that shaped the development and implementation of health care practices, strategies and concepts. By providing an in-depth analysis, the book contributes a particular perspective on the history of health care delivery in rural Africa and beyond. It addresses topics that are still heavily under-researched. These include the decolonisation of health care as well as the development and implementation of medical concepts for developing countries such as primary health care. Dissertation Series Swiss African Studies Schweizerische Afrikastudien Etudes africaines suisses Vol 13 Subject African Studies History Religious Studies Health Care Studies Sociology The Asante World Edmund Abaka, Kwame Osei Kwarteng, 2021-05-30 The Asante World provides fresh perspectives on the Asante, the largest Akan group in Southern Ghana, and what new scholars are thinking and writing about the world the Asante made. By employing a thematic approach, the volume interrogates several dimensions of Asante history, including state formation, Asante Ahafo and Bassari Dagomba relations in the context of Asante northward expansion and the expansion to the south. It examines the role of Islam, which although extremely intense for just a short time, had important ramifications. Together, the essays excavate key aspects of Asante political economy and culture exemplified in kola nut production, the kente adinkra cloth types and their associated symbols, proverbs and drum language. The Asante World explores the Asante origins of Jamaican maroons, Asante secular government, contemporary politics of progress, governance through the institution of Ahemaa or Queenmothers, epidemiology and disease, and education in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. Featuring innovative and insightful contributions from leading historians of the Asante world, this volume is essential reading for advanced undergraduates, postgraduates and scholars concerned with African Studies, African diaspora history, the history of Ghana and the Gold Coast, the history of Islam in Africa and Asante history. Science, Africa and Europe Martin Lengwiler, Nigel Penn, Patrick Harries, 2018-10-12 Historically, scientists and experts have played a prominent role in shaping the relationship between Europe and Africa. Starting with travel writers and missionary intellectuals in the 17th century, European savants have engaged in the study of nature and society in Africa. Knowledge about realms of the world like Africa provided a foil against which Europeans came to view themselves as members of enlightened and modern civilisations. Science and technology also offered crucial tools with which to administer, represent and legitimate power relations in a new global world, but the knowledge drawn from contacts with people in far-off places provided Europeans with information and ideas that contributed in everyday ways to the scientific revolution and that provided explorers with the intellectual and social capital needed to develop science into modern disciplines at home in the metropole. This book poses questions about the changing role of European science and expert knowledge from early colonial times to post-colonial times. How did science shape understanding of Africa in Europe?

and how was scientific knowledge shaped adapted and redefined in African contexts Gold Coast Gazette Gold Coast,1955

It Happened in Ghana. A Historical Romance 1824-1971 Noel Smith,2007-11-15 It Happened in Ghana carries a positive message Conceived as a literary work it demonstrates that racial prejudice based on skin colour is not a pervasive and unalterable human condition The principal characters who are both Black and White are embroiled in various encounters notably wars slave trade colonialism and post colonial reconstruction Regardless of their skin colour and cultural differences they make friends or fall in love secretly during these encounters When they are forced to part company by the cessation of hostilities or whatever brought them together they serve in various capacities in new locations outside their original places of domicile They are accepted or integrated into existing social structures because of the warmth of their personalities and the manner in which they are able to adjust themselves to the pressures and challenges of new environments Changes in the circumstances of the principal characters or their descendants enable them not only to restore broken relationships but also to identify themselves with the cause of freedom and justice or to reconnect in various ways with the development aspirations of Ghana where it all started

Problems and Prospects of the Search for a Catholic Spiritual Tradition in the Ghanaian Catholic Pastoral Ministry Norbert Okoledah, 2005 Today Christianity has become the most popular and fast growing religion in Ghana Paradoxically the Christian Church in whatever form it has taken has for a complexity of reasons basically remained a weak church with a weak foundation This book discusses from a theologico cultural anthropological perspective some of the ecclesial and social processes and factors that the author believes are responsible for the creation of this paradox in the case of the Ghanaian Catholic Church and demonstrates how they influence the search for a Catholic spiritual tradition in it
