New Babylonians Contemporary Visions Of A Situationist City:

Visions of the City David Pinder, 2013-11-12 Visions of the City is a dramatic history of utopian urbanism in the twentieth century. It explores radical demands for new spaces and ways of living and considers their effects on planning, architecture, and struggles to shape urban landscapes. The author critically examines influential utopian approaches to urbanism in western Europe associated with such figures as Ebenezer Howard and Le Corbusier, uncovering the political interests, desires, and anxieties that lay behind their ideal cities. He also investigates avant garde perspectives from the time that challenged these conceptions of cities, especially from within surrealism. At the heart of this richly illustrated book is an encounter with the explosive ideas of the situationists. Tracing the subversive practices of this avant garde group and its associates from their explorations of Paris during the 1950s to their alternative visions based on nomadic life and play, David Pinder convincingly explains the significance of their revolutionary attempts to transform urban spaces and everyday life. He addresses in particular Constant's New Babylon, finding within his proposals a still powerful provocation to imagine cities otherwise. The book not only recovers vital moments from past hopes and dreams of modern urbanism, it also contests current claims about the end of utopia, arguing that reconsidering earlier projects can play a critical role in developing utopian perspectives today. Through the study of utopian visions, it aims to rekindle elements of utopianism itself. A superb critical exploration of the underside of utopian thought over the last hundred years and its continuing relevance in the here and now for thinking about possible urban worlds. The treatment of the Situationists and their milieu is a revelation. David Harvey, Distinguished Professor of Anthropology, City University of New York Graduate School. Urban Visions Carmen Díez Medina, Javier Monclús, 2018-06-23 This book is a useful reference in the field of urbanism. It explains how the contemporary city and landscape have been shaped by certain twentieth century visions that have carried over into the twenty first century. Aimed at both students and professionals, this collection of essays on diverse subjects and cases does not attempt to establish universal interpretations; it rather highlights some outstanding episodes that help us understand why the planning culture has given way to other forms of urbanism, from urban design to strategic urbanism or landscape urbanism. Compared with global interpretations of urbanism based on socioeconomic history or architectural historiography, Urban Visions: From Planning Culture to Landscape Urbanism aims to present the discipline couched in international contemporary debate and adopt a historic and comparative perspective. The book's contents pertain equally to other related disciplines such as architecture, urban history, urban design, landscape architecture, and geography. Foreword by Rafael Moneo. The Situationists and the City Tom McDonough, 2020-05-05 The Situationist International (SI) led by the revolutionary Guy Debord were active throughout the 1950s and 60s. They published the journal Internationale Situationniste that included many incendiary texts on politics and art and were a galvanizing force in the revolutions of May 1968. The importance of their work has been felt particularly in their revolutionary analysis of cities. The SI were responsible for utopian imaginings of the city.

where its alienating effects from its routine use as a site of consumption and work were banished and it was instead to be turned into a place of play Tom McDonough collects all the SI's key work in this area for an essential one stop collection Including such essential works as The Theory of the Derive Formulary for a New Urbanism and many previously untranslated texts the book will also be strikingly illustrated by the images that were core to the Situationist project The Architectural Review, 2001 The New Blackwell Companion to The City Gary Bridge, Sophie Watson, 2011-02-23 This book considers the state of the city and contemporary urbanisation from a range of intellectual and international perspectives The most interdisciplinary collection of its kind Provides a contemporary update on urban thinking that builds on well established debates in the field Uses the city to explore economic social cultural environmental and political issues more broadly Includes contributions from non Western perspectives and cities The Situationist City Simon Sadler, 1999-08-18 Simon Sadler searches for the Situationist City among the detritus of tracts manifestos and works of art that the Situationist International left behind From 1957 to 1972 the artistic and political movement known as the Situationist International SI worked aggressively to subvert the conservative ideology of the Western world The movement's broadside attack on establishment institutions and values left its mark upon the libertarian left the counterculture the revolutionary events of 1968 and more recent phenomena from punk to postmodernism But over time it tended to obscure Situationism's own founding principles In this book Simon Sadler investigates the artistic architectural and cultural theories that were once the foundations of Situationist thought particularly as they applied to the form of the modern city According to the Situationists the benign professionalism of architecture and design had led to a sterilization of the world that threatened to wipe out any sense of spontaneity or playfulness The Situationists hankered after the pioneer spirit of the modernist period when new ideas such as those of Marx Freud and Nietzsche still felt fresh and vital By the late fifties movements such as British and American Pop Art and French Nouveau Ralisme had become intensely interested in everyday life space and mass culture The SI aimed to convert this interest into a revolution at the level of the city itself Their principle for the reorganization of cities was simple and seductive let the citizens themselves decide what spaces and architecture they want to live in and how they wish to live in them This would instantly undermine the powers of state bureaucracy capital and imperialism thereby revolutionizing people's everyday lives Simon Sadler searches for the Situationist City among the detritus of tracts manifestos and works of art that the SI left behind The book is divided into three parts The first The Naked City outlines the Situationist critique of the urban environment as it then existed The second Formulary for a New Urbanism examines Situationist principles for the city and for city living The third A New Babylon describes actual designs proposed for a Situationist City Piranesi and the Modern Age Victor Plahte Tschudi, 2022-11-01 The complex appropriation of Piranesi by modern literature photography art film and architecture The etchings of the Italian printmaker architect and antiquarian Giovanni Battista Piranesi 1720-78 have long mesmerized viewers But as Victor Plahte Tschudi shows artists and writers of
