How to Soar with the Eagles Holmes, Duncan,Peter Legge,1991 Soar to Your Destiny Amanda H Goodson, Dr,Amanda Goodson,2013-04-20 Want to live a great life Are you willing to soar to higher heights and reach your potential on a regular basis Soaring is caught comes from the heart not taught comes from the head or bought The ability to soar has a dimension that far surpasses the human understanding to a place of peace tranquility and assurance Soaring carries power and authority in a space that cannot be questioned or controlled by others To soar means to reach new heights and peak states far above what is expected Soaring suggests that you stay there in that space for a while Soaring means something huge and far greater than one s ability or circumstances will allow under normal circumstances We are all purposed to be great Soaring to your destiny suggests reaching an end state or an end of a matter in life Purpose is what you are designed to do in life and the day to day journey is how you get to your destiny This all includes your attitude about life and the way you see through your circumstances and get in touch with the real you So when was the last time you looked in the mirror Exactly what did you see If you could see the real you then what do you look like on the inside I believe you are a winner and always have been I believe it so strongly that I would like you to also strongly believe that truth In this book I will discuss five principles to show you what I mean So stay with me This book will give you strategies and insights into how to be a winner
