Pencil Him In:

The Magic Pencil Karen E. Dabney, 2009 The Magic Pencil a powerful novel for young adults is the story of Malcolm Bakersfield and the star of his latest and greatest dream Nia Stellar Nia is the new girl at Gillespie School Malcolm quickly notices she s definitely different from all of the other kids he knows Malcolm becomes as mystified as Nia is mysterious Many wonderful things continue to happen with Nia on the scene She challenges Malc to be better than his best and he soon discovers amazing things about himself and the world We join Malcolm in his quest to discover the secret to the power of the pencil And we ll uncover hidden powers within ourselves along the way The Magic Pencil is also for the young at heart and is appreciated by all ages It is the only book explaining from a young African American boy s viewpoint that everyone speaks differently depending on their present audience and situation I wrote the book especially to attract uninspired readers and guide them toward improving literacy self esteem and problem solving There are many ways to teach and everyone must do their part I don t believe we should be aiming toward producing cookie cut children But we can all be about tailoring toward their varying needs as a COMMUNITY The Magic Pencil provides suggestions and effective strategies for positive results in an edutaining way

The Transcendentalists and Their World Robert A. Gross, 2021-11-09 One of The Wall Street Journal s 10 best books of 2021 One of Air Mail s 10 best books of 2021 Winner of the Peter J Gomes Memorial Book Prize In the year of the nation s bicentennial Robert A Gross published The Minutemen and Their World a paradigm shaping study of Concord Massachusetts during the American Revolution It won the prestigious Bancroft Prize and became a perennial bestseller Forty years later in this highly anticipated work Gross returns to Concord and explores the meaning of an equally crucial moment in the American story the rise of Transcendentalism The Transcendentalists and Their World offers a fresh view of the thinkers whose outsize impact on philosophy and literature would spread from tiny Concord to all corners of the earth Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau Nathaniel Hawthorne and the Alcotts called this New England town home and Thoreau drew on its life extensively in his classic Walden But Concord from the 1820s through the 1840s was no pastoral place fit for poets and philosophers The Transcendentalists and their neighbors lived through a transformative epoch of American life A place of two thousand plus souls in the antebellum era Concord was a community in ferment whose small ordered society founded by Puritans and defended by Minutemen was dramatically unsettled through the expansive forces of capitalism and democracy and tightly integrated into the wider world These changes challenged a world of inherited institutions and involuntary associations with a new premium on autonomy and choice They exposed people to cosmopolitan currents of thought and endowed them with unparalleled opportunities They fostered uncertainties raised new hopes stirred dreams of perfection and created an audience for new ideas of individual freedom and democratic equality deeply resonant today The Transcendentalists and Their World is both an intimate journey into the life of a community and a searching cultural study of major American writers as they plumbed the depths of the universe for spiritual truths and surveyed the rapidly changing contours of their own neighborhoods It shows us familiar figures in American literature alongside their neighbors at every level of the social order and it reveals how this common life in Concord entered powerfully into their works No American community of the nineteenth century has been recovered so richly and with so acute an awareness of its place in the larger American story

The Sewing Room Barbara Cawthorne Crafton,1997-10 In these insightful essays Barbara Cawthorne Crafton reflects on a broad range of experiences ministering among merchant seafarers the homeless the bereaved AIDS patients and others in need of personal and spiritual help She shares honestly her own emotions as she grapples with the harsh realities of the world while delighting in the humor and joy found in everyday living Crafton compassionately recounts the unique stories of the men women and children she worked with during her service as a port chaplain in New York and New Jersey and as a minister at Trinity Church on Wall Street In doing so she weaves together threads of the mundane and the traumatic the lovely and the ugly and the down to earth and the holy creating an original tapestry of the richness of life
