Caleb's Crossing Geraldine Brooks, 2011 Historical fiction based upon the life of Caleb Cheeshahteumuck a Wampanoag Indian from Martha's Vineyard Massachusetts who attended Harvard College and received his degree in 1665

Human Relationships in Shobhaa De's Novels Jabeen R. Siddiqui, Vitthal V. Parab, Shobhaa De a passionate poignant and confident writer by means of her art disseminates the idea of disgusting back for the fundamental mental rights of females She achieved success with latest burning issues faced by her characters in relationships The book explores deeply Shobhaa De's fiction and raises the mask of crimeful relations prevailing in high society of contemporary India She exposes the obscure secrets of the urban elite people and the changed picture of dilemmas to a few knows about it Through the means of literature she wanted to bring the awareness among the people and to stop the absurd circumstances ongoing in metros Although the modern life has been exhibited in the novels at the end she focuses on the Indian ethos As a feminist cum humanist she intimates the women to be self reliant independent through education and economic independence Characters in new avatars are presented This book discovers the secret behind linking of unmarried females to married males and the entrapping of young females by ineffectual males This epitome confers benefit to the youngsters to know about the side effects of premarital relationships It also exhorts the decaying of marital relationships and rise in remarriage Denying from motherhood is also viewed The reasons behind falling into extramarital affairs are outspoken New attitudes towards sex are adverted It discusses the reason of preferring homosexually by bestowing the knowledge of mental health and problems in the lives of upper class people Violence against women is also stated This book is a solution for each and every unsettled unsatisfactory relationship prevailing in contemporary society and also to the students researchers and readers to get right direction for their motives This contemplation exhibits that people live longer if they are in satisfying relationships It is an honest and sincere attempt by the authors to convey Shobhaa De s significant thoughts to the readers Libra Don DeLillo,1991-05-01 From the author of the National Book Award winning novel White Noise comes an eerily convincing fictional speculation on the events leading up to the assassination of John F Kennedy In this powerful unsettling novel Don DeLillo chronicles Lee Harvey Oswald s odyssey from troubled teenager to a man of precarious stability who imagines himself an agent of history When history presents itself in the form of two disgruntled CIA operatives who decide that an unsuccessful attempt on the life of the president will galvanize the nation against communism the scales are irrevocably tipped A gripping masterful blend of fact and fiction alive with meticulously portrayed characters both real and created Libra is a grave haunting and brilliant examination of an event that has become an indelible part of the American psyche

Flat-World Fiction Liliana M. Naydan,2021-12-15 Flat World Fiction analyzes representations of digital technology and the social and ethical concerns it creates in mainstream literary American fiction and fiction written about the United States in the first two decades of the twenty first century In this period authors such as Don DeLillo Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers Joshua Ferris Jonathan Safran Foer Mohsin Hamid Thomas Pynchon Kristen Roupenian Gary Shteyngart and Zadie Smith found themselves not only implicated in the developing digital world of flat screens but also threatened by it while simultaneously attempting to critique it As a result their texts explore how human relationships with digital devices and media transform human identity and human relationships with one another history divinity capitalism and nationality Liliana M Naydan walks us through these complex relationships revealing how authors show through their fiction that technology is political In the process these authors complement and expand on work by historians philosophers and social scientists creating accessible literary road maps to our digital future Infantry Journal ,1947 The Cumulative Book Index ,1910 A world list of books in the English language The Language of Ethics and Community in Graham Greene's Fiction Paula Martín Salvan,2016-04-29 A study of Graham Greene s fiction from the perspective of ethics and community focusing on the narrative pattern that emerges from the author s idiosyncratic use of keywords like peace despair compassion or commitment This book explores their potential for the textual articulation of narrative conflict and the dramatization of the ethical Cowboy Culture David Dary,1989 A colorful account of five centuries of cowboy culture details the life history customs status job equipment and more of the cowboy from sixteenth century Spanish Mexico to the present Möbian Nights Sandor Goodhart,2017-08-24 I died at Auschwitz French writer Charlotte Delbo asserts and nobody knows it Möbian Nights Reading Literature and Darkness develops a new understanding of literary reading that in the wake of disasters like the Holocaust death remains a premise of our experience rather than a future Challenging customary aesthetic assumptions that we write in order not to die Sandor Goodhart suggests with Kafka we write to die Drawing upon analyses developed by Girard Foucault Blanchot and Levinas along with examples from Homer to Beckett M bian Nights proposes that all literature works autobiographically which is to say in the wake of disaster with the credo I died therefore I am and for which the language of topology for example the M bius strip offers a vocabulary for naming the deep structure of such literary critical and scriptural sacrificial and anti sacrificial dynamics British Fiction and the Cold War A. Hammond,2013-09-19 This book offers a unique analysis of the wide ranging responses of British novelists to the East West conflict Hammond analyses the treatment of such geopolitical currents as communism nuclearism clandestinity decolonisation and US superpowerdom and explores the literary forms which writers developed to capture the complexities of the age Postmodern Fiction and the Break-Up of Britain Hywel Dix,2011-11-03 A monograph analysing the symbolic role played by contemporary fiction in the break up of political and cultural consensus in British public life Magical Realism in Twenty-First-Century Transnational Fiction D. Chichester,2025-09-25 Magical Realism in Twenty First Century Transnational Fiction The Global Supernatural offers a much needed re evaluation of magical realism moving beyond traditional postcolonial frameworks to explore its vibrant evolution in the 21st century Analysing the works of contemporary authors like Helen Oyeyemi Mohsin Hamid Preeta Samarasan and Junot Diaz this book explores how magical realism has been adapted to depict the complex fluid identities and experiences of migrants and their children in a globalised world By employing the psychoanalytic concept of relationality it examines the intricate interplay between cultures beliefs and personal narratives Challenging outdated notions of magic versus realism this study reveals how the supernatural is used to express the disorientation paradox and trauma of transnational lives This book is essential for anyone seeking to understand the enduring creative power of magical realism Plotting the News in the Victorian Novel Valdez Jessica R. Valdez,2020-05-01 Explores how nineteenth century novels analysed the formal and social workings of newsArgues that the concept of fake news was central to the development of the novel formDemonstrates that novelistic realism develops in tension with emerging claims to reality in the newspaper pressContributes to a new wave of scholarship on formal devices in the history of the novel made most visible by the V21 CollectiveAppeals to scholars in media literary and novel studies as well as a broader public because it traces early theorisations of news discourseDraws upon a real Victorian news story in each of the first three chapters This book shows that novelists often responded to newspapers by reworking well known events covered by Victorian newspapers in their fictions Each chapter addresses a different narrative modality and its relationship to the news Charles Dickens interrogates the distinctions between fictional and journalistic storytelling while Anthony Trollope explores novelistic bildung in serial form the sensation novels of Wilkie Collins and Mary Elizabeth Braddon locate melodrama in realist discourses whereas Anglo Jewish writer Israel Zangwill represents a hybrid minority experience At the core of these metaphors and narrative forms is a theorisation of the newspaper's influence on society      A Matter of Obscenity Christopher Hilliard, 2021-09-28 A popular story about the 1960s and 1970s holds that this was when Britain shook off the vestiges of an oppressive Victorian moralism. Many of those campaigning against censorship saw it this way. But this was also a struggle that pitted Victorian liberalism against supposedly Victorian morals. John Stuart Mill's ideas provided a way of thinking about freedom, personal autonomy and the social contract for people who otherwise had little in common with Victorian liberals. This book by Chris Hilliard of the University of Sydney will show how readers, editors, lawyers and law enforcement, politicians and philosophers grappled with questions of freedom, authority and order as a famously deferential society became increasingly pluralist. It was in the aftermath of the publication of affordable English language editions of the works of Emile Zola in the late 19th century that this essentially Victorian conflict first materialised in recognisable form. It was in 1960 when Penguin were tried for obscenity after the publication in English of the first unedited edition that this conflict reached both a crescendo and then a settlement. The book is divided into four parts, each tracing the story of a different phase in the history of obscenity law in Britain. There are also three interludes examining areas of law that came into tension with the social changes of the modern period: libel, sedition and blasphemy. The interludes place struggles over obscenity in a larger cultural context and deepen the legal analysis by exploring the conceptual and policy challenges thrown up by other common law misdemeanors and tort law      British Books, 1920      Directory of Publishing 2011 Continuum, 2010-12-02 Comprehensive trade directory of the UK publishing industry and allied book trade suppliers, associations and services      Kiplinger's Personal Finance, 1956-12 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments, taxes, money management, home ownership and many other personal finance topics      Virginia Quarterly Review, 1947,      Edna O'Brien and the Art of Fiction Maureen O'Connor, 2021-10-15 Edna O'Brien and the Art of Fiction provides an urgent retrospective consideration of one of the English-speaking world's best-selling and most prolific contemporary authors. This study considers the pioneering ways O'Brien represents women's experience, family relationships, the natural world, sex, creativity and death and her work's long anticipation of movements such as metoo.
