The Penguin Book of South African Verse Jack Cope, Uys Krige, 1968 A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century The Penguin Book of South African Verse ,1968 The Princeton Handbook of World Poetries Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, 2016-11-15 An authoritative and comprehensive guide to poetry throughout the world The Princeton Handbook of World Poetries drawn from the latest edition of the acclaimed Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of the history and practice of poetry in more than 100 major regional national and diasporic literatures and language traditions around the globe With more than 165 entries the book combines broad overviews and focused accounts to give extensive coverage of poetic traditions throughout the world For students teachers researchers poets and other readers it supplies a one of a kind resource offering in depth treatment of Indo European poetries all the major Celtic Slavic Germanic and Romance languages and others ancient Middle Eastern poetries Hebrew Persian Sumerian and Assyro Babylonian subcontinental Indian poetries Bengali Hindi Marathi Punjabi Sanskrit Tamil Urdu and more Asian and Pacific poetries Chinese Japanese Korean Vietnamese Mongolian Nepalese Thai and Tibetan Spanish American poetries those of Mexico Peru Argentina Chile and many other Latin American countries indigenous American poetries Guaran Inuit and Navajo and African poetries those of Ethiopia Somalia South Africa and other countries and including African languages English French and Portuguese Complete with an introduction by the editors this is an essential volume for anyone interested in understanding poetry in an international context Drawn from the latest edition of the acclaimed Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Provides more than 165 authoritative entries on poetry in more than 100 regional national and diasporic literatures and language traditions throughout the world Features extensive coverage of non Western poetic traditions Includes an introduction bibliographies cross references and a general index The Cambridge History of South African Literature David Attwell,Derek Attridge,2012-01-12 South Africa s unique history has produced literatures in many languages in both oral and written forms reflecting the diversity in the cultural histories and experiences of its people The Cambridge History offers a comprehensive multi authored history of South African literature in all eleven official languages and more minor ones of the country produced by a team of over forty international experts including contributors from all of the major regions and language groups of South Africa It will provide a complete portrait of South Africa s literary production organised as a chronological history from the oral traditions existing before colonial settlement to the post apartheid revision of the past In a field marked by controversy this volume is more fully representative than any existing account of South Africa s literary history It will make a unique contribution to Commonwealth international and postcolonial studies and serve as a definitive reference work for decades to come

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell,Dirk Klopper,Craig Mackenzie,2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa s history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party s policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele s call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country s literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945 African Indigenous Knowledge and the Sciences Gloria Emeagwali,Edward Shizha,2016-07-08 This book is an intellectual journey into epistemology pedagogy physics architecture medicine and metallurgy The focus is on various dimensions of African Indigenous Knowledge AIK with an emphasis on the sciences an area that has been neglected in AIK discourse The authors provide diverse views and perspectives on African indigenous scientific and technological knowledge that can benefit a wide spectrum of academics scholars students development agents and policy makers in both governmental and non governmental organizations and enable critical and alternative analyses and possibilities for understanding science and technology in an African historical and contemporary context In a Province:

Studies in the Writing of South Africa Derek Attridge, Laura Pechey, 2022-01-15 This volume brings together the most significant essays on South African literature by the distinguished critic Graham Pechey who died in 2016 They combine an acute sense of the historical and geopolitical situation of South African writing before during and after apartheid with a sensitive ear to literary detail Collected Poems Ralph Nixon Currey, 2001 R N Currey's poetry records what happens to men in war and life This is a collection of poems by the poet and writer R N Currey Born in Mafeking in 1907 R N Currey was a soldier poet and at one time a school teacher in Colchester R N Currey is a poet who has pleased poets T S Eliot told him in 1945 that his collection This Other Planet was the best war poetry I have seen in these last six years Dylan Thomas was so taken with the wit of Pelican St James's Park that he recited it from memory on a traffic island in front of the BBC just after he had met R N Currey for the first time Roy Campbell Guy Butler and Jack Cope claimed his work for South Africa The

Columbia Granger's Guide to Poetry Anthologies William A. Katz, Linda Sternberg Katz, Esther Crain, 1994 Reference guide to poetry anthologies with descriptions and evaluations of each anthology The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English Dominic Head, 2006-01-26 This illustrated and fully updated Third Edition of The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English is the most authoritative and international survey of world literature in English available The Guide covers everything from Old English to contemporary writing from all over the English speaking world There are entries on writers from Britain and Ireland the USA Canada India Africa South Africa New Zealand the South Pacific and Australia as well as on many important poems novels literary journals and plays This new edition has been brought completely up to date with more than 280 new author entries most of them for living authors The general reader will find it fascinating to browse and to discover many new writers and works while students will find it an invaluable resource for daily use This is a unique work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without The Presence of Pessoa George

Monteiro, 2021-12-14 Fernando Pessoa 1888 1935 is perhaps the most engaging of the great Western modernists of this century Born in Portugal but raised and educated in southern Africa Pessoa wrote poetry fiction and nonfiction George Monteiro provides refreshingly new interpretations of Pessoa's Mensagem Message and the modernist novella O Banqueiro Anarquista The Anarchist Banker But he is primarily interested in tracing Pessoa's influence on a wide range of contemporary writers Among those Monteiro finds putting Pessoa's work to their own surprising and sometimes comic uses are Joyce Carol Oates Allen Ginsberg John Wain Lawrence Ferlinghetti and earlier poets including Thomas Merton Edouard

Roditi and Roy Campbell In addition the complete text of Campbell s pioneering biocritical study of Pessoa is published here for the first time The Presence of Camões George Monteiro,2021-12-14 Of the great epic poets in the Western tradition Luis Vaz de Cam es c 1524 1580 remains perhaps the least known outside his native Portugal and his influence on literature in English has not been fully recognized In this major work of comparative scholarship George Monteiro thus breaks new ground focusing on English language writers whose vision and expression have been sharpened by their varied responses to Cam es Introduced to English readers in 1655 Cam es s work from the beginning appealed strongly to writers The young Elizabeth Barrett s Camonean poems for example inspired Edgar Allan Poe to appropriate elements from Cam es Herman Melville s reading of Cam es bore fruit in his career long borrowings from the Portuguese poet Longfellow T W Higginson and Emily Dickinson read and championed Cam es And Cam es as epicist and love poet is an minence grise in several of Elizabeth Bishop s strongest Brazilian poems Southern African writers have interpreted and reinterpreted Adamastor Cam es s Spirit of the Cape as both a symbol of a dangerous and mysterious Africa and an emblem of European imperialism Recognizing the presence of Cam es leads Monteiro to provocative rereadings of such texts as Dickinson s Master letters Poe s Raven Melville s late poetry and Bishop s Questions of Travel Emerging Traditions Vicki Briault Manus,2012-07-10 The monograph explores the linguistic impact of the colonial and postcolonial situations in South Africa on language policy on literary production and especially on the stylistics of fiction by indigenous South Africans writing in English A secondary concern is to investigate the present place of English in the multilingual spectrum of South African languages and to see how this worldly English relates to Global English in the South African context The introduction presents a socio linguistic overview of South Africa from pre historic times until the present including language planning policies during and after the colonial era and a cursory review of how the difficulties encountered in implementing the Language Plan provided for by the new South African constitution impinge on the development of black South African English Six chapters track the course of English in South Africa since the arrival of the British in 1795 considered from the point of view of the indigenous African population The study focuses on ways in which indigenous authors indigenize their writing innovating and subverting stylistic conventions including those of African orature in order to bend language and genre towards their own culture and objectives Each chapter corresponds to a briefly outlined historical period that is largely reflected in linguistic and literary developments A small number of significant works for each period are discussed one of which is selected for a case study at the end of each chapter where it is subjected to detailed stylistic analysis and appraised for the degree of indigenization or other linguistic or socio historic influences on style The methodology adopted is a linguistic approach to stylistics focusing on indigenization of English inspired by the work of Chantal Zabus in her book The African Palimpsest Indigenization of Language in the West African Europhone Novel 2007 1991 The conclusion reappraises the original hypothesis that the specific characteristi Routes of Passage: Rethinking the African Diaspora Ruth Simms Hamilton,2006-11-09 Routes of

Decolonisations of Literature Stefan Helgesson, 2022-04-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book sets out to understand how the meaning of literature was transformed in the Global South in the post 1945 era It looks at institutional contexts in South Africa mainly Johannesburg Brazil S o Paulo Senegal Dakar and Kenya Nairobi and engages with critical writing in English Portuguese and French Critics studied in the book include Antonio Candido Tim Couzens Isabel Hofmeyr Es kia Mphahlele L opold Senghor Taban Lo Liyong and Ngugi wa Thiong o By reading these intellectuals of the Global South as producers of theory and practice in their own right the book attempts to demonstrate the contingency of what is her called the worlding of the concept of literature Decolonisation itself is seen as a contingent non linear process that unfolds in a recursive dialogue with the past In a bid to offer a more grounded approach to world literature a key objective of this study is therefore to investigate the accumulation of temporalities in institutional histories of critical practice To reach this objective it engages the method of conceptual history as developed by Reinhart Koselleck and David Scott demonstrating how the concept of literature is resemanticised in ways that dialectically both challenge and consolidate literature as a concept and practice in post colonised societies
