The Literary Theory Handbook Shows how three important Irish writers crafted forms of cosmopolitan thinking that spring from and illuminate the painful realities of colonialism and anti colonial struggle Marjorie Howes author of Colonial Crossings Figures in Irish Literary History Asserting the simultaneity of national and global frames of reference this illuminating book is a fascinating and timely contribution to Irish Modernist Studies Geraldine Higgins author of Heroic Revivals from Carlyle to Yeats Looking at the writing of three significant Irish expatriates Nels Pearson challenges conventional critical trends that view their work as either affirming Irish anti colonial sentiment or embracing international identity In reality he argues these writers constantly work back and forth between a sense of national belonging that remains incomplete and ideas of human universality tied to their new global environments For these and many other Irish writers national and international concerns do not conflict but overlap and the interplay between them motivates Irish modernism According to Pearson Joyce s Ulysses strives to articulate the interdependence of an Irish identity and a universal perspective Bowen s exiled unrooted characters are never firmly rooted in the first place and in Beckett the unsettled origin is felt most keenly when it is abandoned for exile These writers demonstrate the displacement felt by many Irish citizens in an ever changing homeland unsteadied by long and turbulent decolonization Searching for a sense of place between national and global abstractions their work displays a twofold struggle to pinpoint national identity while adapting to a fluid cosmopolitan world
