Penkoppe van die Tweede Vryheidsoorlog, 1899-1902 Pets Marais, 1993 The Boer War John Gooch, 2013-10-23 This collection of essays by leading British and South African scholars looking at the Boer War focuses on three aspects how the British Military functioned the role of the Boers Afrikaners and Zulus and the media presentation of the war to the public

The Anglo-Boer War in 100 Objects The War Museum of the Boer Republics, 2018-07-30 The Anglo Boer War in 100 Objects brings the victories and the tragedies and the full extent of the human drama behind this war to life through 100 iconic artifacts While a Mafeking siege note helps to illustrate the acute shortages caused by the siege a spade used by a Scottish soldier at Magersfontein and the boots of a Boer soldier who died at Spion Kop tell of the severity of some of the famous battles The book follows the course of the war but also highlights specific themes such as British and Boer weaponry medical services and POW camps as well as major figures on both sides The text is interspersed with striking historical images from the museums photographic collection More than 200 additional objects have been included to help tell the story of a conflict that left an indelible mark on the South African landscape

Soldiers and Settlers in Africa, 1850-1918 Stephen Miller, 2009-09-30 The essays in this volume concentrate on imperial conflict Until recently most historians of empire have concerned themselves with economic issues More recently scholarship has turned to social and cultural aspects of Empire The role of the military however continues to be largely ignored Historians have traditionally viewed the military as an arm of the civil power an institution which did not create policy but faithfully obeyed the directives given to it These essays show that indeed the military thought for itself its officers made policy introduced new strategies and tactics and utilized the services of local settlers and indigenes to pursue the interests of empire and the rank and file informed ideas in Great Britain concerning Africa and Africans Contributors are Edward M Spiers Ian F W Beckett Bill Nasson John Laband Paul Thompson Fransjohan Pretorius Tim Stapleton Ian van der Waag James Thomas Jeffrey Meriwether and Bruce Vandervort
