Pentecostal Liturgical Theology Monte Lee Rice, 2025-02-20 This book explores how Pentecostal meaning full worship frees people into a cosmic liturgy that wills humanity to Pentecost A liturgical turn has marked recent Pentecostal studies producing a growing body of liturgical theologies This cutting edge work analyses four theologians at its forefront Tanya Riches Daniela Augustine Chris E W Green and Wolfgang Vondey It does so through a liturgy as primary theology approach which defines liturgy as the church at prayer Here Rice shows how Pentecostal experience clarifies liturgy as the church at prayer on the altar Drawing from critical discourse analysis continental philosophy and Aristotelian wisdom this incisive book proceeds by narrating a healing soteriology that makes humanity willed to the common good signified by Pentecost Working from Walter Hollenweger's insights on the ecumenical promise of Pentecostal liturgy Rice identifies inclusivity liberative spirituality Majority World epistemology gift sharing community and scholarly re oralization as apt benchmarks for Pentecostal liturgical theology This inclusive multi faceted form reveals how Occidental voices dominate the Pentecostal discourse yet conversely offers augmenting pathways toward a more globally representative theology summoning the Pentecostal academy to the altar The foremost pathway this book presents is its theology of Pentecostal meaning full worship Through the lens of liturgy as a cosmic gift economy Rice shows how Pentecostal meaning full worship frees people into a cosmic liturgy that wills humanity to Pentecost Through engaging Ricoeurian Aristotelian narrative theory this eye opening work thus climaxes with a briefly constructed Pentecostal theology of the altar It shows how Pentecostal meaning full worship fosters moral formation as worshippers place themselves on the altar of sacrifice becoming priestly partners with God fuelling the gift economy that flourishes his household till all creation be willed to Pentecost Pentecostalism.

Globalisation, and Islam in Northern Cameroon Tomas Sundnes Drønen, 2013-01-15 Pentecostalism is among the fastest growing social movements in the 21st century This volume discusses global aspects of Pentecostal churches in northern Cameroon by describing how the local congregations interact with civil society traditional religion and Islam Extensive fieldwork and descriptions of the complex historical context within which the churches emerge makes the author draw attention to Pentecostal leaders as social entrepreneurs inspired both by local traditions and by a global flow of images and ideas This indicates that Pentecostalism can be interpreted both as a social and as a religious movement which manages to encounter mainline churches and Islam with flexibility and spiritual authority Pentecostals and Nonviolence Paul

Alexander, 2012-11-09 Pentecostals and Nonviolence explores how a distinctly Pentecostal charismatic peace witness might be reinvigorated and sustained in the twenty first century To do so the book examines the nature of the early Pentecostal commitment to nonviolence and investigates the possibilities that might emerge from Pentecostals and Anabaptists entering into conversation and worship with each other Contributors engage the arguments surrounding the heritage of Pentecostal pacifism in the United States and then move toward exploring nonviolence and peacemaking as crucial for contemporary Christianity as a whole Ranging from theology testimony and pastoral ministry to interchurch relations activism and protest this diverse collection of essays challenge and invite the whole church to the task of peacemaking while exploring the distinctive and often neglected contributions from the Pentecostal charismatic tradition Intra-African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power Amos B. Chewachong, 2024-10-29 In an era when African Pentecostalism stretches its vibrant mosaic across continents Intra African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power examines the pulsating heart of this phenomenon within Africa itself The book explores the complex interplay of faith and power through the lens of Nigeria's Winners Chapel and its expansion into Cameroon What compels a movement to evangelize fervently within its own continent making it both the preacher and the audience The book exposes the reverse missionary flow to the northern hemisphere as a backdrop for a more profound story unravelling within Africa Here the mother church exerts a magnetic pull ensuring fidelity as charismatic leaders like Bishop Oyedepo maintain their spiritual gravitas It is a story not just of spirituality but of strategic moves and socio political undercurrents that shape identities and beliefs Employing rich narratives and rigorous research this book looks in depth at Winners Chapel's transnational missions highlighting the complexities of allegiance identity and the propagation of the prosperity gospel It challenges readers to see beyond conventional religious discourse into the depths where faith intersects with culture and power The book invites us to understand the multi dimensional influence of African Pentecostalism and to grasp the nuances of a faith that is transforming the continent from within The Mission of Development, 2018-05-29 The Mission of Development interrogates the complex relationships between Christian mission and international development in Asia from the 19th century to the new millennium Through historically and ethnographically grounded case studies contributors examine how missionaries have adapted to and shaped the age of development and processes of technocratisation as well as how mission and development have sometimes come to be cast in opposition The volume takes up an increasingly prominent strand in contemporary research that reverses the prior occlusion of the entanglements between religion and development It breaks new ground through its analysis of the techno politics of both development and mission and by focusing on the importance of engagements and encounters in the field in Asia
