Annual Meeting - National Council for the Social Studies National Council for the Social Studies, 1975 Aging in a Changing World Molly George, 2021-10-15 This is a story about aging in place in a world of global movement Around the world many older people have stayed still but have been profoundly impacted by the movement of others Without migrating themselves many older people now live in a far different country than the one of their memories Recently the Brexit vote and the 2016 election of Trump have re enforced prevalent stereotypes of the racist older person This book challenges simplified images of the old as racist nostalgic and resistant to change by taking a deeper more nuanced look at older people s complex relationship with the diversity and multiculturalism that has grown and developed around them Aging in a Changing World takes a look at how some older people in New Zealand have been responding to and interacting with the new multiculturalism they now encounter in their daily lives Through their unhurried micro daily interactions with immigrants they quietly emerge as agents of the very social change they are assumed to oppose World Social Science Report 2013 Changing Global Environments International Social Science Council, United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, 2013-11-15 This book represents a comprehensive overview of the field gathering the thoughts and expertise of hundreds of social scientists from around the world This edition focuses on the transformative role of the social sciences in confronting climate and broader processes of environmental change
