People Land And Community Collected Ef Schumacher Society Lectures:

People, Land, and Community E.F. Schumacher Society, 1997 Degradation of environment and community along with its economic causes has been the subject of much concern in recent years In this book some of the most respected authorities in the field discuss the historical cultural social political and economic implications of this degradation and suggest citizen initiatives that may halt it Contributors explore topics that range from agricultural reform to bioregional economics They all however focus on the importance of sustainability community healthy and locally based economies of scale education the dignity of good work and balance between human needs and the well being of the natural world The book is based on the annual lecture series sponsored by the E F Schumacher Society a series honoring the ideas that Schumacher first put forward in his classic book Small Is Beautiful Economics as if People Mattered People, Land, and Community Nancy Jack Todd, 1997-01-01 Degradation of environment and community along with its economic causes has been the subject of much concern in recent years In this book some authorities in the field discuss the historical cultural social political and economic implications of this degradation and suggest citizen initiatives that may halt it Everyday Exposure Sarah Marie Wiebe, 2016-10-13 Near the Ontario Michigan border Canada s densest concentration of chemical manufacturing surrounds the Aamjiwnaang First Nation Living in the polluted heart of Chemical Valley Indigenous community members express concern about a declining rate of male births in addition to abnormal incidences of miscarriage asthma cancer and cardiovascular and respiratory illnesses As this book reveals Canada s dark legacy of inflicting harm on Indigenous bodies persists through a system that fails to adequately address health and ecological suffering in First Nations communities like Aamjiwnaang Everyday Exposure uncovers the systemic injustices faced on a daily basis in Aamjiwnaang Exploring the problems that Canada s conflicting levels of jurisdiction pose for the creation of environmental justice policy analyzing clashes between Indigenous and scientific knowledge and documenting the experiences of Aamjiwnaang residents as they navigate their toxic environment this book argues that social and political changes require an experiential and transformative sensing policy approach one that takes the voices of Indigenous citizens seriously On Gandhi's Path Stephanie Mills, 2010-05-01 Swann Song A biography of Robert Swann father of relocalization Indigenous People and Nature Uday Chatterjee, Anil Kashyap, Mark Everard, Gopal Krishna Panda, Dinabandhu Mahata, 2022-04-08 Indigenous People and Nature Insights for Social Ecological and Technological Sustainability examines today s environmental challenges in light of traditional knowledge linking insights from geography population and environment from a wide range of regions around the globe Organized in four parts the book describes the foundations of human geography and its current research challenges the intersections between environment and cultural diversity addressing various type of ecosystem services and their interaction with the environment the impacts of sustainability practices used by indigenous culture on the ecosystem and conservation ecology and environment management Using theoretical and applied insights from local communities around the world this book helps geographers demographers environmentalists economists sociologists and urban planners tackle today's environmental problems from new perspectives Includes in depth case studies across different geographic spaces Contains contributions from a range of young to eminent scholars researchers and policymakers Highlights new insights from social science environmental science and sustainable development Synthesizes research on society ecology and technology with sustainability all in a single resource Extending Schumacher's Concept of Total Accounting and Accountability into the 21st Century Kala Saravanamuthu, 2009-03-23 Intends to posit Schumacher's Middle Way thinking in the context of growing concerns about global warming and climatic changes and teases out its implications for holistic accountability by introducing readers to the science of climate change and its implications for managing natural resources

Correction Lines Curt Meine, 2013-04-10 The last fifteen years have been a period of dramatic change both in the world at large and within the fields of ecology and conservation The end of the Cold War the dot com boom and bust the globalizing economy and the attacks of September 11 among other events and trends have reshaped our worldview and the political environment in which we find ourselves At the same time emerging knowledge needs and opportunities have led to a rapid evolution in our understanding of the scientific foundations and social context of conservation Correction Lines is a new collection of essays from one of our most thoughtful and eloquent writers on conservation putting these recent changes into perspective and exploring the questions they raise about the past present and future of the conservation movement The essays explore interrelated themes the relationship between biological and social dimensions the historic tension between utilitarian and preservationist approaches the integration of varied cultural perspectives the enduring legacy of Aldo Leopold the contrasts and continuities between conservation and environmentalism the importance of political reform and the need to retool conservation to address twentyfirst century realities Collectively the essays assert that we have reached a critical juncture in conservation a correction line of sorts Correction Lines argues that we need a more coherent and comprehensive account of the past if we are to understand our present circumstances and move forward under unprecedented conditions Meine brings together a deep sense of history with powerful language and compelling imagery yielding new insights into the origins and development of contemporary conservation Correction Lines will help us think more clearly about the forces that have changed and are changing conservation and inspire us to address current realities and future needs Environment Glenn Adelson, James Engell, Kevin P. Van Anglen, Brent Ranalli, 2008-01-01 This major anthology is the first to apply a fully interdisciplinary approach to environmental studies A comprehensive guide to environmental literacy the book demonstrates how the sciences social sciences and humanities all contribute to understanding our interrelationships with the natural world Though not specialized Environment is a book that even specialists can learn from Ten innovative case studies climate shock species endangerment nuclear power biotechnology sustainable development deforestation environmental security globalization wilderness and the urban environment are followed by readings from specific disciplines These can be integrated with the case studies to shape individual interests and teaching strategies The volume presents an imaginative array of texts from scientific papers to poetry legal decisions to historical accounts personal essays to economic analysis Taken together these selections provide a balanced authoritative and up to date treatment of key issues in environmental studies

Thomas Jefferson R. B. Bernstein, 2005-09-15 In this definitive short biography Bernstein deftly synthesizes the massive scholarship on his subject into an insightful evenhanded account illuminating Jefferson's central place in the American Enlightenment Book jacket

The Paradise of God Norman Wirzba, 2003-09-11 And God said Let us make man in our image after our likeness and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of the air and over the cattle and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth Gen 1 26 It has become a commonplace that Biblical religion bears a heavy share of responsibility for our destruction of the environment and this passage from the King James version of the Bible exemplifies what is generally believed to be the Biblical attitude toward the earth In this provocative book however Norman Wirzba argues that the doctrine of creation when understood as a statement about the moral and spiritual meaning of the world actually holds the key to a true understanding of our place in the environment and our responsibility toward it Wirzba contends that an adequate response to environmental destruction depends on a new formulation of ourselves as part of a created whole rather than as autonomous unencumbered individuals Drawing on the work of biblical scholars ecologists agrarians philosophers theologians and cultural critics Wirzba develops a comprehensive worldview that grows out of the idea that the world is God's creation While the text of Genesis has historically encouraged a vision of persons as masters of creation a more theologically and ecologically sensitive rendering he says would be to say that we are servants of creation Our present culture Wirzba believes results from a denial of creation that has caused modern problems as diverse as rootlessness individualism careerism boredom and consumerism The recovery of the meaning of creation can lead to a renewed sense of human identity and vocation and happier more peaceful lives He concludes by offering practical advice for individuals who wish to begin the work of transformation and renewal Moving beyond the usual political debates The Paradise of God presents a compelling vision of a new religious environmentalism

A Metaphoric Mind Joseph E. Couture, 2013 Dr Joseph Couture 1930 2007 known affectionately as Dr Joe stood at the centre of some of the greatest political social and intellectual struggles of Aboriginal peoples in contemporary Canada A profound thinker and writer as well as a gifted orator he easily walked two paths as a respected Elder and traditional healer and as an educational psychologist one of the first Aboriginal people in Canada to receive a PhD His work challenged and transformed long held views of Canada's Indigenous peoples and his vision and leadership gave direction to many of the current fields of Aboriginal scholarship His influence extended into numerous areas education addictions and mental health treatment community development restorative justice and federal correctional programming for Aboriginal peoples With a foreword by Aboriginal rights activist Lewis Cardinal A Metaphoric Mind brings together for the first time key works selected from among Dr Joe s writings published and unpublished Spanning nearly thirty years the essays invite us to share in his transformative legacy through a series of encounters with Aboriginal spirituality and ancestral ways of knowing with Elders and their teachings with education and its role in politicization self determination and social change and with the restorative process and the meaning of Native healing Shaped by his social science training but also by his apprenticeship in Medicine Ways his writings allow us to experience the richness and power of fully functional Indigenous culture

Spiritual Perspectives on Globalization \(2nd Edition\) Ira Rifkin, 2013-03-21 What is globalization anyway What are spiritually minded people on all sides of the issue doing and saying about it The economic and cultural dynamic of globalization is transforming the world at an unprecedented pace But what exactly is it What are its origins What is its impact on our spiritual lives This lucid introduction surveys the religious landscape explaining in clear and nonjudgmental language the beliefs that motivate spiritual leaders activists theologians academics and others involved on all sides of the issue Included are the points of view of Bah s Buddhists Earth based and tribal religions Hindus Jews Muslims Protestants Roman Catholics Unlike other books on this controversial issue this easy to read introduction won t tell you what to think it gives you the information you need to reach your own conclusions As important as economics may be it is not as the great religions stress the full measure of humanity There is also connection to self to others to the ingrained values that have sustained cultures for generations and millennia and to the belief in transcendence that gives it all meaning In the end what unnerves people most about globalization including many in the West who may fairly be said to be on the winning side economically that is of the process so far is the threat it poses to that which is most precious to a life of satisfaction our sense of meaning from the Conclusion

Greening the Children of God Chad Michael Rimmer, 2021-01-01 Greening the Children of God uncovers the theological roots of the growing ethical imperative to reconnect children to their natural environment In their different traditions theologians environmental educators and psychologists all affirm that knowing their place in the natural environment helps a child develop an intersubjective ecological identity that nurtures virtues of mutuality and care During the Scientific Revolution this ethical harmony was threatened as science and moral theology began to adopt different epistemological methods something the Anglican priest and poet Thomas Traherne was all too aware of Traherne insisted that education should promote a child's attention to the moral dimensions woven into the tapestry of creation and professed that play wonder and a sensory relationship to diverse creatures play a pedagogical role in a child's moral formation Greening the Children of God establishes the contemporary significance of Traherne's moral theory in conversation with child psychologists educators philosophers and theologians who know that cultivating a place based relationship to the local ecology helps children perceive creation's deep mutuality and develop a moral identity in the image of a caring Creator Encyclopedia of Social Theory George Ritzer,2004-08-11

Honor the Earth Phil Bellfy,2022 The Great Lakes Basin is under severe ecological threat from fracking bursting pipelines sulfide mining abandonment of government environmental regulation invasive species warming and lowering of the lakes etc This book presents essays on Traditional Knowledge Indigenous Responsibility and how Indigenous people governments and NGOs are responding to the environmental degradation which threatens the Great Lakes This volume grew out of a conference that was held on the campus of Michigan State University on Earth Day 2007 All of the essays have been updated and revised for this book Among the presenters were Ward Churchill author and activist Joyce Tekahnawiiaks King Director Akwesasne Justice Department Frank Ettawageshik Executive Director of the United Tribes of Michigan Aaron

Payment Chair of the Sault Sainte Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians and Dean Sayers Chief of the Batchewana First Nation Winona LaDuke author activist twice Green Party VP candidate also contributed to this volume Adapted from the Introduction by Dr Phil Belfy The elements of the relationship that the Great Lakes ancient peoples had with their environment developed over the millennia was based on respect for the natural landscape pure and simple The original people of this area not only maintained their lives they thrived within the natural boundaries established by their relationship with the natural world In today s vocabulary it may be something as simple as an understanding that if human beings take care of the environment the environment will take care of them The entire relationship can be summarized as harmony and balance based on respect Reconciliation, Transitional and Indigenous Justice Krushil Watene, Eric Palmer, 2020-05-21 Reconciliation Transitional and Indigenous Justice presents fifteen reflections upon justice twenty years after the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of South Africa introduced a new paradigm for political reconciliation in settler and post colonial societies The volume considers processes of political reconciliation appraising the results of South Africa s Commission of the recently concluded Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada and of the on going process of the Waitangi Tribunal of Aotearoa New Zealand Contributors discuss the separate politics of Indigenous resurgence linguistic justice environmental justice and law Further contributors present a theoretical symposium focused on The Conceptual Foundations of Transitional Justice authored by Colleen Murphy who provides a response to their comments Indigenous and non Indigenous voices from four regions of the world are represented in this critical assessment of the prospects for political reconciliation for transitional justice and for alternative nascent conceptions of just politics Radically challenging assumptions concerning sovereignty and just process in the current context of settler colonial states Reconciliation Transitional and Indigenous Justice will be of great interest to scholars of Ethics Indigenous Studies Transitional Justice and International Relations more broadly With the addition of one chapter from The Round Table the chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue in the Journal of Global Ethics The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies Bernadette Flanagan, Kerri Clough, 2024-09-03 The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies provides the first authoritative overview of methodology in this growing field Against the background of the pandemic and other global challenges spirituality is expanding as an agreed term with which to discuss the efforts people make to be fully present to deeper invisible dimensions of their personal identity and external reality but until now there have been few resources exploring the different methodological approaches researchers take This book explores the primary methodologies emerging First Person Second Person and Third Person and provides a systematisation of spirituality research in applied contexts for the first time Comprising 33 chapters by a team of international contributors the book is divided into seven parts Foundations Approaches to Contemplative Research Contemplative Research in Education Contemplative Research in Work and Leadership Contemplative Research in Science

Health and Healing Contemplative Research in Social Sciences Contemplative Research and the Way Forward The Handbook provides readers practitioners and policymakers with methods and approaches which can facilitate a spiritual and contemplative stance in research activities It is an essential resource for researchers and students of Religion Spirituality and Research Methods In the Way of Development Mario Blaser,Harvey A. Feit,Glenn McRae,2004 Authored as a result of a remarkable collaboration between indigenous people s own leaders other social activists and scholars from a wide range of disciplines this volume explores what is happening today to indigenous peoples as they are enmeshed almost inevitably in the remorseless expansion of the modern economy and development at the behest of the pressures of the market place and government It is particularly timely given the rise in criticism of free market capitalism generally as well as of development The volume seeks to capture the complex power laden often contradictory features of indigenous agency and relationships It shows how peoples do not just resist or react to the pressures of market and state but also initiate and sustain life projects of their own which embody local history and incorporate plans to improve their social and economic ways of living

Grounded Vision William H. Major,2011-04-13 In Grounded Vision William Major puts contemporary agrarian thinking into a conciliatory and productive dialogue with academic criticism He argues that the lack of participation in academic discussions means a loss to both agrarians and academics since agrarian thought can enrich other ongoing discussions on topics such as ecocriticism postmodernism feminism work studies and politics especially in light of the recent upsurge in grassroots cultural and environmental activities critical of modernity such as the sustainable agriculture and slow food movements
