People Who Led To My Plays:

People who Led to My Plays Adrienne Kennedy, 1996-07 A magical scrapbook of words pictures and memories capturing the life of a middle class black girl growing up in the Midwest in the 1930s and 40s aspiring to be a writer Adrienne Kennedy here explores the far ranging influences on her startlingly original plays from Vincent Van Gogh to Tennessee Williams Jane Eyre to Blood Wedding Lena Horne to Richard Wright Georgia to Ghana

Unmaking Mimesis Elin Diamond, 2003-09-02 In Unmaking Mimesis Elin Diamond interrogates the concept of mimesis in relation to feminism theatre and performance She combines psychoanalytic semiotic and materialist strategies with readings of selected plays by writers as diverse as Ibsen Brecht Aphra Behn Caryl Churchill and Peggy Shaw Through a series of provocative readings of theatre theory and feminist performance she demonstrates the continuing force of feminism and mimesis in critical thinking today Unmaking Mimesis will interest theatre scholars and performance and cultural theorists for all of whom issues of text representation and embodiment are of compelling concern

Autobiographical Inscriptions Barbara Ruth Rodriguez, 1999 As life writing began to attract critical attention in the 1950s and 60s theorists critics and practitioners of autobiography concerned themselves with inscribing that is establishing or asserting a set of conventions that would define constructions of identity and acts of self representation More recently however scholars have identified the ways in which autobiographical works recognize and resist those conventions Moving beyond the narrow prescriptive definition of autobiography as the factual chronological first person narrative of the life story critics have theorized the genre from postmodern and feminist perspectives Autobiographical Inscriptions contributes a theory of autobiography by women writers of color to this lively repositioning of identity studies Barbara Rodriguez breaks new ground in the field with a discussion of the ways in which innovations of form and structure bolster the arguments for personhood articulated by Harriet Jacobs Zora Neale Hurston Hisaye Yamamoto Maxine Hong Kingston Leslie Marmon Silko Adrienne Kennedy and Cecile Pineda Rodriguez maps the intersections of form and structure with issues of race and gender in these women's works Central to the autobiographical act and to the representation of the self in language these intersections mark the ways in which the American woman writer of color comments on the process of subject construction as she produces original forms for the life story In each chapter Rodriguez pairs canonized texts with less well known works reading autobiographical works across cultural contexts and historical periods and even across artistic media By raising crucial questions about structure Autobiographical Inscriptions analyzes the ways in which these texts also destabilize notions of race and gender The result is a remarkable analysis of the seemingly endless range of formal strategies available to adopted and adapted by the American woman writer of color

THESE ARE MY PLAYS JOHAN JAAFFAR, 2014. The Value of Names and Other Plays Jeffrey

Sweet, 2008-05-14. In this collection of plays, the playwright confronts both personal politics and the impact of historical change. The title work, first mounted in 1982, is a comedy drama about the aftermath of the blacklist, whose continued relevance makes it a frequently produced play today. The family drama Porch suggests larger social changes through the interaction of a small town shopkeeper and his defiant daughter. The lauded American Enterprise, set in the Chicago of the robber barons, is a song-filled true story about a millionaire whose stubborn idealism leads to disaster. Stay till morning is a rueful comedy about sex and accommodation in the Florida Keys. The three plays that grew out of his fascination with the effects of World War II—Berlin 45, Court martial at Fort Devens, and The action against Sol Schumann—dramatize the ways in which that conflict transformed private fates. Each script is accompanied by an introduction from the playwright as well as performance notes. Three Plays for Puritans Bernard Shaw, 1906. Journal of Dramatic Theory and Criticism, 2004.

We experienced laughter, love, and loss with these women. But how did they begin their acting careers? Who were the first Black actresses who paved the way? What are their defining moments? What effects did racial prejudice have on their careers? Supreme Actresses remembers and celebrates the groundbreaking women who have been influencing culture for decades, reshaping the very

Conversations on Contemporary Drama Clayton Meeker Hamilton, 1924 The Strand Magazine , 1912 The University of Missouri Studies , 1928 Help My People Lead! Joseph Lacroix, 2022-02-14 The desire to create this book began in 1985 when the words Help My People were whispered in the author s ear That began a thirty five year journey to determine what was meant by that phrase It happened once more about ten years later In the meantime the author and his wife as well as others proceeded to create a consulting firm that helped client organizations do a better job to create the kind of organization culture the frontline workers mostly said they wanted The consulting business prospered and the author thought for sure he was the one that the whisper was meant to help change in his dealings with his clients That all changed The word my shifted to the center of the RGBProZone a productivity zone comprised of groups that surround an individual capable of influencing others in a positive way because they think differently thus filling voids The meaning shifted from the one who had whispered in the author s ear that day in 1985 to everyone having influence over others backed by authority or reciprocal trust in the direction they were headed The my pertained to the husband and the wife the parent and children managers workers neighbors and those with authority and those without This book traces the step by step process used to begin where you are and never end It is the over thirty five year history of the author and his family friends associates and clients It begins anew with a new whisper that inspires Most importantly it contains a process that shifts the responsibility for change from the driver to include the driven From organization leadership to those who work together for mutual success Included is a ten stage one to three year time line to help create a new reality
