People and Civilizations John M. Thompson, Kathleen Hedberg, 1977 A People's History of Civilization John Zerzan, 2018-04-10 The American anarchist primitivist philosopher and author John Zerzan critiques agriculture based civilization as inherently oppressive and advocates drawing upon the life of hunter gatherers as an inspiration for what free society should look like Subjects of his criticism include domestication language symbolic thought and the concept of time This book includes sixteen essays ranging from the beginning of civilization to today's general crisis Zerzan provides a critical perspective about civilization A People's History of Civilization includes chapters about Patriarchy The City and its Inmates War Enters the Picture The Bronze Age The Axial Age The Crisis of Late Antiquity Revolt and Heresy Modernity Takes Charge Who Killed Ned Ludd Cultural Luddism Industrialism and Resistance Decadence WWI Civilization's Pathological Endgame In recent years John Zerzan co editor of Black and Green Review has successfully toured Europe to speak from his primitivist perspective regarding contemporary civilization Zerzan calls Eugene Oregon World History Steven Wallech, Touraj Daryaei, Craig Hendricks, Anne Lynne Negus, Peter P. Wan, Gordon Morris Bakken, 2013-01-22 World History A Concise Thematic Analysis presents the highly anticipated second edition of the most affordable and accessible survey of world history designed for use at the college level An engaging narrative that contextualizes history and does not drown students in a sea of facts Offers a comparative analysis of the great civilizations of Eurasia Africa and the Americas Addresses themes of population dynamics food production challenges disease history warfare and other major issues for civilizations Features new interior design and organization to enhance user experience Instructor's test bank available online at <http://www.wiley.com/go/wallech> The ^Atlantic in World History Karen Ordahl Kupperman, 2012-08-08 The Atlantic in World History tells the story of the emergence of an integrated Atlantic world after 1492 and the way lives on all four continents were transformed Novel products especially foods made lives better but intensive labor systems especially slavery ruined many lives Plantation agriculture and intensified trade fed industrial processes and led to modern economic and political regimes Western Civilization in World History Peter N. Stearns, 2008-01-28 Western Civilization in World History takes up the recent debates between the well established Western Civ approach and the newer field of world history Stearns reviews and analyzes key aspects of Western civilization in a global context Mexico in World History William H. Beezley, 2011-09-29 Drawing on materials ranging from archaeological findings to recent studies of migration issues and drug violence William H Beezley provides a dramatic narrative of human events as he recounts the story of Mexico in the context of world history Beginning with the Mayan and Aztec civilizations and their brutal defeat at the hands of the Conquistadors Beezley discusses Spain's three hundred year colonial rule foreign invasions and huge territorial losses at the hands of the United States and conditions in Mexico today The ^ASilk Road in World History Xinru Liu, 2010-07-09 The Silk Road was the contemporary name for a complex of ancient trade routes linking East Asia with Central Asia South

Asia and the Mediterranean world Using demand and supply as the framework for analyzing the formation and development of the Silk Road this book will examine the dynamics of the interactions of the nomadic pastoralists with sedentary agriculturalists and the spread of new ideas religions and values into the world of commerce thus illustrating the cultural forces underlying material transactions This effort at tracing the interconnections of the diverse participants in the transcontinental Silk Road exchange will demonstrate that the world had been linked through economic and ideological forces long before the modern era

Iran in World History Richard C. Foltz, 2016 One of the world s most ancient and enduring civilizations Iran has long played a central role in human events and continues to do so today This book traces the spread of Iranian culture among diverse populations ranging from the Mediterranean to the Indian Ocean and along the Silk Roads as far as China from prehistoric times up to the present day From paradise gardens and Persian carpets to the mystical poetry of Rumi and Hafez Iran s contributions have earned it a place among history s greatest and most influential civilizations Encompassing the fields of religion literature and the arts politics and higher learning this book provides a holistic history of this important culture

World History Eric Vanhaute, 2013-07-24 World History An Introduction provides readers with the knowledge and tools necessary to understand the global historical perspective and how it can be used to shed light on both our past and our present A concise and original guide to the concepts methods debates and contents of world history it combines a thematic approach with a clear and ambitious focus Each chapter traces connections with the past and the present to explore major questions in world history How did humans evolve from an endangered species to the most successful of them all How has nature shaped human history How did agricultural societies push human history in a new direction How has humankind organized itself in ever more complex administrative systems How have we developed new religious and cultural patterns How have the paths of The West and The Rest diverged over the last five centuries How at the same time has the world become more interconnected and globalized How is this world characterized by growing gaps in wealth poverty and inequality Sharp and accessible Eric Vanhaute s introduction to this exciting field demonstrates that world history is more of a perspective than a single all encompassing narrative an instructive new way of seeing thinking and doing It is an essential resource for students of history in a global context

World History: Cultures, States, and Societies to 1500 Eugene Berger, George Israel, Charlotte Miller, Brian Parkinson, Andrew Reeves, Nadejda Williams, 2023-11-27 World History Cultures States and Societies to 1500 is an insightful collection that traverses the rich tapestry of human history up to the medieval period Through an array of literary styles the anthology captures the complexity and diversity of ancient and early medieval civilizations The works in this volume offer a profound exploration of global interconnectedness long before the advent of modern globalization Standout pieces provide introspective views into the cultural mores societies and governmental structures of influential civilizations such as the Mesopotamians Egyptians and Mayans while elucidating overarching themes of societal evolution and cross cultural exchanges The anthology s contributors including Eugene Berger

George Israel Charlotte Miller Brian Parkinson Andrew Reeves and Nadejda Williams are distinguished historians and scholars whose diverse backgrounds and expertise are woven into the narrative Each author draws upon historical cultural and literary movements that shaped the ages they dissect bringing a multidimensional perspective to this comprehensive compilation The collective contributions underscore the complexities of each culture and state resulting in a harmonized yet multifaceted record of world history that aligns with contemporary scholarly efforts to present a more interconnected view of early human societies This anthology is an indispensable resource for readers eager to dive into the vast expanse of world history and experience the undulating dialogue of civilizations through a single volume It offers a rare opportunity to explore a confluence of perspectives and styles illuminating a unified narrative while celebrating the diversity intrinsic to historical study By engaging with these works readers will enrich their understanding of how disparate societies have shaped and have been shaped by the world we inhabit today

21st-Century Narratives of World History R.
