People Who Have Stolen from Me David Cohen, 2005 Brothers in law Harry and Jack run a Johannesburg furniture business that is being robbed repeatedly The investigation of the crime reveals that the perpetrators lie even closer than the proprietors expected and explores also how the social forces at work in South Africa today have made crime the country's biggest growth industry Written on the tenth anniversary of the fall of apartheid People Who Have Stolen From Me describes a nation in the throes of rebuilding itself through the eyes of two witty perceptive men Transnational Whiteness Matters Aileen Moreton-Robinson, Maryrose Casey, Fiona Nicoll, 2008-12-16 The collection contributes to transnational whiteness debates through theoretically informed readings of historical and contemporary texts by established and emerging scholars in the field of critical whiteness studies From a wide range of disciplinary perspectives the book traces continuity and change in the cultural production of white virtue within texts from the proud colonial moment through to neoliberalism and the global war on terror in the twenty first century Read together these chapters convey a complex understanding of how transnational whiteness travels and manifests itself within different political and cultural contexts Some chapters address political legal and constitutional aspects of whiteness while others explore media representations and popular cultural texts and practices The book also contains valuable historical studies documenting how whiteness is insinuated within the texts produced circulated and reproduced in specific cultural and national locations Johannesburg Lizzie Williams, 2007 In the past year Johannesburg has made enormous strides in creating a safe dynamic city which has won two awards from the British Guild of Travel Writers This pocket sized guide will give confidence to business and holiday travellers wanting to make the most of a visit to the major sites as well as Johannesburg's other attractions including excellent museums telling the story of South Africa's turbulent history markets which sell cheeses and Cape wineland produce art galleries showcasing local painting as well as bohemian cafés which personify the Rainbow Nation The Book Review Digest, 2004 Money from Nothing Deborah James, 2014-11-19 Money from Nothing explores the dynamics surrounding South Africa's national project of financial inclusion dubbed banking the unbanked which aimed to extend credit to black South Africans as a critical aspect of broad based economic enfranchisement Through rich and captivating accounts Deborah James reveals the varied ways in which middle and working class South Africans access to credit is intimately bound up with identity status making and aspirations of upward mobility She draws out the deeply precarious nature of both the aspirations and the economic relations of debt which sustain her subjects revealing the shadowy side of indebtedness and its potential to produce new forms of oppression and disenfranchisement in place of older ones Money from Nothing uniquely captures the lived experience of indebtedness for those many millions who attempt to improve their positions or merely sustain existing livelihoods in emerging economies The Nation, 2004 Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson, 2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year Arts & Culture Philip Harrison,2005 South Africa is a remarkable land of extraordinary beauty a rich and colorful tapestry of diverse cultures and endless vistas that simply beg to be explored Borrowed Land, Stolen Labor, and the Holy Spirit Diane T. Feldman,2025-07-15 Borrowed Land Stolen Labor and the Holy Spirit The Struggle for Power and Equality in Holmes County Mississippi chronicles the profound history of a low income county that became a pivotal site for Delta organizing during the civil rights movement Landowning African American farmers who enjoyed more economic independence than sharecroppers emerged as the grassroots leaders of the movement The volume begins with the county s Native American heritage moving through the periods of removal land sales to speculators the rapid increase of enslaved labor in the nineteenth century and early African American political engagement during Reconstruction Author Diane T Feldman explores how African Americans fostered cooperative landownership efforts in the 1880s and 1920s alongside the development of schools and churches particularly the Church of God in Christ a denomination founded in Holmes County The fight for voting rights started with African American farmers in the 1950s and gained momentum with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in the 1960s Their struggle to desegregate schools culminated in the landmark Supreme Court case Alexander v Holmes which abolished dual school systems in the South The final chapters cover the past sixty years and current initiatives to restore food production in the Mississippi Delta Enriched with recent and historic photographs this volume serves as a microhistory of a single county illuminating broader themes prevalent throughout Mississippi and the rural South From Industrial Organization to Entrepreneurship Erik E.
