

OLD MONEY

The Old Money look is classic, conservative, and understated, emphasising high-quality, timeless pieces over flashy logos or trends. Think cashmere sweaters, loafers, tailored blazers, and pearls.

Analysis

Neutrals, earth tones, and muted colours dominate, avoiding anything overly vibrant or attention-seeking.

This reflects a preference for subtle elegance over extravagance.

Old Money values modesty and privacy, often marked by a reserved demeanour. Expressions of affluence are subtle. Members of this subculture often prioritise refined manners, patience, and an ability to navigate high-society events gracefully.

PRESTIGE

Social media engagement tends to be limited, with online presence being managed or kept discreet. There is an emphasis on investing in quality over quantity.

Common interests include classical music, reading, horseback riding, sailing, golf, and art collecting—activities rooted in tradition and exclusivity.

Preferred media is often linked to high culture, like classic literature, historical dramas, or documentaries.

POISE

Old Money circles tend to gather in private clubs, country estates, or specific high-status neighbourhoods.
