Roger De la Harpe, Sue Derwent

Peoples Of The South A Visual Celebration Of South Africas Indigenous Cultures:

Peoples of the South Roger De la Harpe, Sue Derwent, 2001 This is a celebration of the rich diversity of the South African peoples and the various traditions beliefs and customs that have contributed to the making of this multicultural nation In this extraordinary portfolio author Sue Derwent and photographers Roger and Pat de la Harpe explore the many faces and cultures that make up this remarkable landscape From the Sotho and Nguni to the Shangaan Tsonga and Venda many of these ancient cultures and lifestyles are still maintained and nurtured according to the conventions established by their ancestors over the centuries The complexity of language the timelessness of ritual and the inherent skill reflected in indigenous craft are all integral to traditional African culture and the inspirational images captured here honour the ancient traditions among them arts and crafts spiritual belief and customs of their ancestors and the rich tapestry that remains their legacy

Visual Redress in Africa from Indigenous and New Materialist Perspectives Elmarie Costandius, Gera de Villiers, 2023-06-20 Through an indigenous and new materialist thinking approach this book discusses various examples in Africa where colonial public art statues signs and buildings were removed or changed after countries independence An African perspective on these processes will bring new understandings and assist in finding ways to address issues in other countries and continents These often unresolved issues attract much attention but finding ways of working through them requires a deeper and broader approach Contributors propose an African indigenous knowledge perspective in relation to new materialism as alternative approaches to engage with visual redress and decolonisation of spaces in an African context Authors such as Frantz Fanon Ngugi Wa Thiong'o and George Dei will be referred to regarding indigenous knowledge decolonisation and Africanisation and Karen Barad Donna Haraway and Rosi Braidotti regarding new materialism The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture heritage studies African studies and architecture

Culture and Rural-Urban Revitalisation in South Africa Mziwoxolo Sirayi, Modimowabarwa Kanyane, Giulio Verdini, 2021-06-14 This book captures ground breaking attempts to utilise culture in territorial development and regeneration processes in the context of South Africa and our new normal brought by COVID 19 the fourth industrial revolution and climate change the world over The importance of culture in rural urban revitalisation has been underestimated in South Africa and the African continent at large Despite some cultural initiatives that are still at developmental stages in big cities such as Johannesburg eThekweni and Cape Town there is concern about the absence of sustainable policies and plans to support culture creativity and indigenous knowledge at national and municipal levels Showcasing alternative strategies for making culture central to development this book discusses opportunities to shift culture and indigenous knowledge from the peripheries and place them at the epicentre of sustainable development and the mainstream of cultural planning which can then be applied in the contexts of Africa and the Global South Governmental institutions research councils civil society organisations private sector and higher education institutions come together in a joint effort to explain the nexus between culture economic development rural urban linkages grassroots and technological innovations Culture and Rural Urban Revitalization in South Africa is an ideal read for those interested in rural and urban planning cultural policy indigenous knowledge and smart rural village model South African Visual Culture Jeanne Van Eeden, Amanda Du Preez, 2005 This title argues that because we are so immersed in visual imagery we need to be able to engage with it critically The authors show in various ways that the visibility of contemporary culture can be seen as one of the primary carriers of ideas The African Book Publishing Record, 2006 Democracy X Andries Oliphant, Peter Delius, Lalou Meltzer, 2021-11-15 This book is a catalogue and a reader It is the companion to the exhibition Democracy X held in Cape Town 2004 It also explores a range of historical cultural and political matters around the 10th anniversary of the new democratic South Africa Richly illustrated this book includes essays of eminent writers about topics such as the Boer War the Iron Age ethnic politics nationalism film and popular media African Cultures, Visual Arts, and the Museum Tobias Döring, 2002 From the contents Christine MATZKE Comrades in arts and arms stories of wars and watercolours from Eritrea Sabine MARSCHALL Positioning the other reception and interpretation of contemporary black South African artists Kristine ROOME The art of liberating voices contemporary South African art exhibited in New York Jonathan ZILBERG Shona sculpture and documenta 2002 reflections on exclusions Visual Cultures of Africa Mary Clare Kidenda, Lize Kriel, Ernst Wagner, 2022-04-06 The voices in this book offer a multi perspectival approach to Africa focusing on the skills and the knowledge underpinning visual cultural expressions ranging from Akan symbolism to embodied performances by dancers and storytellers even re designed models of Western cars Educators designers artists critics curators and custodians based both in Africa and in Europe are configuring spaces for public private institutional as well as digital conversation whether through pottery or portraiture furniture or film shoes or selfies buildings or books Readers are encouraged to question how African visual cultures are both in and of identifying and confrontational post and decolonial preserved and practised old and new borrowed and authentic composite and complete rooted and soaring Disciplines being engaged include visual culture studies media studies performance studies orature literature art and design as well as their histories The editors Mary Clare Kidenda Lize Kriel and Ernst Wagner represent three nodes in the Exploring Visual Cultures north south collaborative network The Technical University of Kenya the University of Pretoria in South Africa and Munich Academy of Fine Arts in Germany The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and the Media in the 21st Century Lorna-Jane Richardson, Andrew Reinhard, Nicole Smith, 2024-06-20 The Routledge Handbook of Archaeology and the Media in the 21st Century presents diverse international perspectives on what it means to be an archaeologist and to conduct archaeological research in the age of digital and mobile media This volume analyses the present day use of new and old media by professional and academic archaeology for leisure academic study and or public engagement and attempts to provide a broad survey of the use of media in a wider global archaeological context It features work on traditional paper media radio podcasting film television consolidating our nascent democracy and in facilitating the transformation of South African society Contributors to this edited volume interrogate the role of arts culture and heritage from a transdisciplinary perspective enriched by the cross generational perspectives offered by young and older artists cultural practitioners activists and scholars Authors also offer some policy recommendations on how the contribution of arts and culture to social cohesion and nation building can be enhanced

A Homeric Catalogue of Shapes Charlayn von Solms,2019-11-14 In the popular imagination Homer as author of the Iliad and the Odyssey epitomises poetic genius So when scholars proposed that the Homeric epics were not the unique creation of an individual author but instead reflected a traditional compositional system developed by generations of singer poets swathes of assumptions about the poems and their author were swept aside and called into question Much had to be re evaluated through a new lens The creative process described by scholars for the Homeric epics shares many key attributes with the modern visual art forms of collage and its less familiar variant sculptural assemblage A Homeric Catalogue of Shapes describes a series of twelve sculptures that together function as an abstract portrait of Homer not a depiction of him as an individual but as a compositional system The technique by which the artworks were produced reflects the poetic method that scholars termed oral formulaic In both of these creative processes the artwork is constructed from pre existing elements such as phrases characters and plot lines in the epics and objects fragmented items and borrowed forms in the sculptures The artist author presents a largely unknown characterisation of Homeric poetics in a manner that emphasizes the extent and complexity of this Homer s artistry

Indigenous Systems, Colonialism, Colonial Legacies, and Africa's Economic Challenges Stephen Onyango Ouma,2025-08-20 This book is an exploration of Africa s enduring struggles and immense potential It examines the historical roots of Africa s socio economic challenges from the disruption of indigenous systems to the lasting effects of colonialism and neo colonialism By blending African philosophical perspectives with incisive critiques of globalization and governance it provides a fresh and compelling analysis of the continent s path toward true sovereignty and sustainable development Rich with historical depth and philosophical insight this work challenges conventional narratives about African development and offers innovative strategies for breaking free from dependency on global capitalist systems With its interdisciplinary approach and forward looking solutions this book is an essential resource for scholars policymakers and anyone invested in Africa s transformation

At the Intersection of Indigenous and Traditional Knowledge and Technology Design Nicola Bidwell,Heike Winschiers-Theophilus,2015 There is intensified interest in designing information and communication technologies ICTs that respond to ways of doing knowing and saying that differ from those that dominate in producing ICTs and in particular to traditional or indigenous knowledges ICT endeavours for indigenous or traditional knowledges ITK vary Some aim to extend ITK digitally and others use ICTs to improve the economic and or political situation of marginalised groups This book presents themes that arise in designing to respond to ITK in different cultural social physical and historical contexts

Joyce,2009 A beautiful coffee table book that explores in word and pictures every indigenous culture in South Africa

Storyscapes Hein Viljoen,C. N. Van der Merwe,2004 In Storyscapes we listen carefully to what South African writers reveal about themselves and their relations to South African space since the democratic transition of 1994 One main focus is the power of stories to uncover contradictory processes and investments of identity and to point readers toward a more meaningful life Another main focus is the complexities of the post colonial understanding of South African land landscape and space Space in relation to race class and gender identity figures prominently in analyses and comparisons of diverse South African texts such as Breyten Breytenbach's Dog Heart Andr Brink's Imaginings of Sand as well as the important South African subgenre of the farm novel Questions of black or hybrid identity are highlighted by confronting older texts with new ones by black and women writers such as A H M Scholtz and E K M Dido These texts and a number of Afrikaans texts that are less well known in the English speaking world are set in the wider frameworks of postcolonial criticism and global issues of cultural identity

African Education and Globalization Ali A. Abdi,Korbla P. Puplampu,George Jerry Sefa Dei,2006-01-01 Containing both theoretical discussions of globalization and specific case analyses of individual African countries this collection of essays examines the intersections of African education and globalization with multiple analytical and geographical emphases and intentions
