

RED THRUST

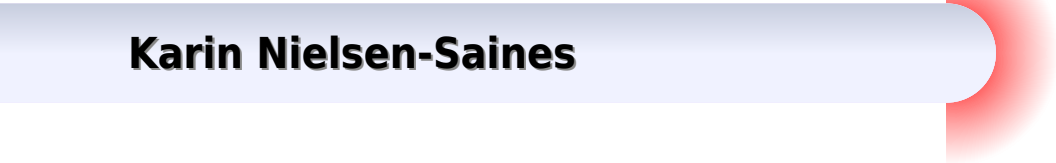

The background of the cover is a photograph of a Soviet amphibious tank, likely a T-90, on a sandy beach. Several soldiers in dark uniforms and helmets are positioned around the tank. In the background, other military vehicles and structures are visible on the beach. The overall scene is in black and white, with a high-contrast, grainy texture.

Cold War Gone Hot Ambush Alley

Ambush Alley Games,2011-11-20 My fellow Americans I m pleased to tell you today that I ve signed legislation that will outlaw Russia forever We begin bombing in five minutes Ronald Reagan 1984 With these words spoken as a sound check to a radio broadcast President Reagan came dangerously close to igniting the long simmering Cold War Although Soviet forces were placed on alert following reports of this comment the full scale conflict between the West and the Soviet Bloc did not break out Cold War Gone Hot the latest companion volume for Force on Force looks at the 44 year history of the Cold War and asks what if With the orders of battle vehicle stats and missions included in this volume Force on Force players can simulate the advance of Soviet tanks across Western Europe a thrust into Alaska or any number of other plausible scenarios where history took a slightly different path Power, Threat, Or Military Capabilities Carmel Davis,2011-11-16 Power Threat or Military Capabilities assesses two mainstays of international relations balance of power and balance of threat using the case of US balancing against the Soviet Union in the later Cold War It also proposes balance of military capabilities which uses offense defense theory to argue that countries balance against the ability of others to conquer or compel them Power Threat or Military Capabilities finds that the US was more powerful than the Soviet Union so US behavior is not explained by balance of power The US did not perceive the Soviet Union as likely to initiate war or to run risks that might lead to war so US behavior is not explained by balance of threat This book determines that the US was concerned about its ability to defend Europe and the Persian Gulf so US behavior is explained by balance of military capabilities
