Red Train:

Reimagining Time Tanya Bub, Jeffrey Bub, 2021-04-13 A quirky funny and accessible blend of science and art that delves into the heart of Einstein's theory of relativity. It was a link to his 1905 paper, an early attempt at explaining his revolutionary ideas on space, time, and matter that drew Tanya Bub into Albert Einstein's imaginative vision of the world. What particularly struck her was how Einstein interwove words and math to create clear visuals illustrating his theories. As an artist, she naturally started doodling as she worked her way through his concepts, creating drawings that intuitively demonstrated Einstein's core principles. In Reimagining Time, Tanya Bub teams up with her father, the distinguished physicist Jeffrey Bub, to create a quirky and accessible take on one of science's most revolutionary discoveries. Blending original art and text, they guide readers through Einstein's theory of special relativity to expose truths about our universe: time is relative, lengths get shorter with motion, energy and mass are interchangeable, and the Universe has a speed limit. Train DK, 2023-03-21 Visit a train station and create a colorful fold-out scene with all your favorite trains. Meeting British Association for the Advancement of Science, 1855 Reconsidering Conceptual Change: Issues in Theory and Practice Margarita Limón, L. Mason, 2007-05-08 The chapters in this volume derive from a symposium held in Madrid, Spain, from 6-8 November 1998. Organized and supported by the Autonomous University of Madrid, the meeting was part of the activities of the Special Interest Group (SIG) on Conceptual Change of the European Association for Research on Learning and Instruction (EARLI), coordinated by the editors of this book. The volume brings together contributions from leading researchers investigating the role of conceptual change to enhance meaningful learning in the classroom. The aim of the volume is to present the state of the art on a topic that has become very relevant to explaining how students and people in general build their knowledge and incorporate new concepts and ideas. The volume keeps the four main sessions in which the symposium was articulated. They were structured around both theoretical and practical issues of conceptual change. Particular attention was paid to discussing the characteristics of individuals' prior knowledge and to the more recent topic of how to integrate social, motivational, and contextual aspects of learning within conceptual change research. Boojums All the Way Through N. David Mermin,1990-03-15 Boojums All the Way Through is a collection of essays that deals in a variety of ways with the problem of communicating modern physics to both physicists and non physicists The author is Professor David Mermin a well known theoretical physicist who recently won the first Julius Edgar Lileinfeld prize of the American Physical Society for his remarkable clarity and wit as a lecturer to nonspecialists on difficult subjects David Mermin s wry humour is clearly apparent in most of these articles but even those that are more serious are characterized by a liveliness and commitment to finding startlingly simple ways of presenting ideas that are traditionally regarded as complex This book will appeal to physicists at all levels to mathematicians scientists and engineers and indeed to anyone who enjoys reading non technical accounts of new ways of looking at modern science
