Emma Liggins

Redundant Women:

Redundant Women Angela Coyle, 1984 Looks at the experiences of women in two clothing factories in Yorkshire after their closure in December 1980 M. de Tocqueville. Why are women redundant? Truth versus edification. The doom of the negro race. Time. Good people. What is culpable luxury? The special beauty conferred by imperfection and decay. Why skilled workmen don't go to church. Life at high pressure William Rathbone Greg, 1877 Why are Women Redundant? William Rathbone Greg, 1869 Fallenness in Victorian Women's Writing Deborah Anna Logan, 1998 Logan's study is distinguished by its exclusive focus on women writers including Charlotte Brontë George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Harriet Martineau Elizabeth Barrett Browning Florence Nightingale Sarah Grand and Mary Prince Logan utilizes primary texts from these Victorian writers as well as contemporary critics such as Catherine Gallagher and Elaine Showalter to provide the background on social factors that contributed to the construction of fallen woman discourse Women in Public, 1850-1900 Patricia Hollis, 2013-05-20 Assembling a full and comprehensive collection of material which illustrates all aspects of the emergent women's movement during the years 1850-1900 this fascinating book will prove invaluable to students of nineteenth century social history and women's studies to those studying the Victorian novel and to sociologists Women's pamphlets and speeches parliamentary debates and popular journalism letters and memoirs royal commissions and the leading reviews are all used to document the conflicting images of women surplus women and the issue of emigration women's work and male hostility to it the opening of education by Emily Davies the claim to equity at law the attack on the sexual double standard led by Josephine Butler women's public service from philanthropy exemplified in a Mary Carpenter or Louisa Twining or Octavia Hill to local government and finally women's entry into politics led by Lydia Becker The contents range from Caroline Norton on her battle for child custody in the 1830s to Annie Besant's inspiration of the match girls' strike in 1888 and from W T Stead on child prostitution to Mrs Humphrey War's Appeal against female suffrage in 1889 The book was originally published in 1979 Odd women? Emma Liggins, 2016-05-16 This genealogy of the odd woman compares representations of spinsters lesbians and widows in British women's fiction and auto biography from the 1850s to the 1930s Women outside heterosexual marriage in this period were seen as abnormal superfluous incomplete and threatening yet were also hailed as women of the future Before 1850 odd women were marginalised minor characters in British women's fiction yet by the 1930s spinsters lesbians and widows had become heroines This book examines how women writers including Charlotte Brontë Elizabeth Gaskell Ella Hepworth Dixon May Sinclair E H Young Radclyffe Hall Winifred Holtby and Virginia Woolf challenged dominant perceptions of singleness and lesbianism in their novels stories and autobiographies Drawing on advice literature medical texts and feminist polemic it demonstrates how these narratives responded to contemporary political controversies around the vote women's work sexual inversion and birth control as well as examining the impact of the First World War The Odd Women George Gissing, 1998-02-23 George Gissing's The Odd Women dramatizes key issues relating to class and gender in late Victorian culture the changing relationship between the sexes the social impact of odd or redundant women the cultural impact of the new woman and the opportunities for and conditions of employment in the expanding service sector of the economy At the heart of these issues as many late Victorians saw them was a problem of the imbalance in the ratio of men to women in the population There were more females than males which meant that more and more women would be left unmarried they would be odd or redundant and would be forced to be independent and to find work to support themselves In the Broadview edition Gissing's text is carefully annotated and accompanied by a range of documents from the period that help to lay out the context in which the book was written In Gissing's story Virginia Madden and her two sisters are confronted upon the death of their father with sudden impoverishment Without training for employment and desperate to maintain middle class respectability they face a daunting struggle In Rhoda Nunn a strong feminist Gissing also presents a strong character who draws attention overtly to the issues behind the novel The Odd Women is one of the most important social novels of the late nineteenth century Why Are Women Redundant? William Rathbone Greg, 2018-10-29 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Women in Nineteenth-Century Europe Rachel Fuchs, Victoria E. Thompson, 2004-11-21 During the nineteenth century European women of all countries and social classes experienced dramatic and enduring changes in their familial working and political lives However the history of women at this time is not one of unmitigated progress theirs was an uphill struggle fraught with hindrances hard work and economic downturns and the increasing intrusion of the public into their innermost private and personal lives Breaking away from traditional categories Rachel G Fuchs and Victoria E Thompson provide a sense of the variety and complexity of women's lives across national and regional boundaries juxtaposing the experiences of women with the perceptions of their lives Three themes unite this study The tension between tradition and modernity The changing relationship between the community and individual The shifting boundaries between public and private Dealing with individual women's lives within a large social and cultural context Fuchs and Thompson demonstrate how strong and courageous women refused to live within the prescribed domestic roles and how many became the modern women of the twentieth century Educating the Proper Woman Reader Jennifer Phegley, 2004 Her analysis of images of influential women readers in Harper's intellectual women readers in

The Cornhill independent women readers in Belgravia and proto feminist women readers critics in Victoria indicates that women played a significant role in determining the boundaries of literary culture within these magazines
