Gender Protest and Same-Sex Desire in Antebellum American Literature David Greven, 2016-04-22 Expanding our understanding of the possibilities and challenges inherent in the expression of same sex desire before the Civil War David Greven identifies a pattern of what he calls gender protest and sexual possibility recurring in antebellum works He suggests that major authors such as Margaret Fuller Edgar Allan Poe Herman Melville and Nathaniel Hawthorne consciously sought to represent same sex desire in their writings Focusing especially on conceptions of the melancholia of gender identification and shame Greven argues that same sex desire was inextricably enmeshed in scenes of gender role strain as exemplified in the extent to which The Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pym depicts masculine identity adrift and in disarray Greven finds similarly compelling representations of gender protest in Fuller's exploration of the crisis of gendered identity in Summer on the Lakes in Melville's representation of Redburn's experience of gender nonconformity and in Hawthorne's complicated delineation of desire in The Scarlet Letter As Greven shows antebellum authors not only took up the taboo subjects of same sex desire and female sexuality but were adept in their use of a variety of rhetorical means for expressing the inexpressible

Dark Imaginings Geoff Payne, 2008 What does it mean to say that poetry is dark How does the presence of darkness give meaning to literary works Such questions sit at the centre of this study of Lord Byron a man who has been characterised as intrinsically dark by generations of scholars This is the first book to offer a comprehensive survey of Byron's darkness producing new and innovative readings of his poetry by exploring how darkness both literal and figurative helps to structure his work's ideological topography and facilitates the exchange of ideas between its different ideological systems Canvassing a variety of issues relevant to a number of different manifestations of darkness the study explores such diverse topics as the relationship between sublime aesthetics and the gendering of desire the connection between darkness and Byron's Scottish nationalism and the influence of blackness on his engagement with the Orient With such a broad focus in mind it also engages with texts that represent Byron's oeuvre in its broadest sense engaging not only with canonical texts such as Manfred and Don Juan but also selections from Byron's juvenilia the Oriental Tales and his letters and journals as well as surveying the critical reviews that helped to influence the colour of his work and its later reception

Ghost Faces David Greven, 2016-02-09 Combines psychoanalysis queer theory masculinity studies and cultural studies to explore contemporary manhood in film Ghost Faces explores the insidious nature of homophobia even in contemporary Hollywood films that promote their own homo tolerance and appear to destabilize hegemonic masculinity Reframing Laura Mulvey's and Gilles Deleuze's paradigms and offering close readings grounded in psychoanalysis and queer theory David Greven examines several key films and genre trends from the late 1990s forward Movies considered range from the slasher film Scream to bromances and beta male comedies such as I Love You Man to dramas such as Donnie Darko and 25th Hour to Rob Zombie's
