Reflections Edl Go Series:

Reflections on the Extreme Right in Western Europe, 1990–2008 Christopher Husbands, 2020-05-26 During the last three decades or so there has been a significant growth of extreme right voter support in Europe and elsewhere in the world The chapters in this book look at an earlier period before most of this increase Comprising eight previously published articles or book chapters and two hitherto unpublished studies this book gives extended accounts of the major extreme right political parties or movements in a number of west European countries looking both at their antecedents and also at their support and significance in the 1980s and early 1990s The countries covered in detail are France the Federal Republic of Germany old and new regions the Netherlands Belgium Switzerland and Austria During the last three decades some earlier parties of the extreme right in these west European countries have disappeared into oblivion to be superseded by replacements others have survived and flourished Given the date when most of these chapters were written they are now to be regarded as contributions to a modern history about the status and relevance of the respective parties or movements The book also includes an introductory essay that discusses issues arising from the disputed labelling terminology used to describe such parties and identifies themes that feature in the more recent literature about the subsequent and current state of the extreme right in Europe The book will be of particular interest to researchers on the contemporary politics of the extreme right in Europe as well as being a valuable resource for those teaching courses on this topic or on general political sociology

Reflections on Indian Education Surendra Kumar Nanda, 1969

Cases on Academic Program Redesign for Greater Racial and Social Justice Cain-Sanschagrín, Ebony, Filback, Robert A., Crawford, Jenifer, 2021-11-19 Faculty and students confront persistent racial economic and social inequities in higher education locally nationally and globally To counter these inequities there has been a recent focus on universities providing an inclusive curriculum that serves the needs of students from a wide range of backgrounds Inclusive and equitable courses and instruction are crucial in today's world as calls for racial and social justice grow particularly in higher education Universities and instructors must take action and make changes to best serve their students Cases on Academic Program Redesign for Greater Racial and Social Justice provides an equity oriented practical guide for those in higher education who are engaged in the work of curricular reform or program development It also explores practices and approaches to curriculum development that consider program quality and equitable outcomes as mutually beneficial and necessary outcomes Covering a range of topics such as antiracism and mindful hiring it is ideal for teachers instructional designers curricula developers administrators academics professors educators researchers those working in higher education and students

Ethnographic Engagements Sara Delamont, Paul Atkinson, 2021-05-25 In Ethnographic Engagements Encounters with the Familiar and the Strange Delamont and Atkinson each with over 40 years of experience as ethnographers present strategies for designing conducting and publishing research that contributes original insights Ethnography is a core qualitative research method widely used across the social sciences However producing good interesting and thought provoking ethnography is never easy This book provides effective research strategies for combatting familiarity in the context of empirical fieldwork The authors rehearse ways that challenge the ethnographer to avoid taken for granted ideas and to make the familiar strange The book covers the cycle of research from research questions to publication and leaving the field and brings together the central themes of their life s work in one clearly written volume This book is aimed at researchers at postgraduate level and beyond their supervisors and principal investigators and at experienced investigators who want to improve their thinking Any ethnographer will find ideas and proposals to help them reflect self critically and creatively about their research practice Images Edith
