Reforming Parliamentary Democracy:

Reforming Parliamentary Democracy F. Leslie Seidle, David Campbell Docherty, 2003 Insightful analyses of recent reforms to parliamentary institutions and governance in Canada the United Kingdom Australia New Zealand and South Africa Parliamentary government combines stability and dynamism Its continuity is rooted in enduring principles such as citizen representation and accountability to the legislature But parliamentary systems have evolved in response to changes in the societies they govern and in citizens views about democratic practices In Reforming Parliamentary Democracy the authors demonstrate how in their respective countries parliamentary governments have combined stability with the capacity to adapt to such changes They provide insightful analyses of recent reforms to parliamentary institutions and governance in Canada the United Kingdom Australia New Zealand and South Africa Reforming Parliamentary Democracy Leslie Seidle, David C. Docherty, 2003-06-13 The authors address issues of representation the move to a proportional electoral system in New Zealand the unsuccessful attempt to establish a domestic head of state in Australia and the reform of the British House of Lords and demonstrate that citizens increasingly want legislative institutions to more closely reflect the societies they serve To discuss responsiveness the governance of indigenous communities and their place within the broader society in Canada and New Zealand are examined as is the role of institutions other than legislatures that are involved in protecting minority rights and responding to various forms of diversity A separate chapter analyses the basis for and merits of proposals to reform the Canadian House of Commons In addition authors review the dynamics of federalism intergovernmental relations and other processes of multi level governance in Canada the United Kingdom and South Africa Public debate about adapting governance processes to changing conditions and citizen values is a necessary condition of successful democracies and there is much to learn from progress and false starts in other parliamentary democracies Contributors include Jonathan Boston Victoria University of Wellington New Zealand Paul Chartrand consultant Victoria British Columbia Stéphane Dion minister of Intergovernmental Relations Government of Canada David Docherty Mason Durie Massey University Robert Hazell University College London Christina Murray University of Cape Town Cheryl Saunders University of Melbourne Leslie Seidle Jennifer Smith Dalhousie University and Lord Wakeham former chairman of the Royal Commission on House of Lords Reform

Reforming Parliamentary Committees Reuven Y. Hazan, 2001 Here Reuven Y Hazan argues that committees are essential for the efficient dispatch of parliamentary business and shows how several parliaments have recently reformed their committee systems to function more effectively In particular he gives an in depth knowledge and a broader understanding of Israel s committees and how they compare with the committees of other legislatures throughout the world Law Reforms Around the World Asif H Qureshi, 2023-12-01 Encapsulating Law Reform requires the creation of a discreet space occupied with normative self generation self correction and self adaptation in the very anatomy of law and the architecture of legal systems This living dynamic trait should be a hallmark of the genetic material in the modern day institution of law This edited volume sheds light on Law Reform in its domestic comparative regional and international settings It examines the process of Law Reform and explains the need for a constant appraisal to keep its wheels optimally operational The book takes a holistic approach to understanding Law Reform and calls for such an approach in the very process of Law Reform It begins by looking at Law Reform processes from a theoretical perspective Thereafter it sheds light on domestic Law Reform processes in civil and common law legal systems This is followed by a focus on Law Reform at the international level with a critical appraisal of the International Law Commission ILC drawing on its performance in international economic and environmental law Included in this consideration is also the role played in Law Reform by the IMF World Trade Organization World Intellectual Property Organization Multilateral Development Banks and the African Union Commission on International Law This volume should appeal to students serious scholars policy makers judges and the community of national and international lawyers interested in bringing effective reform in the national and international arenas African Parliamentary Reform

Frederick Staphenurst, Rasheed Draman, Andrew Imlach, Alexander Hamilton, Cindy Kroon, 2012-04-27 Some of the most far reaching and innovative parliamentary reform is occurring in Africa While these reforms are not yet widespread across the continent parliaments in some African countries are asserting their independence as policymakers as overseers of government and as the guardian of citizens rights and needs This book presents recent reforms in selected African parliaments Ghana Kenya Uganda Tanzania Rwanda Benin Zambia Ethiopia Liberia and Nigeria It also presents cross cutting innovations by African parliaments in fighting corruption in providing development to constituents and in combatting climate change Many of the chapters are authored by African MPs themselves making this a book by MPs for MPs as well as being of interest to students and scholars of African Politics and to those international institutions that support parliamentary development African Parliamentary Reform is a joint initiative by the World Bank Institute the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association and the Parliamentary Centre Africa Democratic Reform in New Brunswick William Paul Cross, 2007

Democratic Reform in New Brunswick is a comprehensive collection of research papers written initially for the New Brunswick Commission on Electoral Democracy The essays provide detailed consideration of the many issues relating to democratic and electoral reform currently on the public policy agenda in Canada Topics covered include electoral system change gender and representational issues questions relating to party democracy the role of legislators concerns around drawing electoral boundaries fixed election dates direct democracy and political disengagement among young voters All of the essays examine the implications of various reform proposals in these areas and most draw upon the experiences of other jurisdictions in addressing how they might play out in the Canadian context Many chapters also draw specifically upon the New Brunswick experience in considering how democratic reform might impact upon the province s politics New Brunswick is Canada s only bilingual province with two vibrant linguistic communities and is in many ways a microcosm of the Canadian state These readings provide insight into how issues related to democratic and electoral reform may play out on the national
