Regarding Children A New Respect For Childhood And Families:

Regarding Children Herbert Anderson, Susan B. W. Johnson, 1994-01-01 Discusses child rearing identifies children's needs and outlines the support church and society should provide Theologies of Childhood and the Children of Africa Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Alfred Brunsdon, Marcia J. Bunge, Sam Ndoga, Hannes (J.J.) Knoetze, Nico Vorster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theologies from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It wants to convey the importance of considering Africa's children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa's children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research which the authors have done in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Theologies of Childhood is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa's children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provide insights that is also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere before Children and Childhood in American Religions Don S. Browning, Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2009-02-16 Whether First Communion or bar mitzvah religious traditions play a central role in the lives of many American children In this collection of essays leading scholars reveal for the first time how various religions interpret reconstruct and mediate their traditions to help guide children and their parents in navigating the opportunities and challenges of American life The book examines ten religions among other topics How the Catholic Church confronts the tension between its teachings about children and actual practice The Oglala Lakota's struggle to preserve their spiritual tradition The impact of modernity on Hinduism Only by discussing the unique challenges faced by all religions and their followers can we take the first step toward a greater understanding for all of us

The Child in American Evangelicalism and the Problem of Affluence David A. Sims, 2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child AAEC through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history sociology and economics Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U S impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity's underside The result is the AAEC's spiritual moral lack in late modernity Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards Horace Bushnell and Lawrence Richards Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro's theory of interpretive reproductions and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider's moral theology of affluence Chapter 6 Whither the AAEC concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty first century

Children, Theology, and Bioethics Jessica Bratt Carle, 2024-12-15 Children remain at the periphery when bioethics envisions autonomous adults as normative human beings Children Theology and Bioethics Beyond Autonomy explores the full humanity of children inviting greater recognition of their place in the moral landscape of healthcare Theological insights into vulnerability dependence and agency summon appreciation for the experiences of pediatric patients and reveal what it means to be human at every age Interdisciplinary dialogue between bioethics childhood studies and pastoral theology is woven throughout with illustrative clinical vignettes from Bratt Carle's experience as a pediatric chaplain and clinical ethicist

Through the Eyes of a Child Anne Richards, Peter Privett, 2018-06-29 Looking through the eyes of a child is not a twee cosy or easy experience It can be unsettling uncomfortable edgy from the Introduction Who has the right to do theology Only academics Only adults Or do we all have a voice in the kingdom of God Through the Eyes of a Child considers 14 key theological themes from one of the most neglected of perspectives that of children Honouring Jesus' command to place the child at the centre theologians psychologists and educationalists take us from our comfort zone to look afresh at some of the most grave difficult and beautiful topics in Christian theology Challenging conventional readings of theology this landmark work will fascinate and challenge anyone who cares about children and their place in the world and the church

Children, Adults, and Shared Responsibilities Marcia J. Bunge, 2012-09-27 Collected essays discussing religious and ethical perspectives on children and obligations to them within the religious traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam Contributes to intellectual inquiry regarding children in the specific areas of children's rights and childhood studies and provides resources for child advocates and those engaged in interreligious dialogue Children, Youth, and Spirituality in a Troubling World ,2012-11 Editors Mary Elizabeth Moore and Almeda M Wright address the harsh challenging and delicate realities of children and youth who live as spiritual beings within a beautiful yet destructive world Providing a practical theological analysis of the spiritual yearnings expressions and challenges of children and youth in a world of rapid change dislocation violence and competing loyalties Children Youth and Spirituality in a Troubling World provides readers with a purposeful conversation on this important topic This book will serve as more than a collection it will be a genuine conversation which will in turn stir lively conversation among scholars theological students and Christian communities that seek to understand and respond more adequately in ministries to and with children and youth Contributors include Claire Bischoff Susanne Johnson Jennie S Knight Bonnie Miller McLemore Mary Elizabeth Moore Joyce Ann Mercer Veronice Miles Rodger Nishioka Evelyn Parker Luther E Smith Jr Joshua Thomas Katherine Turpin David White Almeda Wright and Karen Marie Yust The Oxford Handbook of Theology, Sexuality, and Gender Adrian Thatcher,2015 The Oxford Handbook of Theology Sexuality and Gender presents an unrivalled overview of the theological study of sexuality and gender These topics are not merely contentious and pervasive they have escalated in importance within theology Theologians increasingly agree that even the very doctrine of God cannot be contemplated without a prior grappling with each Featuring 41 newly commissioned essays written by some of the foremost scholars in the discipline this authoritative collection presents and develops the latest thinking in these areas Divided into eight thematic sections the Handbook explores methodological approaches contributions from neighbouring disciplines sexuality and gender in the Bible and in the Christian tradition controversies within the churches and within four of the non Christian faiths and key concepts and issues The final extended section considers theology in relation to married people and families gay and lesbian people bisexual people intersex and transgender people disabled people and to friends This volume is an essential reference for students and scholars which will also stimulate further research Child Abuse and the Coping Strategies James A.
