Russian Foreign Policy in the Post-Soviet Era B. Lo, 2002-08-12 In the first comprehensive treatment of its kind Bobo Lo examines the course of Russian foreign policy in the decade following the Soviet collapse Adopting a conceptual approach he identifies the principal ideological and institutional factors that have influenced the thinking of decisionmaking behind the policies Bobo Lo challenges many of the conventional assumptions that have dominated much of the preceding literature on Russian foreign policy

Russian Foreign Policy in the 21st Century R. Kanet, 2010-10-29 After the collapse of the Soviet Union expectations were high that a new world order was emerging in which Russia and the other former Soviet republics would join the Western community of nations That has not occurred This volume explains the reasons for this failure and assesses likely future developments in that relationship

The Sources of Russian Foreign Policy Assertiveness Angela Borozna, 2022-01-31 This book explores the sources of Russia's foreign policy conduct since the end of the Cold War It is aimed at those interested in Russian foreign policy international security and diplomacy The book embraces an eclectic approach by applying insights from several strands of IR theory exploring both international and domestic sources The author argues that Russian foreign policy is influenced by the country's strategic culture which exhibits some persistent elements inherited from Russia's imperial past and from Soviet times The challenges to Russia's security interests from Western policies led to an increase in Russian foreign policy assertiveness As a result Russia is becoming more committed to Eurasian integration and nurturing relations with China This book further argues that Russia's relations with the post Soviet states have been and will remain a priority of its foreign relations and therefore Russia is likely to continue challenging any Western interference in these states The author maintains that geoeconomics and the protection of overseas economic interests are becoming more prominent in Russia's foreign policy calculus The role of domestic factors in the country's foreign policy such as authoritarianism regime vulnerability and the role of political factions is also examined

Kozhemiakin, Roger E. Kanet, 2016-07-27

International Relations and Russian Foreign Policy in the 20th Century (Volume II) Boris F. Martyn, Anatoly V.

Torkunov, William C. Wohlforth, 2020-01-08 This second volume focusing on 1945 1991 unpacks the reasons for the Cold War and takes the reader through its ebbs flows and unexpected end How did the allies of World War II become enemies The authors argue that the Cold War controversy could have been avoided or at least mitigated had the sides been guided by healthy pragmatism instead of ideology and megalomania Contradictory relations between the superpowers regional wars and conflicts and the scramble to escape a nuclear Holocaust all of this reads sometimes as a good detective story

Perestroika and Glasnost useful as they might be came too late to radically improve the poisonous atmosphere of enmity in East West relations The end of the Cold War did not mean the end of rivalry Good will in this case did not guarantee good outcomes As civilizational cultural personal and religious contradictions begin to replace economic and social divides we need to be fully aware of our past if we are to do our best to resolve these issues Russian Foreign Policy Eric

Power, Energy, and the New Russian Imperialism Anita Orban, 2008-09-30

Russia is the world's foremost energy superpower rivaling Saudi Arabia as the world's largest oil producer and accounting for a quarter of the world's exports of natural gas Russia's energy reserves account for half of the world's probable oil reserves and a third of the world's proven natural gas reserves Whereas military might and nuclear weapons formed the core of Soviet cold war power since 1991 the Russian state has viewed its monopolistic control of Russia's energy resources as the core of its power now and for the future Since 2005 the international news has been filled with Russia's repeated demonstrations of its readiness to use price transit fees and supply of gas and oil exports as punitive policy instruments against recalcitrant states that were formerly part of the Soviet Union striking in turn the Ukraine Georgia Azerbaijan Armenia Belarus and Lithuania Orban reveals for the first time in Power Energy and the New Russian Imperialism Russia's readiness to wield the same energy weapon against her neighbors on the west all of them former Soviet satellite states but now EU and NATO member nations the three Baltic nations and the five East European nations of Poland Slovakia Hungary the Czech Republic and Slovenia Orban shows how the Kremlin since 1991 has systematically used Russian energy companies as players in a concerted neo mercantilist energy based foreign policy designed to further Russia's neo imperial ambitions among America's key allies in Central East Europe Her unprecedented analysis is key to predicting Russia's strategic response to American negotiations with Poland and the Czech Republic to host the US missile shield She also reveals the economic and diplomatic modus operandi by which Russia will increasingly apply its energy clout to shape and coerce the foreign policies of the West European members of the EU as Russia's contribution to EU gas consumption increases from a quarter today to three quarters by 2020 Orban proves that Russia's neo mercantilist energy strategy in East Europe is not at all dependent on the person of Putin but began under Yeltsin and continues under Medvedev the former chairman of Gazprom
