Rusty A Cocker Spaniel:

Rusty, a Cocker Spaniel Sterner St. Paul Meek, 1938 Memories Are from the Heart Rick Houser, 2018-02-01 I don't know about other kids past or present but when I hit high school and as I drew near to the day of my sixteenth birthday there was only one thought on my mind That was to get my driver's license and my own car With those two items in hand I had obtained my independence That you heard correctly To have a license to drive and a set of keys to a car that was there for me to get into and drive away from the farm and go just about anywhere was in my mind the ultimate goal a sixteen year old could possibly obtain It's A Doggy-Dog World Jerry Travis, 2008-12-05 Love For & From My 4-Legged Son: How an ordinary golden retriever became an extraordinary dog Michael N. Marcus, 2017-04-13 This is the story of the amazing Hunter J Marcus my four legged son Hunter lived for 15 years and three months He was a golden retriever and the typical lifespan for a golden is 10 12 years so he definitely had high mileage His death was not sudden violent nor unexpected but was nonetheless very sad I could not be more miserable because of the loss of a human child I never thought of Hunter as a pet and certainly not as a possession He was a housemate playmate child co conspirator fellow traveler and most of all my best buddy He soared like an eagle swam like a porpoise ate like a shark and often thought like a human Hunter understood dozens of English words and was very obedient when he chose to be Golden retrievers are very smart and very independent Hunter always knew exactly what he was supposed to do in any situation and sometimes he was willing to do what he was supposed to do We rewarded bad behavior because anything a dog does is cute This book is a memorial but it's fun not morbid Autumn Spring Sam Pickering, 2007 No one creates so many memorable saucy aphorisms piquant bitter sweet arousing Pat C Hoy II New York University Sam Pickering's essays are funny and wise and always intoxicating eggnog to warm glazed winter nights and juleps to cool sweltering summer days He wanders Connecticut Canada and the South seeding his old farm in Nova Scotia with words and scattering paragraphs in and about classrooms at the University of Connecticut He describes the great flowerings of summers and falls He mulls over vanishing friendships then hunts for buried treasure in a library He endures a massage ponders the genteel and explores shadowy alcoves and books For him home is where heart and heartache thrive together Students make him laugh and weep and in part his book is a teaching manual crammed with anecdotal good sense He buries his old dog George and picks up Bert a rescue dachshund addicted to unmentionable munchies and cloddish doggy behavior an animal who obstinately refuses to cross the Rainbow Bridge Pickering runs road races although he says anyone in a motorized walker could leave him far behind In Premortem he anatomizes his vanishing muscles and then decides to have a knee operation in hopes of shuffling fast enough to keep a heel tap ahead of the pale rider on the white horse This is a book about love and happiness a restorative collection that shows readers how to enjoy life's small glories even among its indignities When the going gets sour Pickering tells a joke and transforms the sour into sweet delight Sam Pickering teaches English at the University of Connecticut The inspiration for the

There are many things we cannot understand fathomless questions that confront and confuse us but the most baffling is the human mind With that thought I have tried to show my observations interpretations and notes I hope this book will remind us what a kind sweet considerate and compassionate person Jim was Thank you to my family for being the thoughtful caring people you are And to Jim s friends a special thank you I could not have survived without your help and inspiration His life was cut short much too soon The Road to Mount Lemmon Mary Ellen Barnes,2016-10-01 As you wind your way up the Catalina Highway it doesn t matter whether you re a first time visitor or a native Tucsonan you know you re on the way to someplace special The Santa Catalina Mountains first captivated Tony Zimmerman on a 1937 hunting trip Regard for the alpine beauty must have been in his genes he was the son of Swiss German immigrants and by 1940 the Tucson schoolteacher had begun taking his family to Mount Lemmon to spend the summer Back then the road up the mountain was a rough two track dirt road from Oracle and Summerhaven was nothing but a sleepy cluster of summer cabins But Tony Zimmerman was to help change all of that The Road to Mount Lemmon is a beguiling memoir of the Catalina Mountains told by the daughter of one of the pioneers in the life and development of Mount Lemmon s communities Mary Ellen Barnes tells how her father Tony resigned from teaching in 1943 to devote his career to the development of this mountain oasis He not only sold real estate for long time landowner Randolph Jenks he even bought the village s tiny two room store installing a sawmill to build a larger store and built the Mount Lemmon Inn And as she spins Tony s personal saga she also gives readers a glimpse of the Catalinas before Tucson became a boom town recalling idyllic adventures in wild country and the cowboys rangers ranchers and loggers who worked there Barnes tells Tony s story as if sharing it with family evoking her father s personality on every page The Road to Mount Lemmon is an intimate view of a mountain community over the course of nearly sixty years a view that few people have shared but one all can appreciate The Social Behavior of Older Animals Anne Innis Dagg,2009-02-02 A groundbreaking study on the lives of senior mammals and birds from the aging of alphas to the role of grandmothers by the author of Animal Friendships How do young and old social animals view each other Are aged animals perceived by others as weaker Or wiser What is the relationship between age and power among social animals Taking a cue from Frans de Waal s seminal work examining the lives of chimpanzees Anne Innis Dagg in this pioneering study probes the lives of older mammals and birds Synthesizing the available scientific research and anecdotal evidence she explores how aging affects the lives and behavior of animals ranging from elk to elephants and gulls to gorillas examining such topics as longevity how others in a group view senior members in regard to leadership wisdom and teaching mating success interactions with mates and offspring how aging affects dominance changes in aggressive behavior and adaptability and death and dying At once instructive and compelling this theme spanning book reveals the complex nature of maturity in scores of social species and shows that animal behavior often displays the same diversity we find in ourselves Dagg s book should be a corrective to us all species that lose or ignore the contributions of their older members do so at their peril Literary Review of Canada Humans and chimps it turns out value age in sexual partners very differently In our species youth is prized but among chimps the reverse is the case The New York Review of Books Bulletin - Bureau of Education United States.
