Global View S. P. Agrawal,2002 Globalistics and Globalization Studies: Aspects & Dimensions of Global Views

Arkadi D. Ursul,Endre Kiss,Alexander N. Chumakov,Olga G. Leonova,Tu Weiming,Peter G. Kirchsclaeger,Anthony Howell,Hae Kim,Jim Sheffield,2014-04-30 Nowadays globalization processes have become all embracing But at the same time despite the ever increasing flow of publications on globalization our understanding and knowledge of it still leaves much to be desired Especially it concerns the global processes in general of which globalization is a part We also need to systematize our ideas about globalization and Global Studies to somehow fit the realities In particular this concerns the education process because the current state of education will determine the way people will perceive reality in the forthcoming decades This yearbook aims at contributing to the solution of these important tasks It is the third in the series of yearbooks titled Globalistics and Globalization Studies This year it has the following subtitle Aspects Dimensions of Global Views Its authors consider globalization and Global Studies in different dimensions and aspects philosophical methodological and pedagogical in terms of various processes problems and perspectives Of course to some extent this means that this yearbook presents rather diverse materials But globalization itself is very diverse And its comprehension may proceed in the framework of different theoretical approaches and points of view In the present yearbook one can find perceptions of globalization and Global Studies by a number of scholars from different countries of the world and learn rather peculiar visions of globalization by the Russian scientists and educators The yearbook will be interesting to a wide range of researchers teachers students and all those who pay attention to global issues Global Perspectives on Human Migration, Asylum, and Security Akrivopoulou, Christina M.,2017-11-30 Unstable social climates are causing the displacement of large numbers of people around the world Thus the issue of safe replacement arises causing the need for new policies and strategies regarding immigration Global Perspectives on Human Migration Asylum and Security is a timely reference source for the latest research on the challenges risks and policies of current relocation and refugee flows as well as address security problems in relation to these aspects of immigration Featuring coverage on a wide variety of topics and perspectives such as terrorism racism and human rights this publication is ideally designed for academicians policy makers researchers and practitioners seeking current research on the current societal happenings of refugee integration around the world The Geopolitics of Energy in South Asia Marie Lall,2009 Energy security has become a central concern for all the countries in the Asian region and the search for sufficient sources of energy to fuel economic growth has drastically influenced relations among the South Asian countries as well as their respective relations with their neighbours China Myanmar Iran and Afghanistan The recent nuclear deal between India and the US is also indicative of how energy and power politics are linked and how these new inter linkages underlie relations between states This book aims to give a South Asian perspective on the geopolitics of energy with a central focus on India The chapters address how India s global and regional foreign policy making has changed in light of India s search for energy and how this is affecting the relationship on a global level between India and the US as well as on a regional level between India and the other Asian countries The book also offers views from Pakistan and Bangladesh as well as how this shifting reality is affecting relations between India and Southeast Asia Region-building

Ludger Kühnhardt,2010-07-01 After two centuries of nation building the world has entered an era of region building in search of political stability cultural cohesion and socio economic development Nations involved in the regional structures and integration schemes that are emerging in most regions of the world are deepening their ambitions with Europe s integration experience often used as an experimental template or theoretical model Volume I provides a political analytical framework for recognizing the central role of the European Union not only as a conceptual model but also a normative engine in the global proliferation of regional integration It also gives a comprehensive treatment of the focus motives and objectives of non European integration efforts Volume II offers a unique collection of documents that give the best available overview of the legal and political evolution of region building based on official documents and stated objectives of the relevant regional groupings across all continents Together these volumes are important contributions for understanding the evolution of global affairs in an age when power shifts provide new challenges and opportunities for transatlantic partners and the world community Fostering Asian Regional Cooperation and Open Regionalism in an Unsteady World Asian Development Bank,2021-12-01 This publication summarizes the key discussions of the 2019 conference on regional cooperation and integration RCI organized by the Asian Development Bank ADB It underscores the need for ADB developing member countries DMCs to work closely with the private sector to finance climate resilient infrastructure and bolster inclusive growth as well as harness new technologies Drawing on insights from the conference the publication shows why DMCs need to act collectively to strengthen their green energy capabilities and develop a shared ocean based economy It also emphasizes how cross border and regional cooperation can improve trade reduce inequalities and help build sustainable livelihoods

The Geopolitics of Australia's Regional Relations D. Rumley, 2001-06-30 The origins of this book go back 30 years to the stimulation and interest generated by the political geography seminars led by John House at the University of Newcastle Upon Tyne I was very fortunate to graduate among its extremely capable sporty and enthusiastic class of 68 from where several academic geographers emerged Equally fortunately some of them and their predecessors had already blazed a trail to undertake graduate studies in Canada At the University of British Columbia I was supervised at different times by Julian Minghi and Victor Prescott both of whom are not only extremely capable academics but are also very fine people I owe an enormous debt to John Julian and Victor and to the British and Canadian taxpayers who provided financial support for my University studies In 1974 I began an academic career at the University of Western Australia where I have been ever since save for a two year period from 1991-3 as Professor of Australian Studies in the Department of International Relations at the University of Tokyo Viewing Australia and the Asia Pacific region from this different perspective within an extremely supportive Japanese environment had a profound impact I am especially grateful for the support provided by so many Japanese academic colleagues and friends beginning as early as 1976 Three individuals deserve special mention for their help guidance and enduring friendship George Ohshima Hiroshi Tanabe and Akihiro Kinda

International Law And Sustainable Development Nico J. Schrijver, Friedl Weiss, 2004-01-01 Schrijver Vrije U Amsterdam and Weiss U of Amsterdam have both served on committees of the International Law Association ILA

Great Powers, Climate Change, and Global Environmental Responsibilities Robert Falkner, Barry Buzan, 2022-01-10 This book is the first of its kind to examine the role of great powers in the international politics of climate change It develops a novel analytical framework for studying environmental power in international relations what counts as a great power in the environmental field and what their special environmental responsibilities are In doing so the book connects International Relations IR debates on power inequality great powers and great power management with global environmental politics GEP scholarship The book brings together leading scholars in IR and GEP whose contributions focus on major environmental powers United States China European Union India Brazil Russia and international institutions and issue areas UN Security Council multilateral environmental agreements international climate leadership coal politics The contributors to this volume examine how individual great powers have responded to the global climate challenge and whether they have accepted a special responsibility for stabilizing the global climate They place emerging discourses on great power responsibility in the context of wider debates about international environmental leadership and climate change securitization And they provide new insights into how international power inequality intersects with the global ecological crisis and what special role great powers could and should play in the international fight against global warming
