Sacralization Of A Social Order:

The Hindu Caste System: The sacralization of a social order Harold Alton Gould,1987 The Power of the Sacred Hans Joas,2021 In The Power of the Sacred Hans Joas develops a new sociological theory of religion by reconstructing existing scientific theories of religion from the eighteenth century to the present Through a critical reading and reassessment of key texts Joas proposes an alternative to the narratives of disenchantment and secularization which have dominated debates on the topic He further offers the most thorough reconstruction of the meaning of this concept demonstrates how problematic it is for an appropriate understanding of religion in modernity and presents the basic features of an alternative Explaining Evil J. Harold Ellens,2011-02-18 In this three volume set international scholars from across a broad spectrum of scholarly fields examine the concept of evil throughout history and world cultures from religious scientific psychological and political perspectives The manifestation of evil has provided a convenient theme for popular culture entertainment ranging from the classic film The Exorcist to almost all of Stephen King s horror novels to video games such as Resident Evil Unfortunately dealing with and attempting to overcome the forces of evil is a pervasive problem in the real world as well Explaining Evil addresses incidents of evil from ancient times to modern day around the globe Concepts of evil within the big three religions Christianity Judaism and Islam are examined as well as in Chinese philosophy and Native American beliefs The political or national expressions of evil are explored such as the axis of evil that culminated in World War II These volumes identify the causes and effects of evil and suggest possible remedies to humanity s inescapable flaw

Islam & Politics Afghanistan N Asta Olesen,2013-01-11 The years 1978 and 1979 were dramatic throughout south and western Asia In Iran the Pahlavi dynasty was toppled by an Islamic revolution In Pakistan Zulfikar Ali Bhutto was hanged by the military regime that toppled him and which then proceeded to implement an Islamization programme Between the two lay Afghanistan whose Saur Revolution of April 1978 soon developed into a full scale civil war and Soviet intervention The military struggle that followed was largely influenced by Soviet US rivalry but the ideological struggle followed a dynamic of its own Drawing on a wide range of sources including such previously unused archival material as British Intelligence reports this is a detailed study of the Afghan debate on the role of Islam in politics from the formation of the modern Afghan state around 1800 to the present day

India's Silent Revolution Christophe Jaffrelot,2003 Jaffrelot argues that the trend towards lower caste representation in national politics constitutes a genuine democratization of India and that the social and economic effects of this silent revolution are bound to multiply in the years to come Sacralization and Secularization Roger Aubert,1969 Emile Durkheim Stephen Turner,2003-09-02 International scholarship over the last twenty years has produced a new understanding of Emile Durkheim as a thinker It has contributed to reassembling what for Durkheim was always a whole a sociological selection on morals and moral activism This volume presents an overview of Durkheim s thought and is representative of the best of contemporary Durkheim scholarship Radical Secularization? Stijn

Latr❖, Walter Van Herck, Guido Vanheeswijck, 2016-06-30 What does it mean for a society to be secular Answering this question from a philosophical angle Radical Secularization delves into the philosophical presuppositions of secularization Which cultural evolutions made secularization possible International scholars from different disciplines assess the answers given by many leading philosophers such as among others L with Blumenberg and Habermas Germany Gauchet and Nancy France Taylor and Bellah North America They examine the theory that secularization cannot only be regarded as a cultural change that was forced upon religion from an external source e g science but should also be considered as a phenomenon triggered by motives internal to religion If religions are indeed capable of inner transformations the question arises whether religions can persist in the secular societies they inadvertently helped to bring about and how secular societies may accommodate religion

Durkheimian Sociology Jeffrey C. Alexander, 1990-09-13 The classic works of Emile Durkheim are characterized by a structural approach to the understanding of collective behaviour and it is this element of his writings that has been most taken up by modern social science This volume however rejects the dominant structural approach and draws instead on Durkheim's later work in which he shifted to a symbolic theory of modern industrial societies that emphasized the importance of ritual and placed the tension between the sacred and the profane at the center of society In so doing the contributors offer both a radically different approach to Durkheimian sociology and a new way of linking the interpretation of culture and the interpretation of society In his introduction to the volume Jeffrey Alexander elaborates the new interpretation of Durkheim that informs the contributions His arguments form a background for the lively and provocative chapters that follow which provide broadly cultural interpretations of such topics as popular upheavals and social movements ranging from the French Revolution to the massive rebellions in Poland and Nicaragua in the 1980s political crisis from Watergate to the crisis of legitimation in contemporary capitalism and the creative and contingent element in symbolic behaviour including the symbolics of intimate friendship and the ritual and rhetoric of media events In addition to re-examining Durkheimian sociology the essays also demolish the myth that attention to cultural values implies conservatism or the inability to analyze social change and challenge the common antithesis between normative theory and microsociology Its exploration of the links between Durkheimian sociology and the most important developments in contemporary sociology history anthropology and semiotics will ensure it a broad appeal across the social sciences

Movement Or Moment? Patrick Claffey, Joe Egan, 2009 This collection of essays was written to mark the fortieth anniversary of the Second General Conference of Latin American Bishops which convened at Medell n Colombia in 1968 Inspired by the Second Vatican Council and seeking to implement its vision the bishops viewed the occasion as a decisive one for Latin America which they saw as standing on the threshold of a new epoch in the history of our continent It appears to have been a time full of zeal for emancipation of liberation from every form of servitude of personal maturity and of collective integration Forty years later however it is appropriate to remember the event and to review the significance of liberation theology in light of all that has happened during the intervening period

The colloquium at the Milltown Institute Dublin which led to this book sought to do precisely that to establish where liberation theology now stands by questioning whether it really is a significant theological and ecclesial movement or merely a moment whose time has passed and to investigate its enduring legacy

The Ultimate Sacrifice Clayton Fordahl, 2020-03-05 This book presents an interpretive macro historical and sociological account of martyrdom Moving away from the notion of martyrdom as an object of individual behavior and seeing it instead as a significant cultural work performed by communities in the wake of a violent death it provides a novel interpretation of Western political and religious history In addition to thus redressing the disproportionate attention given to the concept's relationship to Islam the author offers a new perspective on two defining historical processes secularization and the rise of modern sovereignty in the form of the nation state An innovative analysis of the role of sacrifice in contemporary culture which constitutes a timely critique of long dominant theories of disenchantment and the privatization of religion The Ultimate Sacrifice will appeal to sociologists and social theorists with interests in religion politics and the connection between the two
