Comparative Religion William E. Paden,2016-05-19 The cross cultural study of religion has always gone hand in hand with the worldview sciences or intellectual frameworks of the time These frames whether focused on psychology or politics gender or colonialism bring out perspectives for understanding religious behavior Today one of our common civic worldviews is represented in the shift from scriptural to evolutionary history This volume brings together in one place key essays by professor emeritus William Paden showing a progression of steps he has taken in exploring bridgeworks between comparative religion and evolutionary models of religious behavior One of the leading scholars in religious studies Paden shows ways that religion can be contextualized as part of the natural world and thus seen as reflecting the ingrained sociality and world making drive of the human species Paden argues that although comparativism has been challenged as too culture bound too western or too gendered cross over categories and concepts between religious traditions cannot be avoided Arguing that there are recurrent patterns of human behavior common to our species and that thereby underlie all cultures he proposes that the missing link in the Religion Evolution debate is comparative religion a global cross cultural perspective on religious behaviours throughout time Each article is contextualized within this overall trajectory of thought within Paden s work and the history of the discipline as a whole Social Controversy and Public Address in the 1960s and Early 1970s Richard J. Jensen,2017-10-01 The period between the 1960s and 1970s is easily one of the most controversial in American history Examining the liberal movements of the era as well as those that opposed them this volume offers analyses of the rhetoric of leaders including those of the civil rights movement the Chicano movement the gay rights movement second wave feminism and conservative resistance groups It also features an introduction that summarizes much of the significant research done by communication scholars on dissent in the 1960s and 1970s This time period is still a fertile area of study and this book provides insights into the era that are both provocative and illuminating making it an essential read for anyone looking to learn more about this time in America Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim,Gareth Richards,Victor T. King,2021-10-23 This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia s plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Summit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore An Encyclopedia of Shamanism Volume 1 Christina Pratt, 2007-08-01 Shamanism can be defined as the practice of initiated shamans who are distinguished by their mastery of a range of altered states of consciousness Shamanism arises from the actions the shaman takes in non ordinary reality and the results of those actions in ordinary reality It is not a religion yet it demands spiritual discipline and personal sacrifice from the mature shaman who seeks the highest stages of mystical development "A" Dictionary of Music and Musicians (A.D. 1450-1883) ...
