Immigrant Integration In Contemporary Singapore: Solutioning Amidst Challenges Mathews Mathew, Melvin Tay, 2023-01-17 Singapore's success as a global city is in no small part attributable to its stance on foreign labour and immigrants illustrated by a largely welcoming but discerning immigration regime to fulfil vital socio economic needs However this fairly liberal policy on immigration has been met with substantial disquiet over the last decade Xenophobic tendencies have surfaced periodically and have been compounded by the Covid 19 pandemic This edited volume spotlights these contemporary issues on immigrant integration in Singapore and adopts a functional approach by explicitly bridging academic and practitioner perspectives The chapters are organised into three sections The first section on Challenges discusses various dominant trends obstacles to immigrant integration based on ethnicity culture and religion and the fear and associated emotions that characterise reactions to immigration The second section focuses on Communities their perspectives and lived experiences in Singapore society The latter differ substantially depending on migrant statuses and are contingent on social capital defined in relation to locals in the city state The last section seeks to illustrate the various Solutioning endeavours in tandem with the contentious nature of immigration These concrete efforts range from ground up initiatives community based collaborative approaches and government programming all seeking to advance immigrant integration in Singapore
